The Absurdity of Tight Lacing. There would be no tight lacing if girls could be made to understand this simple fact—that men dread the thought of marrying a woman who is subject to fits of NERVOUS & DEBILITATED irritable temper, to bad headaches and other ailments we need not mention, all of which everybody knows are the direct and inevitable product of the compression of the waist. Men like to see a small waist, certainly, but there is a very which is well formed and in proportion with the rest of the figure, and a waist which is obsiously and artificially compressed, to the destruction of that easy and graceful carriage, which is one of the chief charms of a woman's appearance. An unnaturally compressed waist is far more certain of detection than a mass of false hair or a faint dusting of violet powder. The involuntary discharges what effect does it rawest youth who enters a ballroom can pick out the women little extra exertion produce palpitation of who have strightened themselves artificially; and there is no more order?
