LAST YEAR. The violets blossomed where she trod Last Spring-time by my side: The lilies rose and talked to her— She shamed the roses' pride. Her eyes were blue, her step was light, Her smile was bright as day; I loved her, I prayed for her, I thought of her always.

THE BEAST PLAYING OUT. THE DEVIL GETS HIS OWN—GENERAL NEGLEY'S PREMIUM PERJURY—GENERAL SLOCUM INDIGNANTLY SNUBBING GENERAL BUTLER—FIRST CHAPTER IN THE SECRET HISTORY OF THE TREASURY DEPARTMENT—ETC.

WASHINGTON, February 7.—The Butler-Asylum investigation will end in a few days time, and the committee will make a report, with the accompanying testimony of General Negley, of Pennsylvania, who is chairman of the sub-committee, will no doubt endeavor to whitewash General Butler, as he thinks it will do the Republican party much harm to make a truthful report of the facts as they exist.

GENERAL BUTLER HAD ORDERED these witnesses not to be paid, as he wanted the matter to come up in the House, and had something to say in reference thereto. This was enough to stop payment, as "Butler" is the House.

IT WAS REALLY AN amusing sight to see the determination of the witness not to answer, the capers round the table, the leering, pleading, and cunning smile of Butler, as though he thought he had everything his own way, until the clear voice of General Slocum broke the silence with the sound, practical and determined decision, "That paper is no evidence; when the time comes that General Butler shall offer it as evidence, it must be ruled out!"

A Michigan woman found a live lizard in the heart of a potato, with no visible means of ingress, and has become insane in an attempt to decide whether the potato hatched the lizard from the seed, or the lizard grew the potato as a sort of overcoat.

him whether I sent it or not, as I AM NOT AFRAID OF HIM. Much has been iterated and reiterated by the Radical press concerning the anarchic state of society in several of the Southern States, caused, as they allege, solely by the lawless acts of bands of Ku-Klux; and the Federal Government has repeatedly been invoked to restore order by the strong arm of military force.
