There is not a place in Oregon where a from ten to filteen dollars a month.

FOURTH COMING.-We hear a general regular old-fashioned Fourth of July relebration in this city. We hope that such will be the case, and that the necessary steps will be taken in due time to make it a grand success. Last year we had a very fine time for the length of time given to get it up, but the matter was delayed too long. Let the subject receive early attention, procure an able prator, good music, and we shall have foundreds of people from abroad on the
