A Queer Pullet.

[From Pomeroy's Democrat.] Good reader, did you ever see Mrs. Mary Doctor Walker, that wandering female genius who goes about the country raising much hullabaloo? We have read of her, and concerning her, in many parts of the country. During the war she occupied many places. We general assortment ofheard of her in the army and out. There were those who gave evil and good report concerning her. There were persons vicious, and malicious enough to say that she was engaged playing the columbine, or something of that sort, to the military harlequins who helped to fill the national burying ground. And wither the tongue or perish the son who would ever thus insult woman!

She has been in the papers and out of the same, and has kicked up more newspaper talk than any other old woman, excepting Greeley, in the country.

We saw her in the streets a few days since, heading a procession of about sixty newsboys and bootblacks, who were wafting pieces of brick, ends of bone, oyster shells, | learned that sardine boxes, wads of wet paper, symphonies of mud, and such do- LIES IN SMAJL PROFITS ings towards her femalely form. Mrs. Dr. Walker bore it like a OFFER SUCH INDUCEMENTS AS WILL martyr. She was a walker of high renown, and walked straight ahead stopping not, but wanting to know of the urchins why in thunder all these doings were thus.

She is a strong-minded women. She is a politician, and wears over her left ventricle a coppercolored badge, representing a man with a cheese knife trying to shave the Goddess of Liberty. That badge was a reward of merit given her for professional services in the With all the choicest qualities of Liquors and army. She was a surgeon, and she Cigars. Scotch, Irish and Bourbon already looks like it.

don't handsome worth a cent. We STONE ALE! do not wonder that she roams the country over, for the parents that begat her could feel no especial pride in having her ornament their parlor. She is pleasant, and when she interviews a man is borous to an alarming extent. She hath a head shaped like a shoe-peg, and STOVES, TINPLATE, SHEET IRON, BRA doth wear the funniest skirts, coming down to the knee-pan or thereabouts, with little black breeches, skeedoogled with a string around her ankles, like the pucker in a green apple after a boy hath bitten the same and it hath wilted.

She hath a mission. It beith to overturn this world. She desires To ameliorate the female sex and Tin, Copper, and Sheet to benefit mankind by giving them back seats.

If you never saw ber, you don't want to! But if you should see a weazen, wizziney, insignificantlooking woman, standing up like an ax-helve without a knob on it, with just intellect enough for her own use and none to spare, that is | HARDWARE AND BASKETS, WOODEN, Mrs. Dr. Mary Walker, the leader of processions, and a great source of fun for dirty, ragged boys and ungodly urchins, who so delight in heaving missiles of various kinds upon this one, who is not the fairest of her sex by a good sight.

But this much; we never heard ought against her character. If we should, our estimation of the masculine gender would go below par at once.

(From the Lancaster (Wis.) Democrat. During the year 1858, there appeared in the village of Potosi a man seated upon a load of green of the Lafavette. stopped to inquire the way to Ga we intend exering it as it ought to be lena. In Potosi at that time lived KETT. one Pat. Dorsey, a man who loved excitement and was sure to get up a horse race if possible. On that day, in 1858. Dorsey had made a race, and the man with the hides saw the crowd gathering, and asked the cause. He was told they were going to have a race. Instead of taking the road to Galena, he turned his mules about and drove to the race course.

In 1871 the Congress of the United States are in session, fighting over the San Domingo and DRUGS and MEDICINES, Ku-Klux affairs. A man sits in The Presidential chair who wants Congress to adjourn so that he can repair to Long Island to see VARNISHES, BRUSHES, PAINTERS the opening of the spring races. The man who wants to go to Long Island now, and who wanted to see the quarter race in Potosi in 1858, are one and the same man-Ulysses S. Grant.

Is it to be wondered at that a man who would neglect his employer's business when out gathering hides for the tannery, would hesitate to squander the people's time when elevated to a higher position. Old habits grow and become chronic, and Grant's interest in horse racing is greater now than it was in 1858.
