High Heels

|From the Philadelphia Age. | Visiting a hospital in a large CORNER OF MAIN AND SIXTH STREETS city is by no means a pleasant occupation. The sights are not agreeable; the surroundings suggest no ideas of a happy or agreeable character, save those connected with the care of the sick, the call and examine his stock, consisting of a prostrate, the suffering. Especially general assortment ofdo these remarks apply to the HOSPITALS DEVOTED TO SURGICAL

CASES. In these Institutions all the sights Dry Goods, are of a painful aspect. Men and women are to be seen suffering under the most dreadful afflictions, their bodies distorted, their limbs twisted, excrescences clinging to them like living curses, eyes gone, and the whole human economy burdened by special maladies, which can only be reached by the keen knife, the clear eye, the steady nerve, and the iron hand of the veteran surgeon. And then the preperation and labor are on a level with the task to be acomplished. Men, women and children, lifeless under the effect of chloroform, or some other agent of a similar character, human bodies learned that carried from place to place on bloodless, work of the operators, turning conciousness makes them sensible of what has been done, are all parts of a scene which if once witnessed will never be forgotten. But all this is necessary as a means SHADES SALOON. of releiving sufferers from pain, and restoring them to the use of their natural functions. Science, skill and care reduce the suffering | Best BILLIARD TABLES in OREGON of those compelled to undergo surgical operations, to the lowest point. · But enough remains to . frighten people from paths, the end | With all the choicest qualities of Liquors and of which is the operating table Cigars, Scotch, Irish and Bourbon already and the surgeon's knife. Pancoast remarked the other day, after performing a painful operation on an interesting little girl whose feet had been ruined by wearing STOVES, TINPLATE, SHEET IRON, BRAwrongly constructed shoes, "this is the beginning of a large harvest of such cases." And what else can be expected? Mothers walk the streets with heels on their boots from two and a half to three and a half inches high, and not more mishing Goods. than an inch in diameter, and their daughters follow the same bad and barbarous practice. In many cases severe sprains of the ankles are suffered. But these are not the worst fruits of the high heel torture. The toes are forced against the fore part of the boot, and soon begin to assume unnatural positions. In many cases they are Also, at POPE'S STOVE STORE you actually dislocated. In other cases the great toe passes under the foot, HARDWARE AND BASKETS, WOODEN, the tendons harden in that position, and lameness is contracted, forwhich there is no cure but the knife. When the injury does not take this form it assumes other aspects almost as horrible and distressing. There are thousands of young girls tip-toeing it along our streets to-day, who, in a few years

if their parents do not interfere and remove the cause. We will have a race of women almost as helpless, so far as walking is con-Prned, as those in China.
