OFFICIAL PAPER FOR CLATSOP COUNTY.

Oregon City, Oregon, Friday, June 30, 1871.

Making Faces.

The New York Herald was the originator of the Ohio 'Departure,' and nominated Gen. Sherman on the platform. Now, since its platform has been adopted and Sherman refuses to accept the position, it is making faces at the Democracy for allowing itself to be fooled into this fatal error.

The nomination of General George W. McCook, who fought nobly for the Union and who has a good record, for Governor of Ohio, shows that the Democracy of that State has no sympathy with rebellion. Whatever may be said of the conversion of Vallandigham and others...

This, indeed, is a 'right about face' for the untried and a wet blanket for the Northern Democracy to the Southern Ku-Klux Klan. We can not help but say, in a single bound, to clear the back track on the road which they have been ten years fighting and traveling toward...

CARRIAGE.—It is the custom with some men, who are not possessed with moral courage to resist a wrong to counsel silence for fear that circumstances may occur by which a certain policy, objection and wrong, may become the general sentiment of a party, and be engrained into the party platform...

FROM ST. LOUIS.—Hon. Stephen Staats, of Polk county, writes as follows to the Statesman, from St. Louis, under date of the 13th inst.: I availed myself of the opportunity, and insisted a comparison between the wheat of this part of the country and that of Oregon...

APPOINTMENTS.—Judge Sawyer of the U. S. Circuit Court has appointed Nathan C. Holland, Commissioner under the 'Ku-Klux Law,' to see that the rights of electors are not interfered with at the polls...

A Correct View.

We take the following letter from the San Francisco Examiner of a recent date. It is a true exposure of the position in which the 'new departure' will place the Democracy at the next Presidential election...

An important question arises for the consideration of the Convention about to assemble in Sacramento. Shall we adopt the Vallandigham platform? Or in other words, shall we accept and endorse the amendments which the Radicals claim to have incorporated into the Constitution?

We thereby virtually acknowledge that the Radicals are right in the past, will not the people jump to the conclusion that the Radicals will be right in the future? Will not this course on our part amount to a practical recommendation to the people to vote with the Radicals hereafter?

Can the Democratic party afford to make any such acknowledgment? Will not every Radical chuckle over it and call it a Democratic surrender? And will not every Democrat who is wise enough to see his head in silence and shame?

Can the Democratic party afford to make any such acknowledgment? Will not every Radical chuckle over it and call it a Democratic surrender? And will not every Democrat who is wise enough to see his head in silence and shame?

Gen. Joe Hooker, when recently in Oswego was interviewed by a reporter for the Palladium. The account says: 'In the course of conversation this morning he frankly expressed his opinion of President Grant. He said, "He tried," said the General, "to get control of the Grand Army of the Republic, but we blocked him out. It is his absolute conviction that you would not meet a man less qualified than Grant to lead the army."

Business Enterprise.

The lack of enterprise displayed by Portlanders is growing to an alarming extent. It is here final to you find factories or anything of a binding nature to insure its future prosperity.

From the Guard: Dr. Isaac Paschal, formerly a resident of this place, died at the Capital House in Salem very suddenly last Tuesday. We learn that the body will be brought here for interment. He has a daughter, Mrs. Baker Gray, residing in this county.

The neighborhood of the Cornucopia saloon, corner of Alder and Second streets was thrown into great excitement by the deliberate shooting of a man named Kelly by Zed Wilson, Kelly is one of the men who attended the trial of the other man, who was arrested in the act, tried, convicted, and sent to the penitentiary for two years.

A number of Portland citizens, who know as much about farming as Horace Greeley, signed a petition to have the old annual address book out and deleted the annual address at the next fair. He declined to come, wondering if any of his friends will go in mourning.

The Bulletin of the 28th says that the Grand Jury this morning returned two indictments for murder in the first degree. One of these was an indictment of Thomas Ward, colored, for the killing of Isaiah Graham, in the office of Justice Dwyer, in the city of Portland, on the 27th of May.

Mr. Henry C. Sanderson, who was arrested several months since upon charge of bigamy and has remained since that time in the county jail, was yesterday brought before the court and, without a plea, was committed to the county jail. He is a man of about thirty years of age, of a dark complexion, and has a full beard.

OUR SENTENCES.—A friend writes us from Lane county to go after the 'Improved Radical Discovery,' and says that 'the Democracy here are dumb founded. I have not seen a man that endorses either the Ohio platform or the Herald's comments.'

WHAT IS THE MATTER WITH UNDERWOOD?—Recently a new postoffice was established from Dallas, Polk county, to Alsea, Benton county. On this route there is not an office after you leave Lewisville, in Polk county, until you reach the extreme southern end of Benton, a distance of about fifty miles, through a thickly settled country.

THE ROGUE RIVER VALLEY.—In a late letter, says the Bulletin, of Colonel Taggart, Chief Paymaster, United States Army, in this Department, to the Philadelphia Press, we find this neat allusion to a noted region of Oregon: Late in the afternoon of the second day, after crossing another summit, we descended into the beautiful Rogue River country, one of the most fertile and productive valleys on the Pacific slope.

STRONG-MINDED FEMALES.—Miss Susan B. Anthony and Miss Elizabeth Cady Stanton, of woman suffrage notoriety, are to visit this city, if sufficiently inducements are held out.—Portland Paper. From the number of the kind already in Portland, and considering their prosperity, we should judge there was plenty of room for two more, especially if they are handsome. Portland cannot say that she has failed to hold out 'sufficient inducements' in this kind of business, besides a liberal support.

STATE NEWS.

The following officers were elected by the Masonic Grand Lodge which met in Salem last week: W. D. Hare, of Hillsboro, M. W. G. M.; T. McP. Patton, of Salem, R. W. D. G. M.; A. Van Dusen, of Astoria, R. W. S. W.; J. B. Cogle, of Portland, R. W. J. W.; B. J. Brown, of Salem, R. W. G. T.; James R. Bayley, of Corvallis, Chairman on Educational Committee.

GRANT AND SHERMAN.—Grant and Sherman are said to be cool to each other. A Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial writes as follows: 'Grant and Sherman have not been the best of friends for several months. For outside appearances, they have always had a show of cordial affection, but in private, it is known to the inner circle that there is not a particle of love between them.'

Grant is the author of the Ku-Klux movement, and he is the author of the message in Congress, and thought of importance enough to issue a proclamation, the fact that Sherman attacks and ridicules it as unnecessary and mischievous, will not help him in Grant's good opinion.

The Oregonian has the following: We hear from all directions that the country is enjoying a fine growing season. The late rains have been very advantageous to late sown grain, and a fine crop is anticipated. The Columbia bottom lands have suffered greatly from the flood and the greater part of the vegetable crop for potatoes, onions, turnips, cabbage, etc., are not generally brought in large quantities from that direction.

WHAT IS THE DIFFERENCE?—The new Democratic platform denounce the 'Ku-Klux' and 'Haymarket' plottings. The Radicals as a general thing, denounce these same measures, and we apprehend, in consequence of the unpopularity of these Radicals acts, they will not be enforced so as to become obnoxious until after the next Presidential election, and the people will fail to see where the difference lies between the Democracy and the Radicals.

The Democratic Convention, which met at Sacramento on the 29th inst., nominated H. H. Haight by acclamation for Governor, and E. J. Lewis for Lieutenant Governor. Jackson Temple and Seiden S. Wright were nominated for Supreme Judges; W. C. B. Brown for Secretary of State; R. O. Dewitt for Controller, O. P. Fitzgerald for Superintendent of Schools, A. Cuscut for State Treasurer, J. W. Bos for Surveyor General, John Barry for State Printer, Thomas Linspeyer for Clerk of the Supreme Court, J. Friedman for Harbor Commissioner, and J. W. Colthro for Congress from the Middle District.

THE 'NEW DEPARTURE'.—The Oregon papers, claiming to be democratic, and the Standard excepted, of the Portland Herald are outspoken in their denunciation of the Vallandigham platform. This 'new departure' is regarded as an abandonment of the principles for which the democrats have so long struggled, and as an admission that the Radicals were right and their opponents in the wrong.

EXCISE.—An exchange says that the negro population in Savannah are much excited over a report brought over by a 'radical' from the 'Standard' from Boston, South Carolina, that a negro baby was born there a few days since, and immediately opened its mouth and spoke, warning the people to prepare for equality, as the world would be destroyed within three weeks, after which remarkable feat the infant died. Further report says that a letter from heaven was found upon the little colored person, but the contents of the celestial epistle have not yet been given to the public.

GRAND BALL.—The contest between Judge Boise and Hon. B. F. Bonham, who was legally elected Judge of the Third Judicial District last June, has been ended, Judge Boise retiring from the contest and giving up the office to Mr. Bonham, who took his seat on the bench at Salem last Monday. Judge Bonham is an able lawyer and an honorable gentleman, and will be a credit to the bar of Oregon.

MARTIAL LAW NEEDED.—Why does not Grant declare martial law in Oregon. We have had more killing and shooting during the past two weeks than any other State in the Union, and one of the killed was a loyal negro. This ought to be stopped.

ENCOURAGING.—We are under many obligations to the honest Democratic voters for their expressions of approval at the course of the ENTERPRISE. While they are of no pecuniary advantage, they are more valuable than gold. We have received the first number of the Real Estate Circular, a monthly paper, published by Hamner & Terry. Real Estate Agents at Salem. It is a small four page paper, and contains matter of interest to all persons, and particularly valuable to immigrants and others wishing to invest in real estate.

RETIRED.—E. B. Watson, Esq., has retired from the editorship of the Jacksonville Sentinel. Mr. Watson has made a very respectable paper during his connection.
