WHAT SONG SHALL IT BE !

What shall it be? What song Will win your fancy, dear, And move your heart to sing As mine is moved to hear? Shall it be gay or sad -Bright as the linnet's strain, Or full of unshed tears, That deaden life with pain?

I touch the keys and wait, Watching those dreamy eyes, That hide their thoughts as stars Are bid in bluest skies! No furtive flash befrays, There is no tell-tale gleam, Help me, then, dear, to try

And read your waking dream. Say, shall the song be ripe With Summers of the past. With rosy blossoms shed, Shall scenes and sounds that were In pleasant memories strong,

And song give life again The days when life was song? Shall sadder fancies find An echo in the tone, Till we are moved to weep O'er sorrows not our own?

Or shall heroic deeds Move us to fierce delight As when a clarion thrills The pulses of the night? Shall laughter bubbling rise.

Like streams that seaward go, And, predigal of life, Wrestle to overflow? Or 'neath a deeper spell, Stirring the hearts of all-Shall its discourse of love?

Ah! dreamy eyes that hide Their secret thought so well, A burning check reveals, A silent lip can teil. What need to ask the strain That youth to youth will bring? Love it has ever sung, Love it will ever sing.
