A Rich Document.

Gen. Butler is to-day the greatest bore and imposition the Republican party is compelled to carry. He is determined by hook or crook, to keep himself in the public eye and ear, regardless of how much he disgraces the party to which Sewing Machines. he professes to be attached, or imperils the principles he is supposed to uphold. Such men are never of use to any one but themselves. Impracticable as they are insincere, you dare not rely on their performances, or trust their professions. Why @can't Grant give Butler a roving@commission to visit and remain in Europe for the next two years, and give us a report on the moving cause of French revolution He should do this for Butler oronce more bottle him."

Grant tried making war upon Butler once, but the Beast prepared a nine-column article on Ulysses will fix it without expense of any kind to for the New York Herald, which the owner. was put in type and a proof sent to the President. Grant read the damaging review of his life and career, and then like Capt. Scott's ⊙coon, he came down at once. He uncorked Butler, took him to his 19 Montgomery St., South bosom, made him a familiar friend, and elevated him to the position of counsellor and confidential adviser. The country was astonished at the SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA sudden reconcilliation of two men seemed to hate each other so bitterly. That article, which was put in type for the New York Herala but which was afterwards withdrawn, did the business. Grant cowered before the printed assault of Butler, and the pen proved to be mightier than the sword. We hope the sketch of Grant by Butler may yet see the light. It would prove a profuond sensation. Social Honor.

Every person should cultivate a nice sense of honor. In a hundred different ways this most fitting ad- DRY GOODS, funct of the true lady or gentleman is often tried. For instance, one is the guest of a family where, perhaps, the domestic machinery does not run smoothely. There is a sorrow in the house unsuspected by the outer world. Sometimes is a dissipated son, whose conduct is a shame and grief to his parents; sometimes a relative, whose eccentricities and peculiarities are a cloud on the home. Or, worst of all, husband and wife may not be in accord, and there may be often bitter words spoken and harsh recriminations. In any one of these cases the guest is in honor bound to be blind and deaf as far as people without are concerned. If a gentle word within can do any good it may well be said; but to go forth and reveal the shadow of an unhappy secret to any one, even oyour nearest friend, is an act of indelicacy and meanness almost unparalled. Once in the sacred precincts of any home, admitted to its privacy, sharing its life, all that you see and hear is a sacred trust. It is as really contemptible to gossip of such things as it would be to steal the silver or borrw the books and forget to return them. - Columbia Herald.

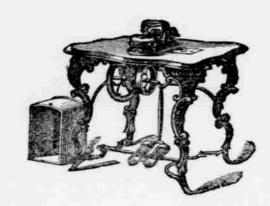

FOR WOODBULL AND CLAFLIN. There is in New York an insane desire to make pleasure a business and set aside the laws of decency and morality; and unfortunately Also, at POPE'S STOVE STORE you the vices of the metropolis are as faithfully coppied and imitated as HARDWARE AND BASKETS, WOODEN, the fashions. If the horrible pestilence of immorality, with which omany gay, bold and brilliant women in that city are tainted, spreads through other States, the family, which is the corner-stone of civilization, will be in great danger -and with our boasted form of government. NEVER FORSAKE A FRIEND,-When enemies gather around, Dry Goods, when the world is dark and cheerless, is the time to try true friendship. They who turn from the scene of distress, betray their hypoerisy, and prove that interest only moves them. If you have a friend who loves you, who has studied your interest and happiness, be sure to sustain him in adversity. Let him feel that his former kindness is appreciated, and that his love is not thrown away. Real fidelity may be rare, but it exists-in the heart.
