FATHER'S HOME—AND SOBER.

BY MIRIAM FRENCH.

One evening, passing through the street,
I saw two ragged urchins meet;
Said one, who seemed the elder boy,
While every feature beamed with joy,
"John, father's home—and sober!"

The other answered, "is that so?
Then we'll have supper—that I know;"
And off for home those two did start;
But, oh! those words went to my heart;
"John, father's home—and sober!"

Back, swift as lightning, flew my mind,
To that sad home just left behind,
Where dwelt my children and my wife,
Who were, to me, as dear as life,
Father's not home—nor sober.

I thought of my poor Anna now,
Her grief-bowed form, her care-worn brow;
Then, farther back, to days of bliss—
My Anna's smiles—my children's kiss—
Bright days when I was sober!

My heart grew very lone and sad,
Remorse and shame near drove me mad;
I knew that I caused all their woe—
I, once so proud, but now so low—
A drunkard—seldom sober!

Fierce was the struggle, hard the fight,
Which raged within my soul that night.
I called for help—God heard my prayer,
Chased from my breast the wild despair,
And helped me to keep sober.

From rum I vowed I would abstain,
And touch the poison ne'er again.
I've kept my promise firm—and they,
My happy children, now can say,
"Our father's home and sober!"

"Rum Did It."

The fact that the abuse of ardent spirits is the cause of a large proportion of the crimes committed is a startling one, but the fact that criminals made so while under the inflence of liquor try to use that as a shield is one which is fraught with still more danger to the community. The recent brutal murder in a New York horse-car, and the plea of the prisoner that he was under the influence of liquor at the time, and did not know what he was about, is a case in point. Why was he under the influence of it? and who suffered because he was? His victim has already suffered death; and now must he be turned loose again, to guzzle himself raving drunk, only to murder some other peaceable citizen? This maudlin sentimentality has gone about far enough. The plea of intoxication should never be allowed in palliation of crime. We say, with the Tribune, that a murder committed under the aggravation of liquor makes the crime even worse. Such a ruling, that journal believes, is not unknown to courts, it is, at any rate, a plain dictate of common sense, public morality and public safety. The man who voluntarily brings himself into an irrational condition is morally, and ought to be legally, responsible for the crimes he may then commit. Give drunkards the license to murder, and you have doubled the dangers of life in great cities; besides encouraging drunkenness, and bringing justice to an open shame. We think it the worse use you can put a man to to hang him; but, so long as the law says that death shall be the penalty for murder, the law should be strictly enforced, and the fact that a man was rum-crazy while in the commission of a captial offense should rather tell against him than in his favor. To say that a man shall not be held entirely responsible for murder because he commits the crime while drunk, would be to place it in the power of any malicious, blood-thirsty ruffian to take the life of any person who may have offended him, with perfect impunity. It would only be necessary for him to get drunk, and then he could operate with entire safety. The man who knows that passions are slumbering in his bosom, which need only the stimulus of alchohol to set them in motion, is guilty the moment he places the poisonous draught to his lips, and for whatever offense he may commit while insane by his own act, he should be held strictly responsible. If a man is incompetent to take care of himself, let the State take charge of him, and keep him away from all intoxicants. This is our method for the treatment of all men who drink to excess. A drunkard is a criminal, and should be taken care of as such.

It is stated by those who have examined the files of the city newspapers, that Mr. Columbus Delano has been present in Washington since he was appointed Commissioner of Internal Revenue and Secretary of the Interior only one day in five of the whole time. Since entering the Cabinet, he has been absent more than half the time. And yet he has cooly drawn his salary for every hour, as if on actual duty, and, like the President, put out at round rates of interest besides. His Christian principles have not induced him ever to devote the large sum of the people's money thus appropriated to any object of charity. Mr. Cameron, Mr. Delano, Gen. Porter, of the President's household, and other members of the Ring, have been engaged in a railroad speculation in Georgia, with Bullock, Blodgett & Co., which serves to explain the Secretary's absence. Meanwhile, the great business of the Interior Department is sadly in arrears, and in a state of great confusion.—Patriot.

The last census of London, shows that that city has a population of 3,251,804—an increase of 447,815 since 1861. It should be considered that a very large number of people have taken suburban residences in the last ten years, availing themselves of the increased railroad facilities, so that these figures do not include all who do business in the great city.

Newspaper Work.

A recent writer pointedly and truthfully remarks that journalism is the only profession which is denied the privilege of privacy. The Lawyer, Doctor and Preacher do their work in private, and no weighty personal responsibility attaches to them on anccount of it. Bnt the journalist is a mark for the public eye, and his every movement is open as the course of the sun. Moreover, the work of the press is continuous, as well as constantly public. There is no rest for the weary. Space is no more annihilated by telegraph than time by journalism. The evening and morning are not merely the first day but all the seven. Night is annihilated as to all its quantities of repose. Every minute of every hour of the twenty-four is occupied by some workers doing some work that shows itself in the newspapers of the day and afternoon. Repetition is as impossible as rest. Facts are ever new. Comments must be as fresh as facts, and the edition is the remorseless giant that eats up all the seconds. The making of a newspaper is perpetual motion in a thousand fields. In such a work, demanding ceaseless effort, permitting no pause, exacting eternal and ever varying exercises, it is impossible for wheat to be unmixed with chaff, for accuracy not to be impaired by mistake, for injustice not occasionally to be done.

The Chicago Tribune asks and receives $22,000 for a column of advertisements one year. The business men of Chicago are keen to pay it. There is one house in Cincinnati that pays $4,000 a week for advertising. There are several in Cleveland, even, who pay as high as $10,000 a year. Somehow those men don't break up; a liberal advertiser never does.

TO STOCK DROVERS.

THE ROAD ACROSS THE CASCADE Mountains, known as the "Old Emigrant Road," is now in complete order for the accommodation of the traveling public. The bridges on the road have all been thoroughly repaired, and stock drovers will have no trouble in crossing the mountains by this route. There is plenty of good grass and water on this route, and the distance across is only 50 miles, being the shortest as well as the best road across the Cascades. Stock drovers and emigrants will find it to their advantage to travel over this road. Tolls reasonable. JOSEPH YOUNG,

The Great Medical Discovery!
Dr. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA
VINEGAR BITTERS,

Hundreds of Thousands
Bear testimony to their Wonderful Curative Effects.

WHAT ARE THEY?

THEY ARE NOT A VILE
FANCY DRINK,

Made of Poor Rum, Whiskey, Proof Spirits and Refuse Liquors doctored, spiced and sweetened to please the taste, called "Tonics," "Appetizers," "Restorers," &c., that lead the tippler on to drunkenness and ruin, but are a true Medicine, made from the Native Roots and Herbs of California, free from all Alcoholic Stimulants. They are the GREAT BLOOD PURIFIER and LIFE GIVING PRINCIPLE a perfect Renovator and Invigorator of the System, carrying off all poisonous matter and restoring the blood to a healthy condition. No person can take these Bitters according to direction and remain long unwell.

For Inflammatory and Chronic Rheumatism and Gout, Dyspepsia or Indigestion, Bilious, Remittent and Intermittent Fevers, Diseases of the Blood, Liver, Kidneys, and Bladder, these Bitters have been most successful. Such Diseases are caused by Vitiated Blood, which is generally produced by derangement of the Digestive Organs.

DYSPEPSIA OR INDIGESTION.

Headache, Pain in the Shoulders, Coughs, Tightness of the Chest, Dizziness, Sour Eructations of the Stomach, Bad taste in the Mouth Bilious Attacks, Palpitation of the Heart, Inflammation of the Lungs, Pain in the regions of the Kidneys, and a hundred other painful symptoms, are the offsprings of Dyspepsia.

They invigorate the Stomach and stimulate the torpid liver and bowels, which render them of unequalled efficacy in cleansing the blood of all impurities, and imparting new life and vigor to the whole system.

FOR SKIN DISEASES, Eruptions, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Blotches, Spots, Pimples, Pustules, Boils, Carbuncles, Ring-Worms, Scald-Head, Sore Eyes, Erysipelas, Itch, Scurfs, Discolorations of the Skin, Humors and Diseases of the Skin, of whatever name or nature, are literally dug up and carried out of the system in a short time by the use of these Bitters. One bottle in such cases will convince the most incredulous of their curative effects.

Cleanse the Vitiated Blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in Pimples, Eruptions or Sores; cleanse it when you find it obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it when it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Keep the blood pure and the health of the system will follow.

PIN, TAPE and other WORMS, lurking in the system of so many thousands, are effectually destroyed and removed. For full directions, read carefully the circular around each bottle.

TARRANT'S SELTZER APERIENT.

Sects and Creeds differ, but there are no dissenters from the general principle, that a great medicine is a great blessing. We have many of those blessings but among them all, in the province to which it belongs, no greater than Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Aperient.

A column would not suffice to enumerate the ailments for which it is prescribed by physicians of the highest standing. It does not belong to the class derisively termed patent medicines, but is an article based on scientific analysis, and will stand the test of the sharpest and most rigid medical criticism as a catharatic, a stomachic, anti-febrile preparation, and an admirable remady for all bilious complaints. Let there be no mistake. To the Afflicted.

DR. W. K. DOHERTY returns his sincere thanks to his numerous patients for their patronage, and would take this opportunity to remind them that he continues to consult at his Institute for the cure of chronic diseases of the Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, Digestive and Genito-Urinary Organs, and all private diseases, viz: Syphilis in all its forms and stages, Seminal Weakness and all the horrid consequences of self-abuse, Gonorrhœa, Gleet, Strictures, Nocturnal and Diurnal Emissions, Sexual Debility, Diseases of the Back and Loins, inflammation of the Bladder and Kidneys, etc.; and he hopes that his long experience and successful practice will continue to insure him a share of public patronage. By the practice of many years in Europe and the United States, he is enabled to apply the most efficient and successful remedies against diseases of all kinds. He uses no mercury, charges moderate, treats his patients in a correct and honorable way, and has references of unquestionable veracity from men of known respectability and high standing in society. All parties consulting him by letter or otherwise, will receive the best and gentlest treatment and implicit secrecy.

To Females.

When a female is in trouble, or afflicted with disease, as weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitis, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility and all other diseases peculiar to females, she should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. DOHERTY, at his Medical Institute, and consult him about her trouble and diseases. The Doctor is effecting more cures than any other physician in the State of California. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful sufferings and premature death. All married ladies, whose delicate health or other circumstances prevent an increase in their families, should write or call at DR. W. K. DOHERTY'S Medical Institute, and they will receive every possible relief and help. The Doctor's offices are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

To Correspondents.

Patients residing in any part of the State however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of DR. DOHERTY in their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such, in preference to holding a personal interview, are respectfully assured that their communications will be held sacred and confidential. If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be unnecessary, as instructions for diet, regimen and the general treatment of the case itself (including the remedies), will be forwarded without delay, and in such a manner as to convey no idea of the purport of the letter or parcel.
