CRUEL AS THE GRAVE. - John B. Gough, in a recent lecture, said "I cannot drink moderately. It is physically and morally impossible. If any man should give me whisky by any means unknown to myself, it would be at the risk of my OREGON CITY, : : OREGON sinking back to what I was twentyfive years ago. You may call it weakness, or what you will, "but it is the truth." We do not doubt it, for we once knew a gentleman in Boston, a man of the highest literary character and fame, who occasionally took to extreme drinking, who once said, when remonstrated with concerning his infirmity, "I love my wife and children, dearly and devotedly love them; but when I have tasted liquor, were they standing on the Road," is n win complete order for the ac brink of the bottomless pit, and the condition offered me that I should see them go to eternal destruction if I should drink another the following: Inventions and improvements seem to be the order of the day. Among the many improvements in agricultural implements the Traveling Thresher of the Robbins Bros., of this county, seems to bid fair to take a front rank. The old "thrashing time," which was a dread to all the farmers' wives is one of the ills of life that have been, or soon will be, entirely done away with, and the burvest will be accompanied with no more extra labor to the house-wife than seed time. With Othis machine, five men are all that are needed to take the grain standing in the field and put it into sacks. We saw the speedily, and does its work as well as any of the stationary machines. With eight horses attached, it runs by the side of. STYLE. and thrashes the grain from a header with April 11, 1871. If a ten foot gickle. Eighteen acres a day has been cut and thrashed. We are firmly of opinion, that ere long this machine will supercede all others of this nature.

-OUR CEREAL CROPS,-The Philadelphia Ledger has compiled a STOVES, TINPLATE, SHEET IRON, BRAtable of cereal statistics for the years 1869 and 1870. It gives for the total crop in the United States for 1869, including wheat, rye, oats, barley, corn and buckwheat, 1,491,412,100 bushels; and for the year 1870, 1,500,000,000. With a total population of 40,000, 000, this gives 371 bushels to each man, woman and child in the country. The average consumption is hardly above eight bushels to each person; and so we have for export and feed for stock about 204 bushels to each person. In 1840 the cereal products of the Also, at POPE'S STOVE STORE you lake basin footed up 368,265,827 bushels; in 1850 it rose to 434,-862,661 bushels, and in 1860 to 679,031,559 bushels.
