

Figures of Radical Extravagance.

There appears to be no limit to Radical impudence and falsehood. While, therefore, the Administration press is so profuse in exhibition of misstated facts and false figures in order to delude the taxpayers, it stands the people in hand to refer to official documents in order to arrive at the truth as nearly as possible.

Taking their own figures, we find that the civil and miscellaneous expenditure for the fiscal year of 1870 under General Grant, amounts to $59,224,917.25.

Table with columns for fiscal year, type of expenditure, and amount in dollars. Includes rows for Buchanan's administration and Grant's administration.

Thus it will be seen that the excess of Grant's Administration in the matter of civil and miscellaneous expenditure (from which is excluded all expenses contingent upon the war), over that of President Buchanan, amounts to the enormous sum of $41,302,681.09.

Let us give one more extract for the benefit of our Radical friends who are prating so much about the economy of Grant's Administration.

How the Election was Carried.

A dispatch to the Associated Press from Valjeo of date the 9th instant, says the S. F. Examiner, states that "forty shipwrights and calkers were discharged from Mars Island Navy Yard yesterday."

And what a commentary is this on our boasted freedom of suffrage. The great Government of the United States, made and ordained as the general agent of the States in their individual capacities, turns upon its sovereign constituents and by imported votes and illegitimate use of National funds—by direct intimidation and threats, controls not only the congressional, but the local elections of the States.

Next in order we have the following from New York; under date of the 13th inst.:

Major J. L. Hodge, Deputy Paymaster of the United States Army, stationed in this city (Washington) has been discovered to be a defaulter to the Government for a very large amount.

And here is another little item, the amount of the defalcations in these cases having been repeatedly stated at several millions:

RATHER INCONSIDERATE.—Sometime since a few of Horace Greeley's admirers signed a request to have him deliver the address at the next State Fair.

FIGURES.—Elsewhere we present this week a carefully prepared official statement of Federal expenses from 1854 to 1871.

FORGOTTEN TO ANSWER.—The Oregonian has taken much time to abuse the Legislature of Oregon and also of California for the passage of the Hildreth act.

Chapter on Stealing.

While our Radical friends are developing frauds perpetrated in the city of New York, they stierly fail to give their duped and blind followers the gigantic frauds perpetrated at the National Capital and in every State where they have power.

The discovery that more than one hundred millions of dollars are missing from the United States Treasury causes no little consternation in financial circles at the East.

Next in order we have the following from New York; under date of the 13th inst.:

Major J. L. Hodge, Deputy Paymaster of the United States Army, stationed in this city (Washington) has been discovered to be a defaulter to the Government for a very large amount.

The homeborn of Assistant Paymaster Jones held a private meeting this afternoon and appointed Abraham Wakeman to take charge of the disposal of the property of the defaulting Assistant Paymaster Norton, of which they have already taken possession.

SURETIES UPON BONDS OF Collectors of Internal Revenue against whom suits have been commenced for balances due the Government, are asking for continuance of their suits.

The demand for lumber, in Portland, is far in excess of the capacity of her sawmills, although driven to their utmost.

Freight for Oregon is now offering in San Francisco in larger quantities than the steamships now on the line can carry away.

TRASHING MACHINE CAUGHT FIRE while in operation in Baker county recently and was consumed, together with about 200 bushels of grain.

The profits of the Pennsylvania Central Railroad Company for 1870, as stated by the Philadelphia Ledger, were $6,612,901.

It is said Mrs. F. M. Bates made a good hit in her recital of "Eileen," in Howard Taylor's new play, recently produced in San Francisco.

The Texas Pacific railway is to be 1,515 miles in length. For 250 miles the road will be an air line, and in a stretch of 815 miles there will be but six bridges.

Gen. Fitzhugh Lee has issued a call for the organization of the Army of Northern Virginia, to make preparations for the erection of a monument to Gen. R. E. Lee.

Locomotive No. 8, of the New York and Jersey Railroad Company, is said to be the fastest locomotive in the United States, having made eighty-nine miles in one hour.

John Slidell left no will, and there are no heirs to his considerable estate in Louisiana, and the public administrator has petitioned in the United States Court for possession of the property.

James W. Marshall, the discoverer of gold in California, has started on an eastern tour. He proposes to give lectures as far as the States go, and we presume they will be listened to with unusual interest.

A project is under consideration for constructing a tunnel through the Sierra Nevada of sufficient size to admit of the passage of trains and a canal. This tunnel will save to the Pacific Railroad Company a distance of seven miles and an ascent and descent of 1,000 feet, and make almost wholly unnecessary the use of snowshoes.

Once more the anxious public mind is set at rest with regard to Dr. Livingston the great explorer. A recent letter from Dr. Livingston to the Hon. Secretary of the Interior is making his way home. The satisfaction which this information is able to give us, however, somewhat counterbalanced by the certainty that within a week fall particulars will be received, from some equally reliable source, of his death and the means by which it came to pass.

The Duffenbarger case which has excited so much attention during the past week has at last been ended by the honorable discharge of Mrs. Colburn. It will be remembered that this lady was arrested upon charge of having poisoned her former husband, Mr. Duffenbarger. Her friends have all cordially contended that she entirely proceedings were instigated through malice and hopes of procuring gain. The verdict of acquittal would seem to show that such was true.

The Territories.

A plum tree in Olympia bore 800 pounds of fruit.

The Clarke County Fair wound up last night with a grand ball.

Carrie Young and Yankee Plummer were in Olympia last week.

Wheat in abundance is now offering at Walla Walla at 60 cents per bushel.

The Washington Territory Legislature convened on the first Monday in October.

It is rumored that a new steamer is to be put on the line from Puget Sound to Portland.

There was one death from smallpox, at Walla Walla, last week. No more cases reported.

Eighteen emigrant families recently passed through Walla Walla, en route for the Yakima country.

A widow named Lizgett is accused of having stolen a considerable sum of money in Idaho from a man named McHenry. She fled toward Oregon. A warrant was issued for her arrest, but it is believed she escaped into this State.

DEMOCRATIC SENATE.—Private dispatches received here last night, says the Sacramento Reporter of September 10th, announce the re-election of W. W. Pendragon as State Senator from the counties of Lake, Napa and Mendocino. This will probably render the Senate Democratic, as there is little doubt of the election of McCoy in San Diego and San Bernardino. Fachevo will probably think seriously of resigning his Senatorship now, as a special election this Fall will be requisite to fill that vacancy.

The Herald says a large portion of the passengers brought here by the Ajax last Monday, are persons who come here to engage in mechanical and agricultural pursuits. Many of them are from the various European countries, and were attracted here by the several railroads in process of construction. The faster they come the better for all; there is plenty of room and work for them in this State.

Mrs. Stanton has perpetrated a good joke on Theodore Tilton. In the Golden Age, she says: "I tell you, Theodore, sub rosa, the 'white male' has something to be proud of, and my only consolation is that she is my mother." The idea that Mrs. Stanton and Theodore are the white male's mother is good. She evidently regards Theodore as an old grand.

The Secretary of the State Agricultural Society gives notice that no license will be required of persons who desire to sell hay, grain, meal, flour or fuel at the fair grounds.

Oats—Good, $2 05.

FLAT FOOTED.—The Boston Journal (Radical) comes out flat-footed against the nomination of Ben. Butler for Governor of Massachusetts. It says "we cannot for a moment admit that any man has a claim upon this or any other nomination. The Republican party owes nothing to Benjamin F. Butler. For all that he is to do, in public life, General Butler owes to the Republican party. What he has done since the close of the war for the good of the Republican party, we have yet to find the first man possessed of the information to enlighten us. His career has overlaid any evidence of peculiar qualifications for the position of Governor, we fall to discover them. He would keep the State in a turmoil if his ends would be answered by such a course, and his fidelity to party would last no longer than it pleased him to continue to use the organization." The Journal notices Dr. Loring in the same vein, and the music has commenced in earnest.

BISHOP OF OREGON.—We had the pleasure of a call on Tuesday from Bishop Morris of Oregon, on the invitation of the Oregon Association. He is expected to attend the General Convention. He reports progress in his work in Oregon, and is especially gratified at the prospect of the schools. His address, until the first of October, will be Westminster, Penn.—Pacific Churchman.

EXUBERANT HEALTH.—Is a blessing vouchsafed to few. Even those who have been favored by nature with strong constitutions and vigorous frames are apt to neglect the precautions necessary to preserve these precious endowments. In deed, as a rule, the more healthy and robust a man is, the more liberal he is inclined to take with his own physique. It is some consolation to the naturally weak and feeble to know that they can be so invigorated and built up, by a proper use of the means which science has placed at their disposal, as to have a much better chance of long life, and exemptions from disease and pain, than the most athletic of their fellows, who are foolish enough to squander themselves unmercifully, and act accordingly.

It is not too much to say that more than half of the population of the world need an occasional tonic, to enable them to support the strain upon their bodies and minds, which the habits of modern ages occasion. It is a pure, whole-some, medicinal tonic is the grand desideratum of the age, which has the most successful success of the present century, and it is quite certain that no property medicine in this century is so widely known, and so generally used, as the
