REPORT OF THE GRAND JURY.

We, the undersigned Grand Jurors of Clackamas county, for the October term of the Circuit Court, 1871, hereby report:

That we have made a careful and thorough investigation of the condition of the county jail of said county, and find the same in a very bad, unwholesome and unhealthy condition, and wholly unfit for the purposes for which it was intended, and that we would recommend the building of a new one as soon as it may be conveniently done.

We desire to call attention especially to this matter. A. F. Hedberg, Foreman;

H. P. Bostow, J. L. Cason, O. H. Coner, S. Groves, J. Van Curen, E. Frost.

Circuit Court.—The Circuit Court this term was almost a failure. There was but one law case before the Court, and that was postponed until next term, and four divorce cases, all of which were granted.

The Grand Jury brought in two indictments, one for violating the Sunday law, which the jury pled guilty and was fined $10. Another indictment was found as the party is at large, we will not mention the facts in this case.

The Grand Jury also indicted the county jail, which is deserved, and we hope the punishment recommended by them will be awarded. The business of the Court sensibly indicates that we have a peaceable and law-abiding community. The petty jury was discharged on Monday, and the Grand Jury on Tuesday. This is the fourth county in population in the State, we have not had a case over two days in six months. This is rather unhealthy state of affairs for attorneys.

Books and Files.—Messrs. Protzman, Gillham & Co., of Portland, proprietors of the Pioneer Boot and Shoe Factory, were placed to see, are introducing their goods in every town in the State. Their work is superior to the imported manufactures, and by patronizing them, we are aiding in building up our own State. We hope our boot and shoe dealers generally will give them a call, and examine their prices. They are reliable men, and do business on an honorable basis, and we are sure all will agree that their enterprise and energy deserves the utmost success.

Vocal Music.—The Rev. Mr. Sellwood will begin a class in vocal music for children at the Episcopal Church, on Saturday, October 28th, at 10 o'clock A. M. Also on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock at the same place he will meet with all persons who are desirous of forming an adult class. All persons who are desirous of studying music, are requested to be present at the first meeting.

Madagascar Family.—The Madagascar Family, with Matt Taylor, exhibited in this place last Saturday evening. The Madagascar family are a real curiosity, their eyes being pink and their skins and hair perfectly white, and the pupils of their eyes are square. A large audience was present, and with Matt Taylor's comic songs, &c., the entertainment was highly interesting.

Dr. Green.—We have not yet learned the amount raised for the Chicago Fund, but do not expect it to be a fair representation of the liberality of our citizens. A great many have given at other places, on the railroad, at Portland and the Fair, hence the list will only represent those who had not given elsewhere, while many have given twice.

Attention.—A meeting of the citizens who have subscribed to the Chicago Relief Fund, and all others, will be held at the Court House this evening at 7 o'clock, to hear the report of the Committee, and also to take under consideration the propriety of diverting the funds for the relief of Wisconsin, and Michigan sufferers. A full attendance is requested.

Interesting.—We regret that certain parties can't find anything else to do during our working hours, besides playing on a musical instrument, or rather making an attempt to play. We appreciate it. But seriously, we think the party or parties had better be engaged in chopping cord wood or packing brick for some charitable institution.

In Town.—Messrs. Carahan and Maars, formerly citizens of this county, but now of Tillamook, were in town this week, purchasing their winter supplies. They seem to be highly pleased with the prospects of their new home.

A Ball.—A ball is to be given at Myers' Hall this evening, the proceeds to go to the benefit of the Chicago sufferers. A full attendance is expected. Refreshments and ticket $2.

Robbery.—A Chinaman was knocked down last Thursday evening, near the Imperial Mill, and robbed of $5.10, and a watch. The crime is charged on three boys in town. No arrests have been made.

An Encampment.—We learn that the necessary regalia &c., for the organization of an Encampment in this city, will soon be here, when a Camp will be duly organized.

Go and See.—Carl Bosco will exhibit his mysterious tricks at Myers' Hall tomorrow evening. Don't fail to go and see him.

SPIRITUALIST.—A spiritualist held forth in this city last Tuesday evening. We did not have time to enquire either his name or go and hear him. The common report was that he is a "failure."

That Jewellery.—B. L. Stone, of 107 Front Street, Portland, has, as is generally acknowledged, the best and finest stock of jewelry in Portland, and his prices are as low as any man could desire. Give him a call if you want anything in his line.

Apples.—Lorenz Burns brought to our notice a fine basket of "Dorset Apples," as he calls them. They are the finest and largest we have seen this year.

In Town.—C. W. Cook, Esq., arrived home from California last Monday. We have not had the pleasure of seeing his smiling countenance yet.

Good.—The citizens of Milwaukie contributed $124 to the Chicago Relief Fund. This is very liberal for such a small community.

A Stampedo.—A panic took place at the Skating Rink, last Friday, in Portland, while the grand concert was in progress. Some boys threw stones on the roof and the audience thought the building was falling. A general rush was made for the docks and windows, many going through taking cash and all with them, not as Panicker says, "that they had any use for the cash, but it was harder to take it along than to leave it." A number were slightly injured by their hurried exit, but none seriously. Judge Bailey was probably the worst "used up man" in the lot, he having made the first leap through a window. The panic was entirely needless, and a few cool persons could have quieted the multitude. It is a great wonder there were no lives lost. The Bulletin of last Sunday has a very rich account of the matter, from which we extract the following:

A well known gentleman of legal requirements was seated about the center of the hall, enjoying the music, when his quick eye detected the noise of a breaking bench, and he rose hastily and started for the nearest window, at a rate of speed that would have astonished the celebrated "American Deer," saying to his wife as he took his departure, "My dear, I think we had better go home."

He went through the window, carrying the cash before him, because those behind were in a hurry and he wanted to blaze a track for them. As he emerged from the Rink he lighted upon a man who had been looking in through the window, and the two rolled to the ground together. The stranger immediately grappled the limb of the man who had committed the legal crime. "Don't do it, my good fellow," exclaimed the man of law. "And so am I," was the reply. "You are right," said the man of law. "Finally, the man of law, in agony exclaimed: "My God, will nobody rescue me from the furies?" He dragged from under his adversary and started home, his wife following with a terrible disaster had occurred, and never once thinking of his more courageous half until he reached his own house.

Trust what Time has Sanctioned.—The maxim that the voice of the people is the voice of the deity may in some cases, be open to doubt, but the testimony of honest and enlightened witnesses extending through a series of years, and all to the same purpose, is worthy of credence, admits of no question. Upon such testimony the reputation of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters as an antidote and cure for many ailments is based. During the twenty years that it has been before the world, innumerable preparations intended to compete with it, have gone up like rockets, and come down the extinguished sticks. Meanwhile the progress of that incomparable tonic has been swift and steady—always upward and onward—and determined. Its introduction produced a revolution in therapeutics, and it proved to be one of those salutary remedies that cannot go backwards. To-day Hostetter's Bitters is one of the most popular remedies in christendom, and commands a larger sale than any other medicinal preparation domestic or imported, on this side of the Atlantic. As a cure for dyspepsia, bilious disorders, nervous affections, general debility, indigestion, and other ailments, it takes precedence of every other remedy. This fact should teach the ambitious competitor to beware, and to test their local abstractions on the public in favor of the community must necessarily be where the same failure there is no chance for the "smokers."

PACIFIC COAST ADVERTISER.—We have received the October number of this valuable paper, published by Dean & Co., San Francisco. It contains many valuable suggestions to newspaper men, if strictly followed, would be of great benefit. Among them is the following:

All advertisements from agents should be discontinued as soon as they expire as per contract. Keeping in advertisements after they are "dead" is very bad policy. It is a virtual confession of pecuniary distress and unsoundness. Further, it often prevents an agent from obtaining a renewal of the same advertisement. The policy is shortsighted, and tends to lower the rates for advertising. In place of "dead" advertisements, it would be better, in the long run, to pay for extra composition, and insert good reading matter.

DIED. October 22, 1871, Auralla Harris, eldest daughter of Thomas Harris, aged 13 years 8 months and 29 days.

Beware of counterfeits in purchasing Ha's Vegetable Sclerian Hair Renewer. The genuine has a private stamp, three inches long, with a likeness of Dr. Hall upon it over the cork.

Time and enlightened experience have shown that certain substances formerly used as remedies in medical practice, are unnecessary and dangerous, yet some of these substances have found their way into medical compounds. Dr. WALKER'S CATARRHIC BUBBLES, however, contain nothing injurious, being composed exclusively of vegetable substances from California. For all disorders of the liver, kidneys, bladder, skin, and digestive organs, and for purifying the blood, they are the most wonderful remedy known.
