With the Draft Board

Yesterday as the time approached for clearing the books of selected men for the army, the draft board quarters were a busy place. Many registrants came to the office in person in order to have their papers properly arranged.

Miss Gertrude Eakin, Miss Merila Harding and Mrs. Roy Burton assisted Mrs. Frank E. Brown, the chief clerk, while Sheriff Needham and County Clerk Boyer mailed an unusually large number of post cards classifying registrants, or ordering them for physical examination.

There were only two more lists of names to which questionnaires are to be mailed, but the mailing of classification and physical examination cards is only well started.

There were only two delinquents yesterday: Order number 743, Clifford Gilbert Knight, 461 High street, Salem, and order number 797, John Treichel, of Turner, Oregon.

Those appearing for examination January 16 are: Francis M. Charpell, Silverton; Clyde H. Kaiser, McCleary; Edward F. Schroeder, Stayton; Fred A. Miller, Turner; Jake W.
