Scalps Are Going Off-

County Clerk Boyer yesterday regretted that he had to report that the farmers are not taking the same interest in catching the ever elusive ground squirrels, gophers and gray diggers that they evinced the first few days he was paying 5 cents a scalp. It may be that it is more difficult to trap the varmints, and to waste gunpowder on them is foolishness, or mayhap it is getting much more difficult to find gray diggers and gophers with real cyes and ears upon their faces, as without that evidence no pay is allowed. It in with their noses pointed for the commission in a move to have the point their noses at something, and The funeral of the late Mrs. Sarah the humans, but to make a long story an inch or two longer, Mr Boyer only had to dive into his big chest for enough nickels to pay for 745 scalps and noses all told.

Chairman Miller of the Oregon commission declared that he is opposed to interfering with the govornment's war program in any man-ner regardless of how dictorial Director General McAdoo's power may become. It is his opinion, however, that legislation should automatically testore the commissions present pow-ers with the close of the war.

commission said that while power to regulate, service should undoubtedly remain with the director only, the Sims bill, giving the government full control of the railroads, should be amended to restore to the commissions the full rate making power. "It is serious," said the message, 'and quick action is necessary, as the hearing before committee will probably close early next week." The message said further that the carriers would try to limit such an amendment to the interstate commerce commission.

The Oregon commission dispatched messages to the Washington commission, to O. O. Calderhead, a regresentative of that commission who is now in Washington, D. C., and to Senators McNary and Chamberlain as fellows:

"Think director general should not be hampered in policies of controll-ing railroads, nor should advantage be taken of situation to enact permanent regulatory legislation. Opposed to legislation limiting state regulation after the war." Order was entered in the county

The commission sent a message to the Pacific car demurrage bureau at San Francisco expressing a desire to cooperate to the fullest extent with the director general's regulation of railroads and acquiescing in the demurrage rules promulgated by him.

Sage Tea Darkens Hair to Any Shade

Den't Stay Gray! Here's an Old-time Recipe that Anybody can Apply.

The use of Sage and Sulphur for estoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and at-tractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.

But brewing at home is mussy and out-of-date. Nowadays, bq asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you get this famous old prep. aration, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally ed. The mill men at first asked the and evenly that nobody can tell it has governor that the special agents be been applied. Important Announcement

About two years ago I opened up the store now known as the Farmers Cash Store for my two boys Burton and Victor. In a few months we built up a trade that any one would feel proud of. We did it by giving the people first class goods for less money than could be had at any store in the valley. When the war came call in for volunteers my boys enlisted, To continue the business alone is more than I feel like doing and will start at once to close it out.
