U. S. TO SEND MANY EXPORTS
America to Conserve Food Supplies to Fill Needs of Allies

WASHINGTON, Jan. 10.—Ship losses and crop failures abroad have brought about such a serious food condition in the allied countries that the United States is planning to release for export an additional 90,000,000 bushels of wheat, although the country's export surplus had been shipped by mid-December.

The American people will be asked by the food administration to cut their consumption to make the amount to be exported. Unless they do the nation is threatened with a flour shortage in May before the new wheat crop is harvested in June. The food administration is considering legislation to make the saving of wheat compulsory and has approved a bill, drawn by Representative Lever, author of the food control bill, to enforce wheatless days. Proposals for mixed flour and for a form of war bread of mixed grains are also under consideration as possible measures to reduce the use of wheat flour.

In preparation for dealing with the situation the food administration has decided to purchase from the mills thirty per cent of their output. Out of ten flour purchased it will supply the allies, the army and navy and will maintain reserve stores to meet any local shortages that may arise. The shortage of food abroad probably will bring an early determination of a policy respecting the balance to be maintained between food and troop shipments. A decision will be left largely to the allies since they best can determine which is the more useful to themselves in prosecuting the war.

TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED
Best for liver and bowels, bad breath, bad colds, sour stomach.

Get a 10-cent box. Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, indigestion, constipation, with a cold—always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret to-night will surely straighten you out by morning. The work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and our liver and bowels regular for months.

from a range of four miles and had fired about thirty shots when the American destroyer appeared on the horizon, attracted by the sound of the guns. The destroyer opened fire at 500 yards with her wonderful American naval guns. The U-boat, however, was lying with the decks almost awash and therefore, was a most difficult target, and as the American drew in toward her at full speed, she submerged suddenly.

The smoking muzzles of her guns disappeared beneath the waves only an instant after their last shots had been fired. Merchantmen Safely Escorted. The Americans were unable to destroy the U-boat but the destroyer escorted two of the three merchantmen safely to port after having rescued the crew of the third, which already was sinking.

If not convoyed, merchantmen have a small chance against these superior submarines. Little fishing boats which the Germans do not disdain to attack at every opportunity, are still helpless. Yesterday morning the unarmed British fishing trawler Premier was at its peaceful work with nets in the North sea during a blinding snowstorm when a submarine suddenly appeared and sent two 6-inch shells without warning into the hull of the 90-ton boat.

The trawler turned turtle from the violence of the explosion and the crew of twelve men jumped into the water and then climbed upon the overturned hull. The submarine came up in leisurely fashion within a stone's throw of the wreck, as if to take the men off, but seemingly thought better of the momentary humanitarian impulse and submerged suddenly without a word from anybody on board. The crew of the trawler was rescued some hours later. One man died and the others suffered from exposure.

Southeast Ireland Hard Hit. Southeast Ireland has been thrown into mourning during the last fortnight by the work of submarines, which have sunk two steamers, the crews of which were mainly Irishmen, seventy of whom perished. The catastrophe is called in Ireland "the first declaration of war by the Germans against Ireland," and has aroused a great wave of indignation throughout the Emerald Isle. Ireland also is feeling the effects of the submarine warfare most acutely owing to a coal famine, due to submarines sinking recently three boats bringing to Ireland coal, for which she is entirely dependent upon England.

Mine-laying submarines have been very active in the Mediterranean during the last month, and here again heavy weather has been no friend of the allies, for it hampers mine-sweeping. Nevertheless, shipping has to go on, just the same. It is a remarkable fact that during the entire course of the war only nine British transports have been sunk with a total loss of less than 2000 lives, although frequently a quarter of a million soldiers are at sea on a single day and altogether more than eleven million men have been transported safely by water.

The weather also is against the allies in a continuance of their successful aviation work against submarines. For the past two months the vacillating barometer has not permitted much use to be made of the aviation army of the anti-submarine service, which was responsible during the summer and autumn for a considerable number of submarines being destroyed.

WHAT FRIGHTENED HIM. Betty was milking the cow when the mad bull tore over the meadow. Betty did not stir, but continued milking. Observers who had run in to safety saw to their astonishment that the bull stopped dead within a few yards on the main and cow, turned around and went away sadly.

"Weren't you afraid? Why did he run away?" asked every one of Betty. "He got scared," said Betty. "This cow is his mother-in-law."—Good Jests.

DR. DONEY MAY GO TO EUROPE
Willamette President Granted Leave to Study Work of Y. M. C. A.

President Carl Gregg Doney of Willamette university has been granted a six-months leave of absence that he may go to Europe and visit the war front. If he goes he will be to see first hand the work of the Y. M. C. A. and to lend his service to that cause.

The reason the trustees give for granting the months off is so that after he has returned to this country he may be able to serve humanity and the part America is playing in the war by lecturing and representing the needs of the war fronts throughout the northwest. Details such as time of departure and the like have not yet been arranged. It may not be possible for Dr. Doney to avail himself of the opportunity offered by the trustees because of pressing duties at the university.

He is to announce his decision soon. At the meeting of the board of trustees of the university in Portland Tuesday, Dean Alden was given authority to serve as acting president if President Doney decides to go to France. As a committee to arrange a farewell reception to the
