NEW TIRE FIRM ENTERS OREGON

Malcom Tire Company To Sell on Plan That Is New in This State

A plan for selling automobile tires that is new to this territory, but has been worked out with great success elsewhere, has been brought to Portland by the Malcom Tire company, which has just opened a salesroom at 82 Broadway North, at Everett.

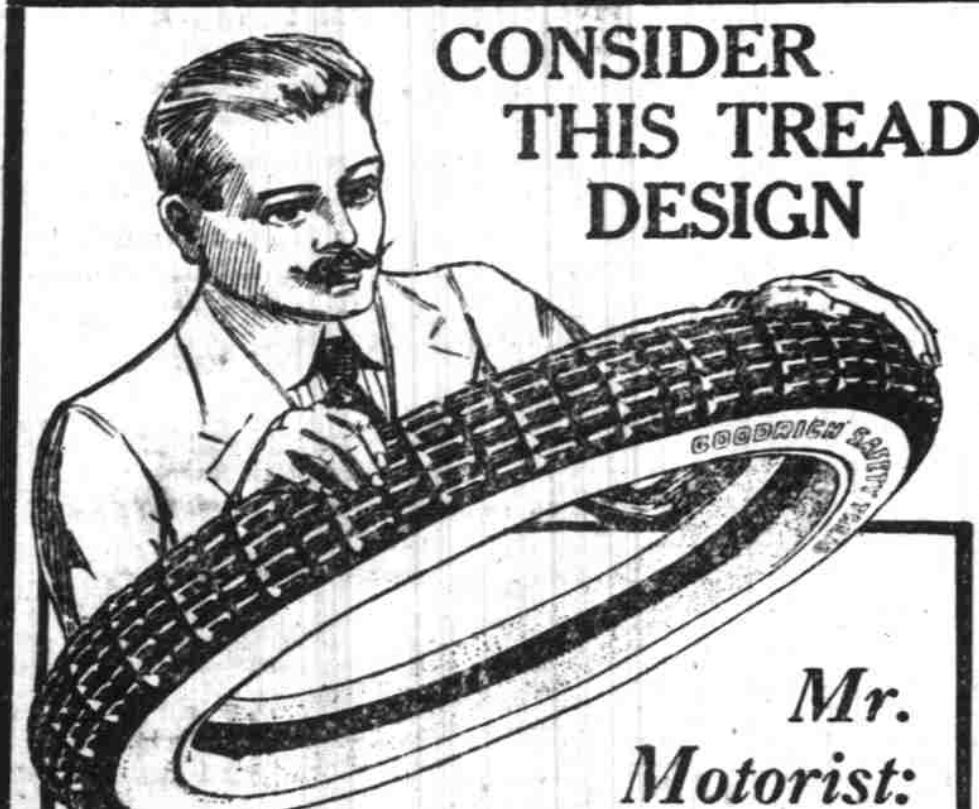

This plan is the selling of what are known as "seconds."

tires that because of some slight blemish or abrasion are not sent out by the factories as firsts, but which have no inherent defects, at greatly reduced prices, but under an absolute mileage guarantee.

G. A. Malcom, head of the Malcom Tire company, has sold tires on this plan in Los Angeles with much success. He is an old hand in the tire selling business, in which he has been engaged for the past eight years.

He is coming to Portland as distributor for Oregon and Washington of the Automobile Tire company of New York city, which originated the plan of selling "seconds" and factory specials on a big scale and under ironclad guarantee. This is one of the largest and oldest tire jobbing houses in the country. It operates eighteen or twenty branches in different large cities.

All lines of standard makes of tires will be carried here by the Malcom Tire company, including "firsts" direct from the factory, as well as "seconds."—Oregonian.

Bungalow Church Is in Good Financial Condition

As far as running expenses are concerned the Court Street Christian church, known as the Bungalow church, is free from debt, it was announced in the report of the treasurer at the annual business meeting which was held last Tuesday night. Some money is still owed on land. Annual reports of departments and the pastor's report were read at the meeting and officers for the year were elected. Rev. Frank Jones is pastor of the church.
