It must contain a reliable treatment for disordered digestion, impaired appetite, etc.

It must also have a good tonic to restore strength after illuess, to over come depression and nervousness. These three lines of physical trouble are all closely allied. One good remedy will treat all of them successfully in * most cases.

It's the one remedy that covers all of these various complaints, and it is the one remedy that has won a strongly entrenched position in the American home, as the result of forty-five years of successful ministration.

Peruna is insurance. Its prompt use has beaten off many a cerious attack, and it has conquered catarrh of many years' standing.

In its liquid form it has well established itself, solely on its merits, and in the tablet form thousands rely upon it to give quick aid.

Manalin is another indispensable. It is the ideal laxative and liver tonic. Ideal because it is effective, mild and pleasant, and because it overcomes the difficulty without forming a habit. Used rightly, it often is the means of restoring correct bowel action. In the liquid form it has been used almost as long as Peruna, and in the new tablet form it is delightful to the taste, convenient in administration, safe for invalids and children, and promptly effective.

Gureau The Kansas county has made progress carrying out certain of the suggestions, but the next step,

says the report, "may well be establishment of a nursing service for the rural parts of the county."

These medicines are standard in the homes of thousands. Merit has won success.
