

Farmer Without Motor Truck Making Mistake

"A farmer without a motor truck is simply making a fatal mistake," declares H. E. Cushing, 915 Tenth street, of Modesto, Cal., after he had used a Maxwell one-ton truck on his California ranch.

"From an economical standpoint the truck upkeep is trifling compared to feeding the amount of stock and maintaining equipment necessary to duplicate it in actual service and general farm work. I am provoked at myself now for having delayed in recognizing the value of the motor truck when that farm vehicle was in its infancy."

Mr. Cushing believes the day is not far distant when all short hauls will be by auto trucks. He predicts that rural side tracks will practically be abandoned in the near future and that auto trucks will haul the farm products to more central points for immediate shipment to their destination.

"Such a system," says Cushing, "will release thousands of cars in every division for transcontinental hauls. Where good roads exist the motor trucks can be operated at a minimum cost."

"The wonder is that farmers, most of whom are shrewd, calculating men, have not grasped the truck idea long ago."

Cowell says the truck he purchased is giving him far greater satisfaction than he expected. The industry will in the very near future have motor trucks on every farm.

Velie and Peerless Agent Is Located in Salem

C. A. Elliott local agent for Peerless and Velie automobiles and trucks reports business much better than expected. Mr. Elliott has been actively engaged in the automobile trade for over ten years. He came to Salem about three weeks ago from Long Beach, Calif., and has opened a salesroom at the Great Western garage, 147 North High street. He has sold several cars already and expects to consummate other deals now pending. He is very enthusiastic over Salem and the reception tendered him.

The Velie automobiles and trucks are medium priced machines and have won high favor in many communities. The Peerless is a classy car—eight cylinder and eighty horse power—priced at $2645 Salem.

MEAT CAUSE OF KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts to flush Kidneys if Back-Hurts or Bladder
Bothers

If you must have your meat every day, eat it, but flush your kidneys with salts occasionally, says a noted authority who tells us that meat forms uric acid which almost paralyzes the kidneys in their efforts to expel it from the blood. They become sluggish and weaken, then you suffer with a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine gets cloudy, full of sediment, the channels often get sore and irritated, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids, to cleanse the kidneys and flush off the body's urinous waste get four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy here; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink.

The apple always falls to the ground.
It cannot FALL UP.

The price of the Maxwell closed cars—$1195—was fixed in accordance with another inexorable law.

For less than $1195 it would be impossible to give you closed cars combining—as they are combined in the Maxwell—beauty, grace, comfort, efficiency, durability, economy and standard equipment.

For more than that, on the other hand, you could only get larger size or fancier furnishings.
