Corporal Hoff Writes—Corporal Norlyn P. Hoff, who is with Company F, Eighteenth Railway engineers, has written a letter dated January 18 to his father, State Labor Commissioner O. P. Hoff. Corporal Hoff arrived in France in August. He writes that he recently met Lieutenant Louis H. Compton and that another member of his company met Captain Gilbert of the Oregon regiment. Corporal Hoff stated his intention of going to the camp where Compton and Gilbert are stationed for a visit, hence it is presumed that the encampments are not far apart.

The Rev. J. Attwood Stansfield—At St. Paul's Episcopal church for the last times today at 11:00 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Signs of Spring Everywhere—The street cleaning department was out yesterday afternoon sprinkling and cleaning North Front street, while it was noticed that a few property owners were cleaning up yards, pitching out old tin cans into garbage boxes, and otherwise putting their property into tidy condition. In other places it was noted that some of the housewives were cleaning house, a little early in the spring, but setting a good example to others to go and do likewise. Ivan Martin reported that additional petitions are coming for road bushes for planting in parkings on different streets, so that when the big religious convention comes to Salem early next month, the three thousand strangers will see Salem in her best bib and tucker.

Reserve the Date—Pilgrim Chorus of the First Congregational church in secular concert, Tuesday evening, Feb. 19.

River Is Still High—The Willamette river gauge yesterday showed 15.6 feet and it is probable that while the water is still receding it may be another day before the boats can get through the locks at Oregon City. No freight was received yesterday at the docks and the office was closed nearly all day. By the first of the week, however, the boats will be running again.

TIME EXTENDED GERMAN ALIENS

Chief of Police Foland Reports That Registrations Are Slow

Chief of Police Al Poland yesterday received a telegram from United States Marshal Alexander of Portland advising him that the time for the registration of German alien enemies has been extended by the government until 8 o'clock p. m. of Wednesday, February 13.

Chief Poland said yesterday that the registrations in his office are being made very slowly, only one name being put on the books yesterday, and that was R. W. Scopie registering.

Postmaster Huckestein yesterday reported a large registration, all being Germans, with one or two exceptions. Following is the list of names registered at the postoffice yesterday:

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

As they say in congress, I arise to a question of personal privilege, to say that since my ad was published in The Statesman of January 31, I have received about one dozen new subscriptions to "The Country Gentleman," the "Ladies Home Journal" and "The Saturday Evening Post."

The reason the Curtis Publishing company pays for these ads for me is because I do the work at this end of the route, they get the benefit of reading the best class of literature published in the English language. If any one who reads this notice will send in his or her name, and would like for me to send a copy FREE of "The Country Gentleman," as a sample, I will be glad to do so.

Phone 23, or send a letter in care of The Statesman Publishing Company.

—W. C. Cowgill.

OBITUARY

The funeral of Orville Geren Starr was held at the First Christian church yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock, under the direction of Rev. H. C. Stover.

The deceased was the elder son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Starr, who live at 544 North Church street. He was best 31 years of age, having been born in Salem August 22, 1886.

He had lived in Salem all his life, working for a considerable time in the garage of Otto J. Wilson. He had recently returned from Arizona, where he had gone last fall in an effort to regain his health.

Besides his parents, there is left a brother, Lester, to mourn his untimely taking off.

He was a member of the First Christian church. He was a sufferer from tuberculosis, which fact took him to Arizona, and he had been back in Salem only a few weeks.

He was a faithful worker and an exemplary citizen, and his loss will be sadly felt.

The late Lady Mabella Knox was one of nine brothers and sisters, whose aggregate ages totalled 763 years. Five of them survived to 93, 98, 93, 93 and 89 years, respectively.

George Palmer Putnam Has Story in "Home Journal"

"The Sixth Man" is the title of a story by George Palmer Putnam in the current issue of the Ladies Home Journal. Under the caption "In Explanation of this Remarkable Story" the Journal says:

"To the author of this story the basic material was communicated exactly as recorded below. The details of the situation here revealed are wrapped in so much intricacy it was impossible for the author to verify them of to authenticate them as historic facts."

The story is founded on facts surrounding the shooting of Edith Cavell. Mr. Putnam was for nearly three years private secretary to Governor Withycombe.
