Many Hogs Received; Oat Receipts Increased

CHICAGO, Feb. 11 .- Prospects of renewal of eastbound shipments of grain from Chicago strengthened the corn market today after prices had sagged owing to a decided enlarge-ment of receipts. The clost was firm at a shade to 1-8 to 1-4c net advance. with March $127 1-4 to 3-8, and May $1.25 1-8. Oats gained 4-8 to 1-8 to 1-4c. Provisions lost 7 to 25 cents. Peace gossip, which early in the day had also received some attention, was apparently not a factor in the late trading after the general tenor of the president's speech became known.

Oats were governed by the same conditions which affected the corn market. Receipts showed a material increase, but demand was good both from elevator interests and shippers Big receipts of hogs and a falling off in exports weakened provisions.

BY GREAT WAR

Food Prices Materially Increased and Wages Are

MADRID, Feb. 5.—It is not easy to see any silver lining to the clouds that the great war has brought over Spain. Food has increased enormously in price and coal is terribly near and virtually unobtainable, wages have been reduced and strikes and troubules are occuring in all parts of the country. A long dought in the south which lasted all altumn and part of the winter ruined the crops. Snows have frozen fruits and yegetables and many cattle have died of hunger from scarcity of grazing.

Madrid streets are full of beggars: Every day the newspapers record deaths from hunger and Prisons are reported to be full in some towns so that no further arrests can be made, although crimes against person and property conrunning at midnight through shortage of electrict power. The theaters threaten a general strike for the new year because they are so highly taxed and receipts are so poor. The streets of the capitol, unlighted, are patrolled at night, by special police to protect life and property. Scarrity of coal, gasoline and cotton must soon shut down many factories in Castile and Catalonia. For this situation the monarchy has been criticised for some time even among the amry and nobles. In some places onarchical politicians and ex-ministers are turning republican agitators. The "Juntas de Defensa" or de- Corvallia.

Misery is great in small towns and
