bowels and skin.

This good medicine purifies, enriches and revitalizes the blood in its own neculiar and unequalled way. It promptly relieves rheumatism, scrofulous troubles and eczema, regulates kidneys and liver. It originated in a Boston physician's successful prescription, and enjoys high reputation a satisfactory all-round family medicine. Accept no substitute, but insist on having Hood's Sarsaparilla. and get it today. It will do you good.

OLCOTT WOULD NOT NAME WEST

Secretary of State Makes Reply to Question Put by Albert Bede

Should Ben W. Olcott be elected governor, and should a vacancy occur in one of the United States senatorships for Oregon, Mr. Olcott promises that he would not appoint Oswald West to fill the place, but would appoint a Republican. The promise is made in a letter to Elbert Bede of Cottage Grove in reply to a letter in which Bede asks Olcott what he would do in such a situa-
