STEWART QUILTS, HOOPER CHOSEN

Another Readjustment Takes Place in State Banking Department

Charles H. Stewart yesterday submitted his resignation as assistant superintendent of banks, effective today, and Superintendent Bennett announced the appointment of Marshall Hooper, present examiner, to take Stewart's place. To fill the vacancy in the position of examiner caused by the promotion of Hooper, Superintendent Bennett has appointed H. A. Sonne of the Baker Loan & Trust company.

Mr. Stewart resigns to accept a position with the federal reserve bank at San Francisco. What position he is to take with the reserve bank has not yet been decided. He has been with the state banking department four years and was a candidate for appointment as state superintendent when Bennett was recently appointed to take the place of S. G. Sergeant who resigned to accept a position as examiner for the San Francisco federal reserve bank.

Mr. Sonne, the new examiner has been with the Baker Loan & Trust company for about 12 years. W. E. Smith of the First National bank of Monmouth has been appointed to a clerkship in the banking department.

James P. Feller, Republican, of Donald, would be elected a county commissioner, stating, "Will endeavor to conduct the duties of my office to the best interests of the taxpayers, without fear or partiality."

W. H. Goulet, Republican, of Woodburn, wants to succeed himself as county commissioner, and his platform says: "Will serve the people to the best of my ability, as I have in the past."

Al. M. Southwick's petition to have his name put on the ballot in May as constable was filed a few days ago.

G. E. Unruh, Republican, as justice of the peace, if elected, says he will render decisions and verdicts as the evidence in each particular.

Service Flag Unfurled in Kimball College

A most interesting and inspiring service was held in the assembly room of Kimball college of Theology at 3:30 yesterday, when the service flag was unveiled and presented to the school in honor of those from the student body who are now serving with the country's colors. The names thus honored are those of David C. Hassel, who is with Company M in France, and Leslie B. Bailey, who is in the service in Honolulu. Dr. E. S. Hammond of the Kimball faculty was in charge of the exercises, and the following program was given:

Opening song, "Hail to Our Country's Flag," by Kimball chorus; prayer, Professor Edwin Sherwood; D. D.; presentation of the flag by G. R. Abbott of the student body; response by President H. J. Talbot; D. D.; quartette, "We'll Pray for the Boys over There" by C. M. Keefe, Mrs. B. C. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bates; address by Rev. R. N. Avison, D. ## $250,000 FOR STATE POLICE, ACTION TAKEN

Four Companies With Motorcycle Attachment to Guard Industries

EMERGENCY BOARD ACTS

Military Zone to Be Created Along Waterfront at Portland

By action of the state emergency board yesterday $250,000 is provided for the maintenance of a state police force the function of which will be to guard shipyards and other industries of Oregon against the activity of enemies who may be lurking within the state. The money is provided by the creation of a deficiency in the state military fund. In taking the action the emergency board followed substantially a plan recommended in a report from the state council of defense with the exception that a recommendation for a mounted troop is eliminated and provision made for a strong motorcycle attachment.

The state police will be composed of four companies of fifty men each, and the amount allowed for their maintenance is intended to suffice for a period of nine months, or until further provision can be made by appropriation at the next session of the legislature.

Staff Works Out Details. Assignment of motorcycle detachments, distribution of the police about the state, pay for men and officers and other details are left to the state military staff to work out. It is required, however, that salaries shall remain within the legal limits now provided.

Senator Moser formulated and introduced the resolution which embodies the plan. Senator W. D. Wood moved an amendment that the amount be cut to $150,000 with provision made for another meeting of the board to allow the additional $100,000 if necessary. Only Wood and State Treasurer Kay voted for the amendment, and Wood was alone in opposing Moser's resolution. The plan carries with it the creation of a military zone along the Portland waterfront, and the 200 police troop are to be under the command of an officer whose headquarters shall be in Portland.

Withycombe cautioned the utmost care in the expenditure of the $250,000 and expressed the opinion that except in case of further emergency the force could be less than 200 men, but did not argue the point at length. Prior to Senator Moser's resolution Acting Adjutant General Williams recommended $250,000 as the necessary amount.

Moser Defends Resolution. Replying to the amendment offered by Wood and to the suggestion of the governor that the force might be less than 200 men, Senator Moser explained that he had mentioned that figure in the resolution on the basis of the acting adjutant general's recommendation and the report of the council of defense. "Two hundred men is a mighty small force to have on guard," said Mr. Moser, "and if we were to cut the allowance to $150,000 it would mean that the organization would be ineffective. The men would be uncertain as to how long they would be employed and the officers in charge would be in a state of uncertainty whether they would have the backing of the emergency board at a later meeting. To be effective this organization must be on a basis of permanency and $250,000 isn't too much. The governor has said that the people of the state are back of us in this and I am sure that we shall not be criticized."

Mayor Baker of Portland agreed with Senator Moser and said that to get the right kind of men for the police force the organization must be on a permanent basis.

Home Guards Stand. The state police force is not to interfere with the present Oregon home guards who may still be called out in case of necessity.

Earlier in the session a special session of the legislature had been advocated by Stanfield, Kuhl and Moser for the authorization of a special measure on the ballot at the primary election in May, providing for a millage tax to overcome the present restriction of the 6 per cent limitation amendment. The governor stood out against a special session, however, and it was not mentioned at the afternoon session.

ENGLAND GAINING ON VESSELS LOST

shipbuilding bill. The world tonnage exclusive of enemy ships had fallen 2,500,000 from the beginning of the war to the end of 1917, Sir Eric said.

The amount of tonnage sunk in the last 12 months was six million, said Sir Eric, instead of 9,500,000, as the Germans claimed.

LONDON, March 20.—In a general reply to criticisms raised in the debate on the shipbuilding bill in the house of commons today, Premier Lloyd George said that shipbuilding had already been taken from the army, but when it was demanded that 20,000 men should be withdrawn forcibly from the field operations a very serious responsibility was involved. Many of these men were essential to manning batteries and were the mainstay of complete organizations.

Deficiency To Be Covered. "We cannot take the risk of destroying the efficiency of the army in the field at a very critical and perilous moment," added the premier, "where the skill of these men is essential to the successful conduct of particular operations."

The government believed, continued the premier, that by special exertion the deficiency of 120,000 tons monthly in British shipping could be made good, thereby making it impossible for the enemy, who was unable to defeat the allies in the field, to defeat them by the process of destroying their trade.

"This would do more to shorten the war than any individual effort the country could put forward," said the premier, "because it would bring home to the enemy that however long he went on with the war he would never be able to defeat us."

Ex-Premier Asquith welcoming the publication of shipping output and the losses, said that so far from quieting the country or giving information to the enemy, it would have the best possible effect in regularizing the position and enabling the country to face the facts without panic or suspicion.

Mr. Asquith made the interesting revelation that Admiral John Jellicoe had been removed from command of the grand fleet at his own request with the express object of dealing with the submarine menace.
