EASTER TIDE is dawning and with it comes new and fresh activities for the spring season. The past week was brightened with several interesting diversions, among which was the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Stolz, observed Tuesday night at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Lenta Westcott, on Court street. But by far the largest efforts were given over to preparations for the Country fair which was closed successfully as a benefit last night at the armory. Willamette chapter of the Red Cross will also be the beneficiary of a play, "Fanny and the Servant Problem," which will be given Tuesday night at the senior high school by the Snpoh club.

Miss Doris Churchill has returned home for an Easter vacation from the University of Oregon. She has brought with her as her guest Miss Marjorie Edsall of Klamath Falls, a Delta Delta Delta sorority sister.

Mrs. J. H. Crawford and her daughter, Opal, have returned from an extended stay in the east, lasting since last October. They visited in Missouri, Kansas and Oklahoma, passing most of their time in Missouri. Miss Beatrice Crawford, who accompanied her mother to the east, is remaining in Akron, Ohio, where she has taken a position with the Goodyear Rubber company.

MRS. A. N. BUSH presided as a hostess for the matrons of the Thursday Afternoon club during the afternoon of Thursday at the Bush residence, 287 North Capitol street. The affair was informal and with the exception of Mrs. H. N. Coffin, of Boise, Idaho, an aunt of Mrs. Russell Catlin, the guests were the members of the club.

Fragrant roses and carnations were arranged in artist groupings in the rooms and accentuated the prevailing old rose color scheme. A delightful diversion was afforded the guests in this happy setting. They were given the privilege of making favors to be sold at the County Fair for the benefit of the Red Cross.

These sweet charity gifts were tiny patriotic corsages and lapel bouquets copied from one which the hostess brought with her from a recent Chicago visit. They were exceedingly pretty, made from artificial flowers and tied with red, white and blue ribbon. Twenty-one of these little bouquets were made during the afternoon.

For a pleasure tour of eastern cities and a special visit in Washington, D. C., with Senator and Mrs. Charles McNary, Miss Nina McNary and her little niece, Miss Margaret Stolz left Friday for the East. Miss McNary is a sister of Senator McNary and the tourists will go direct to the District of Columbia. Their itinerary will also include Chicago, New York, Boston and other places of interest. Two months will elapse before their return. Miss Margaret Stolz is the thirteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stolz, her mother also being a sister of United States Senator McNary.

Mrs. F. W. Schwab left yesterday afternoon for Astoria to pass the week-end with her husband. Mr. Schwab is an assistant engineer in the Oregon coast artillery and is stationed at Fort Stevens.

Miss Mabel Withycombe, daughter of Governor and Mrs. James Withycombe, is remaining indefinitely with her brother, Earl Withycombe who is confined through illness in a Washington, D. C., hospital. The young man is a soldier. Physicians have extended the hope of his being able to sit up by the middle of April.

To Have Beautiful Hair Use NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE

No woman can afford to be indifferent to the appearance of her hair. A mass of nice snappy hair, becomingly dressed, will add more in genuine looks than a pretty face, or an expensive gown. Don't allow the scalp to become clogged with dirt and dandruff. Don't allow dandruff to destroy your hair. If your hair is uneven, dead, dull and brittle and comes out by the handful every time you draw a comb through it, dandruff is the cause. To rid your scalp of the dandruff and check the loss of hair should be your first remedy. NEWBRO'S HERPICIDE will do this and at the same time put the hair and scalp in a sanitary condition. HERPICIDE appeals to those of greatest refinement on account of its exquisite odor, its purity and cleanliness. It contains no grease and does not stain or dye. GOLDEN wedding anniversaries are always the signal for gala entertainment and in honor of their fifty years of marital bliss Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Stolz were the recipients of successive receptions which were planned for them by their daughter, Mrs. Lenta Westcott Tuesday at the Westcott residence on Court street. Over three hundred guests called during the receiving hours, which were from 2 until 5 o'clock in the afternoon and from 7:30 until 10 o'clock in the evening.

Golden daffodils and artistic clusters of genista with masses of ivy and similar converted the rooms into a springtime bower. The guests were greeted at the door by Margaret and Richard Stolz, grandchildren of the honored couple. All day long telegrams and congratulatory messages found their way to the home. As a special mark of honor the members of the Grand Army of the Republic and the Women's Relief Corps were organization guests. In recognition of war time denials, there were no gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Stolz have many friends in Salem and the Willamette valley, which have been formed by their residence of many years here. They were married in Dayton, Ohio, in 1868 and came to the West in 1873, settling in Salem. An interesting poem, which furnished a bit of biography was read at the party, during the evening.

Music lent its charms with Miss Lily Stege as the violinist, both afternoon and evening. Mrs. Robert Savage was at the piano during the early hours and Miss Swart later. The formal seating which added so much to the beauty of the event was planned by Miss Nina McNary.

Violets decked the dining room where the guests were shown for refreshments. The assistants for serving were Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mrs. L. A. Westcott, Miss Elizabeth Macleay, Miss Mollie Pearmine, Miss Ruby Cornell and the Misses Lenta and Josephine Baumgartner. Assistants in entertaining were Mrs. Walter Stolz, Mrs. F. G. Myers, Miss Margaret Cosper, Mrs. Ida Babcock and Mrs. I. M. Adair.

The poem follows:

GIDEON AND MAGGIE.
They came from Ohio where big Buck-eyes grow
To Oregon whose snow peaks eternally glow
To finish their race in a glorious west
Surrounded by children and grand-children blest.
Fifty years since, it were idle to tell
How did played the beau, how Maggie was belle.
Or how he induced the change in her name
At Dayton, the town of Cash Register fame.
He entered the army, a boy of nine-
As raw a recruit as ever was seen:
Enlisting three times, but shedding no blood
Ending a commissary, rationing food
While bred in the country and country born
He didn't grow up 'tween two rows of corn.
Though tilling the soil was always his line,
It would take a muse profane than mine
To tell how he sweat and cussed as he hoed
Raising Dickenson seeds on the old Garden road.
And finally how he went over the top
Manufacturing vinegar, pickles and pop.
History tells of the great age of gold
And how an immortal Emperor bold
Bled Rome of marble he found it in brick—
So among city fathers Gid showed them a trick.
No matter how madly millionaires raved
Gid found them all mud, he left them all paved.
We regret, dearest friends, this poor insect race to burn,
For this wedding day will never return.
May you go on through the cycles of time
Unheeding the jests of a most hasty rhyme.
Knowing we all in our heart of hearts
Hold friendship of old friends the only real gold.

Games and revelry appropriate for the St. Patrick's holiday lent merriment at a party given recently by Miss Jessie Mason at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mason on Oak street. Refreshments were also served with Mrs. O. M. Cadwell assisting.

Those invited were the Misses Alice Mee, Pearl Mee, Ethel Canfield, Jean Beck, Veronia Cadwell, Romona Cummings and Frank Cadwell, Sam Brown, Fred Smith, Noval Hirona, Frank Reinhart, Lloyd Sundon and Arthur Cummings.

Mrs. J. G. Nadon will leave soon after Easter for Seaside, Oregon, where she will join her husband. Although the family is moving there, the little daughters, Marie and Vivian will remain in Salem for the school season at the Sacred Heart academy. A son, Clifford, will also remain in town. The soldier sons, Cyril and Adrian are in the navy and Royal Nadon is stationed with the army at San Francisco.

In place of her sister-in-law, Miss Callista Moore who was ill, Mrs. Arthur H. Moore was a hostess for the members of a bridge club Monday afternoon. The guests circled small tables amid masses of greenery, suggestive of St. Patrick's day. Mrs. Moore was assisted in serving by her daughters, Helen and Ruth Moore. Mrs. Ernest Hunt of Portland was bidden as an additional guest. The hostess for tomorrow's party will be Mrs. G. E. Schaefer.

Double birthday anniversaries were observed at a prettily appointed dinner party given Tuesday night at the Hamilton residence, 290 Front street when Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton entertained in honor of her husband and George G. Brown, clerk of the state land board.

Daffodils and violets mingled with white narcissus lent the floral motif in the table decorations. Yellow candles cast a golden glow over the table where daffodil decked place cards designated the plates of twenty guests.

Following the dinner the evening was passed with cards. There were five tables. Comical gifts furnished merriment as score prizes. The hostess asked as her assistant, Mrs. George Brown. Those bidden as guests were: Mr. and Mrs. George Brown, Dr. and Mrs. H. H. Olinger, Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Baumgartner, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dancy, Mrs. George Rodgers, Mrs. Frederick S. Stewart, Mrs. Lloyd Shisler and Fred Stump.

Mrs. Asahel Bush left yesterday for a fortnight's sojourn in Los Angeles and Pasadena, where she will enter the social activities at the fashionable Hotel Maryland for a brief season.

Felicitations are reaching Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Grier upon the arrival of a son, born to them Thursday in Falls City. The Griers pass a large part of their time in Salem.

Edward Thielsen left Thursday for San Francisco following a ten-day stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Thielsen. Mrs. Edward Thielsen and little Jane will remain for a fortnight or more longer.

Mrs. George Rodgers has been passing the week in Salem. She will return early this week to Astoria.

Mrs. Carl Roberts and her daughter Imogene will remain for the Easter season as the guests of Senator and Mrs. C. P. Bishop. Mr. Bishop returned Thursday from Pendleton and will also stay in Salem for Easter.

Mrs. Frank Miles of Portland is the guest of her father and sister, Judge F. A. Moore and Miss Callista Moore, having arrived last Saturday. Her stay will be indefinite.

Miss Genevieve Cooper of Independence visited with Salem friends on Friday.

Red lilies and palms decorated the home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Wilbur Chace on the Willamette university campus when they entertained a large group of friends during the week. The occasion was also the birthday anniversary of the host. A feature of the evening's pleasure was an exhibition of pictures by Captain A. C. Barker, formerly of Indiana. Many of the guests were camera enthusiasts and belong to a club of which Mrs. Chace is also a member.

Refreshments were served during the evening with Mrs. George H. Alden and Mrs. W. E. Kirk assisting.

Those bidden were: Dean and Mrs. George Alden, Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, Prof. and Mrs. J. T. Matthews, Prof. and Mrs. Florian Von Eschen, Prof. and Mrs. M. E. Peck, Prof. and Mrs. Charles L. Sherman, Dr. and Mrs. John O. Hall, Prof. and Mrs. Gustav Ebsen, Prof. and Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Mathews, Mrs. Della Crowder Miller, Prof. and Mrs. W. A. C. Barker.

Mrs. B. L. Steeves has returned from Portland, where she has been passing a week.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Edwards gave a party recently at their home, 1134 Waller street, in honor of their little daughter's, Marvell Eleanor, tenth birthday. The afternoon was given over to games and music. A delicious birthday dinner was served.

Those invited were Dorothy Baker, Myrtle Shipp, Louise and Margaret Nunn, Helen and Mary Magers, Helen Race, Mary Louise Shaffer, Velma Hunt, Catherine Manan, Elizabeth Bennet, Lillian Green and Cecil Edwards.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES
Mrs. Catharine Upmeyer will lead the Vesper services this afternoon at 7 o'clock.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded, or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and run it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS
Take a tablespoonful of Salts if Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-known authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork; they get sluggish; the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, acid stomach, or rheumatism in the weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.

PARIS RAIDED AND BOMBED SAME DAY

The twenty-two mile bombardment of Dunkirk by the Germans more than a year ago had set a record and ordnance officers of the American, British and French corps freely conceded they never had dreamed of a monster gun with a range of more than thirty miles.

Shelling Is Questioned.
Some officers frankly questioned that shells from rifled cannon actually had fallen in Paris. Others sought explanation in new devices or secret gun emplacements in the vicinity of Paris. None wanted to believe that any gun had been invented by the Germans or any one else which could throw a nine and a half-inch projectile sixty miles.

If the German experts have evolved a wholly new type of gun dependent upon the same mathematical factors that govern ordnance everywhere, officers here think it highly unlikely that they would employ it for an isolated and meaningless attack upon Paris.

It might be, some officers thought, that a continuous dropping of medium caliber shells on the city was part of a hope for breaking the spirit of France by some mysterious visitation.

The finding of shell fragments bearing the marks of gun rifling seemed to preclude the idea of an ordinary airplane bomb. It was suggested that monster airplanes mounting guns might have been used but no one has ever conceived the possibility of carrying a nine and a half inch weapon in the air. A short range, light weight, inverted howitzer carried by aircraft appeared to some as a possible explanation.

Some officers conceived the possibility that in the outskirts of Paris there might be a hidden gun. It was admitted that it would have no military value and could only be a weapon of terror and its discovery would be certain.

A bombardment of Paris at a distance of sixty-two miles appeared to most of the ordnance officers as such a complete surprise that they found it difficult to talk about.

COUNTRY FAIR PAYS HEAVILY
Results Are Far Above Expectations—Dance Draws Hundreds to Floor

The Red Cross County Fair closed in the wee small hours this morning, with all the hip hooray that could be mustered by the most enthusiastic crowd perhaps that ever assembled in the armory.

Tickets for dancing sold at one dime each, and as the ticket seller on the door took in upwards of $150 before 10 o'clock last night, there must have been 1,500 people who paid for tickets. The floor was crowded during the entire evening.

Reports of goods sold at auction, or by lottery, will not be completed until tomorrow, but the ten pigs sold by "Daddy" Eyre, president of the boys and girls pig club of the United States National Bank, sold for just $14.25, or an average of $4.25 each, netting the Red Cross, according to agreement, $4.25 or the price of one thoroughbred Duroc Jersey.

Much credit is due to W. L. Bryant, for the excellent music furnished throughout the event.

It was reported on the street that B. F. Jones, a well-known sheep man, had said it was intention to buy "Brother Bill," that celebrated ram, who, on a similar occasion in eastern Oregon brought $5,000. But at last accounts neither Jones nor "Brother

Peruna Relieved My Cough

Mrs. Gertrude Ehardt, 219 East First St., Kewanee, Illinois, writes:
"I have taken six bottles of your Peruna for a cough, and I am all well. I want over to see a doctor for one day and I had a terrible cough and my eyes were sore. She gave me half a bottle of Peruna last November, and it did me so much good that I bought a bottle, and then when I had finished that I got another, and so on until I have taken almost six bottles and I feel like a new woman. I am fifty-nine years old, and since I have taken the Peruna, I feel as I did twenty years ago. I will always keep Peruna in my house."
