

YANKEE OFFICER IS COMMENDED FOR COURAGE

U. S. Sergeant, Painfully Injured, Continues to Help Others Wounded

PERSHING SENDS PRAISE

War Department Asked to Convey Sympathy to Nearest Relative

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, March 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—The honor of being the first men outside the American service to receive the distinguished service cross has fallen upon two French officers—Major Jacques Corbaron, of the French mission attached to the American forces which were north of Lunéville, and Lieutenant De La Gignals of the French artillery. Both officers gave assistance to the American troops while they were under heavy fire.

Service Cross Awarded. The distinguished service cross cross has also been awarded to the following Americans: Colonel Douglas MacArthur, Col. George E. Leach, Lieutenant Colonel William A. Donahue, Captain Thomas T. Handy, Captain Philip J. McAuley, First Lieutenant W. E. Word, Captain Charles J. Casey, Captain Lloyd D. Ross, Captain Richard Smith, First Lieutenant J. P. Rosenwald of the medical corps. All these officers distinguished themselves in the fighting on the Lunéville sector.

General Pershing has sent a special message to the next of kin of Medical Sergeant Peterson who was wounded in action March 5 and who died later. Notwithstanding his wound, Peterson supervised the care of wounded brought to the dressing station. The cross was awarded him for his devotion to duty. Major Corbaron participated in an assault on an enemy position March 9 in the salient of Du Fex, which later was occupied by the Americans and the name of which it now is permitted to give. When three lines had been overrun, Major Corbaron voluntarily joined an American company which met a severe enemy fire for three hours. The communication announcing the bestowal of this cross as sent to Washington, says:

Officer Is Praised. "This officer, by his coolness and conspicuous courage, had a marked effect on the American organization undergoing its baptism of fire."

Lieutenant De La Gignals entered a quarry where an American battery was under a heavy fire March 5 near Peronne and aided materially in encouraging the American artillerymen.

Colonel MacArthur and Captain Handy participated in the March 9 engagement and received the same commendation to Washington as Major Corbaron. Colonel Leach and Lieutenant Colonel Donahue were with Lieutenant De La Gignals. Captain McCauley and Lieutenant Word conducted the movements of their battery in the same action together

Relieves Stiff Neck

When you wake up with a stiff neck or sore muscles, strains or sprains, use Sloan's Liniment. No need to rub; it quickly penetrates to the seat of pain and removes it. Cleaner than musky plasters or ointments. It does not stain the skin or clog the pores. Always have a bottle handy for rheumatic aches, neuralgia, soreness, bruises and lame back. In fact, all external pain. Generous sized bottles at your druggist.

with Lieutenant Terrell, who already has been mentioned for keeping up the morale of the men. Captain Casey and Captain Rose commanded companies in a dual company raid with the French March 5 and showed especially gallantry, winning the commendation of their colonel and brigade commander.

Captain Smith won his cross for "bold initiative and prudence in conducting sixty-nine men, who were repairing the construction of communication lines in the vicinity of Du Manonpillers, to a place of safety."

"After arriving there Captain Smith returned and brought in the body of a mortally wounded French soldier, after which he fell exhausted."

Lieutenant Rosenwald, while attached to an artillery regiment, twice entered a battery position under heavy fire in order properly to care for wounded.

General Pershing has sent the following message to the war department at Washington:

"I request that you express my sincerest sympathy to the nearest relative of Sergeant Peterson. Mortally wounded, he gave instructions for the care of the wounded and made a first aid post in order to save the lives of the men about him. He was a gallant soldier and I awarded him the distinguished service cross."

Government Approval for Bonds Asked of Committee

Approval of the government for the $1,500,000 in state highway bonds still available this year under the $6,000,000 bond act is requested in a communication sent by the highway commission yesterday to the capital issues advisory committee at Washington.

Approval of the issue by the government means that the commission can proceed with the road improvement program for the year. Members of the board yesterday signed the $500,000 in bonds recently sold to Henry Neal of Portland and the bonds will be given over today. A portion of the bonds goes to Boston and a part to Portland.

TWO WOUNDED, IN KANSAS CITY LAUNDRY STRIKE

Five Large Plants Damaged and General Disorder Is Prevalent

TWO SHOT BY GUARDS

Several Thousand Men and Women Quit and Cripple Industries

KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 27.—Disorders in which at least two persons were shot and seriously wounded and five large laundry plants damaged marked the first day of the general strike in Kansas City, called in sympathy with the striking laundry workers.

Two strikers were shot by guards who fired into a crowd of several hundred that attacked a laundry plant with bricks and sticks. The two men were taken to a hospital. Union men asserted tonight several thousand men and women had obeyed the call, seriously crippling several industries.

Efforts to mediate the differences were resumed, conferences being held tonight.

Fifty-one saloons were closed late today after there had been several clashes between the strikers and company guards.

The Gillpatrick and Munzer laundries were raided and windows and doors broken in with stones. Furnishings and some machinery in both places were wrecked. Police estimated several thousand persons participated in the two raids.

One attack upon Wool Brothers laundry was met by policemen who fired several shots into the crowd, but no one was injured.

Earlier in the afternoon a big crowd routed a squad of police who had arrested three men at the Kansas City Laundry company, freeing the prisoners.

NEW REGIMENT IS COMPLETED

Superintendent Churchill Begins Enrollment of Third Division

Boys and girls in the schools of Oregon have sold far in excess of $100,000 worth of war thrift stamps, and two Junior Rainbow regiments of 1000 members have been completed by State Superintendent Churchill.

Many of the boys and girls have sold several hundred dollars' worth of stamps and the exact total of the sales cannot be calculated.

Enrollment for a third regiment has begun.

"Any child not a member of the first or second regiment may become a member of the third regiment by selling or purchasing $50 worth of stamps," says Superintendent Churchill. "He may sell part of the $50 worth and purchase the balance. Any member of the first or second regiment may become a member of the third regiment by selling or purchasing $50 worth of stamps after March 27. Each child is given a certificate of membership signed by me and a copy of the roster of the regiment."

Members of the ninth and tenth hundred enrolling for the second regiment follow:

Swift & Company's 1918 Year Book

shows that Swift & Company sells the meat from a steer for less money than the live steer cost!

Proceeds from the sale of the hide, fat, and other by-products covered all expense of dressing, refrigeration, freight, selling expense and the profit of $1.29 per steer as shown by Swift & Company's 1917 figures as follows:

Average price paid for live cattle per steer	$84.45
Average price received for meat	68.97
Average price received for by-products	24.09
Total received	93.06
This leaves for expenses and profit	8.61
Of which the profit per steer was	1.29

There are many other interesting and instructive facts and figures in the Year Book.

TWO COLLEGES WILL DEBATE

Puget Sounders Will Endeavor to Wrest Title From Willamette

The Willamette university affirmative team will meet the negative team of the College of Puget Sound, Tacoma, in a debate Friday night.

The College of Puget Sound, which upholds the negative, more nearly rivals Willamette in size than did Pacific university. The two colleges have always been keen rivals, their last intercollegiate conflict being a football game a few seasons back which the Bearcats won by a large score.

The question will be the same used in the Pacific debate, "Resolved, That the United States should adopt the essential features of the New Zealand system of arbitration for labor disputes."

Willamette debaters are: Otto Paulus and Miss Myrtle Mason. Judges for the debate will be Hon. Walter H. Evans, J. O. Stearns, Sr., and A. P. McKinley of Portland.

Live Auxiliary Formed at Willamette University

A Red Cross auxiliary of Willamette university was organized last week, after a meeting held by the students. The girls of the university met with the wives of the faculty members to formulate plans for the auxiliary. They contrived a plan

Eugene Candidate Is for Cleaner State University

"A cleaner university for Oregon" is one of the principles set out in the slogan of James Fullerton of Eugene who today filed declaration of his candidacy for the legislature on the Republican ticket. In his platform he says he will work unceasingly for a cleaner university, thereby saving the taxpayers thousands of dollars.

J. R. Stannard of Gold Beach filed declaration of his candidacy for representative in the legislature from Curry county. His slogan is "Let's all pull together to win the war."

YEAR BOOK OUT BY SWIFT & CO.

Volume for 1918 Contains Many Interesting Facts and Statistics

The 1918 Year Book, recently published by Swift & company contains many facts which should prove interesting reading to every consumer of meat and meat products.

The book is attractively printed in colors on high quality paper and contains many photogravings illustrating the matters explained in the text.

This Year Book will be mailed free of charge to anyone requesting a copy from Swift & company, Union Stock Yards, Chicago, Ill.

Among other things, the book shows that Swift & company sells meat from a steer for less money than the live steer cost. It sets forth that the average price paid for live cattle, per steer, during 1917 was $84.45 and that the average price received for the meat was $68.97, or $15.48 less than the cost of the live steer. The proceeds from the sale of the hide, fat and other by-products ($25.30) covered all expense of dressing, refrigeration, freight, selling expense and company profit of $1.29 per steer.

The pages are brimful of interesting statistics:

Production of meats in the United States 1909-1916; per capita production of meats in the United States 1909-1916; per capita consumption of meats in various countries; average cattle costs, beef prices, by-products values and profits by weeks for year ending June 30, 1917; net profit Swift & Co. per head of cattle, sheep and hogs, 1912 to 1916; other products handled by Swift & Co., including butter, cheese, eggs, poultry, oleomargarine and fertilizer.

The book ends with the financial statement of Swift & Co. September 30, 1917.

Razors were used in the remote ages, and they are mentioned in the Book of Numbers.
