FOR SAM BROWN FOR SENATE.

Editor Statesman: I wish to say a word for Sam H. Brown, the Gervais farmer, who is candidate for the state senate. Mr. Brown has served two terms in the house, most acceptably to the taxpayers of Marion county. His views on all public questions, and the record of his votes, plainly show that he is keenly alive to all the material interests of the state, and he is a reliable, safe legislator.

Macleay, March 27 --FARMER.

Schnabel Candidate for Short Term as Senator

Another candidate for the short term for United States senator appeared yesterday when Charles J. Schnabel of Portland, Republican, filed declaration of his candidacy with Secretary of State Olcott. He announces that if elected he will at once resign and allow the governor to appoint to the position the people's choice for the term beginning March 4, 1919, to assume the senatorship immediately after the November election. Mr. Schnabel's platform follows:

"Immediately resign so that the people's choice for the term beginning March 4, 1919, can be apopinted by the governor to assume the enatorship immediately after the November elections. If Senator Mc-Nary is re-elected the continuity of his service shall remain unbroken.

If another is elected, he can assume his duties immediately and secure preference in committee assignments. Let us win the war; enforce the Monroe doctrine: modernize our norts; develop the shipbuilding; deof Oregon so that the product of Oregon farms and factories shall be carried throughout the world in ships carrying the American flag."

Special Agents to Meet at Oregon Hotel April 5

Henry B. Tickner, president of the Special Agents Association of the Northwest, has called a meeting of all special agents and inspectors of insurance companies operating in Oregon for April 5 in Portland. The meeting will be held at the Oregon More Marion County Pupils hotel and begin at 10 o'clock. The meeting will inaugurate a conservation inspection drive of all buildings and plants in Oregon where war mu-Captain Carlton Smith of the medinitions or food is stored or made. W. D. The lieutenant was accompanied to Salem by Mason Wittenberg, of the Wittenberg-King company of Portland, ithe parent company of the branches in The Dalles and Salem.

As soon as the government closed contract with The Salem-Kings Products company for 600 tons of dehydrated potatoes, that fact was wire from Washington by Senator McNary to the commercial club of Salem and it was largely due to his efforts, as well as the efforts of the club, that the contract was landed for the Salem firm, and later the contract was confirmed by General ability." in Portland. At the word "Go" Manager Jack Walker of the Salem company, put a large force to work on the big contract and he has now on hand in the warehouse at the plant nearly 250,-000 pounds, by rough estimate yesterday. Lieutenant Tobin returned to his headquarters in Portland almost as suddenly as he arrived in Salem, but said he would be in the neighborhood for a long time.

"While I will not tell you just what foods I have inspected on this trip, or anything else for the present, you say for me as well as Food Director W. B. Ayre, who speaks for the entire state of Oregon, so far as the government is concerned, that in a few days from now-I cannot say just when-the government will institute a wide campaign of publicity in every corner of the state. We want the people then to know what our plans are, and we expect to get the co-operation of the people, es pecially the farmers of Oregon. "You can tell the farmers that i is to their interest to grow things, not only because the government has to have potatoes, turnips, carrots, onions and all kinds of fruits for our soldiers, but we have got to support ourselves as well and the more acres planted, the less will be the danger of shortage on any line of food, and the cheaper the prices to consumers at home.

The lieutenant was not talking about grain production of any kind. as everybody knows that the govern ment has fixed the price of wheat. but what he asked to have impressed on the minds of the farmers in Marion county and the Willamette valley generally, is that fruits and vege tables of every variety are not only necessary for the daily food of the soldiers, but the people at home, under orders from Washington, must use more and more potatoes, and other flour substitutes. Lieutenant Tobin expects to turn to Salem in a short time.
