

Wm. S. Hart

TODAY!

in "The Bargain"

Produced by Thos. H. Ince

THE BIGGEST AND BEST HART EVER MADE

6--BIG REELS--6

STARTS AT 2:15 BY THE CLOCK

GO!

GUARANTEED 100 PER CENT PRODUCTION

ASK FOR OUR APRIL PROGRAMS AT THE DOOR

The OREGON

Society

By Florence Elizabeth Nichols

Mrs. George Schaefer will be a hostess for the Monday Afternoon Bridge club tomorrow at her residence. The club is an auxiliary of the Red Cross and they suspended their social activities the past week in order to do canvass work for their chapter.

We are to be given another opportunity of hearing the high school choruses, under the direction of Miss Minnetta Magers, when she presents them the last part of the month, or early in May, in "The Chimes of Normandy," and judging from reports of the happy progress of the work, we may look forward with pleasurable anticipation.

Enjoying their last vacation before commencement are the following: Miss Doris Churchhill, Miss Marjorie Kay, Miss Ethel McGilchrist. They will return to Eugene this evening or tomorrow, after passing the week with their parents.

Miss Elma Weller plans to present a number of her younger piano pupils in recital at her residence studio, the latter part of next week and has asked Harriett Griffith to assist on the program with a song. Her final recital for the year will be in June.

Friends of Charles P. Ohling will be interested to learn of his recent association with the Post-Intelligencer of Seattle. Mr. and Mrs. Ohling (Margaret Poissal) have been located in Seattle about a year, being domiciled at 1829 Jackson street.

Mrs. Roy Shields furnished delightful entertainment at the children's party which she gave Wednesday afternoon, assisted by her sister, Miss Lucile Patty, in celebration of the second anniversary of her twin daughters, Evelyn Rosella and Adeline Roberta. Daffodils and candles decked the table, the cunning favors being in the form of daffodils.

Mrs. F. M. Miles of Portland is on an extended visit at the F. A. Moore residence.

Mrs. Walter Spaulding is passing the week-end in Canby with her mother, Mrs. Nora Miller.

Mrs. Mattie Beatty, Marion county chairman of the woman's division of the third liberty loan, was in Portland yesterday attending a conference of the county chairmen of the state, held at the Multnomah hotel.

T. H. Schulderman of Portland, who has been the house guest of his son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Schulderman, returned to his home this week.

Mrs. Rutherford Diller and her sons, Jack and Clifford, of Portland came up Friday evening to be guests over Easter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Moores. Mr. Diller planned to motor to Salem today to join them.

The Chautauqua Reading circle will give a musical entertainment from "Faust" on Tuesday evening, April 9, at the Christian church. All friends of the circle are cordially invited.

Always in search of what is different, Miss Beatrice Shelton reached about the apex of delight in the charming Easter musical yesterday afternoon in the Y. W. C. A. rooms, when she presented members of her junior piano classes. The invitation list for the affair included the parents and small friends of the young musicians, and the elders were quite as enchanted as the juniors with the Easterlike fairyland settings.

Golden daffodils bloomed in large art baskets while the season's novelties added a more suggestive note, the decorative effort excelling in the decking of the banquet table. A miniature automobile, as the centerpiece, started on its journey, drawn by tiny chicks and driven by cunning little bunnies. The former half coming from tiny houses were scattered over the cloth and the guests found their places by quaint Easter hats. The collation further carried out the idea, and for the clever ideas perfected credit was given to Miss Alta Johnson, Miss Grace Fawc, Miss Ruth Bedford and Miss Laura Arenz. Miss Cleveland also came in for grateful recognition through her loan of the rooms.

The ushers were Frances Ward, Genevieve Endicott and Flora Fletcher. Most cordial commendation was accorded the children upon the excellence of their work. Some of the participants had studied less than two months and much musical ability was shown throughout the program. Miss Shelton's work with beginners has been remarkably successful, and her classes for the present year are probably the largest of any recorded any instructor in Salem during a single year.

A feature of yesterday's affair was the presenting of prizes to Bertha Babcock, Lena Meddler and Lorraine Fletcher, winners in the contest for stars for meritorious work.

The numbers follow:
Duet—Evening Star
Caroline Lambirth
Catherine Baker
Studies No. 10-11—Spring Beauties
Gladys Lammear
Here We Go—Sing-Sing—Duet
Jeannette Sykes, Miss Shelton
Duet—No. 62-64
Dorothy Mickelson
Singing Bird—Birdie in the Apple Tree
Bertha Babcock
Little Things
The Snail
Song
Study 55—Happy Moments
Contented Bird
On the Playground
Butterfly Dances
Spring Song
Study No. 55
Golden Rod—March
Marionettes
Canary
Dollie's Dream
Sleigh Ride
Pretty Star
Reading—After School—Quiet Afternoon
Lover's Lane
Fairy Stories
Valedictorian
Duet—Sailor's Dream
Lorraine Fletcher, Miss Shelton
Ten Amore
Happy Farmer
Winifred Gamble
Youthful Love
March Triumphal
Mennette
Dorelle Anderson, Miss Shelton
Song—Kittens
Lorraine Fletcher

The young guests invited by the pupils were Alice Claxton, Clifford Lammear, Elsie Brown Melba Yokem, Dorothy Hoffhardt, Harriett Austin, Louis Lippold, Jewel Halsell, Robert Eyre, Maxine Meyers, Charles Biers, Erna Doughy, Catherine Mulvey, Leona Geer, Elsworth Fletcher, Lavinia Burger, Edwina Baker, Loyal Gray, Florence Austin, Lois Miller.

The pupils of Ralph Harr held their recital of the 29th of March at the home of C. F. Young. The house was decorated with daffodils and Easter rabbits. The programme is as follows:
Scales and Exercises—Class
Sonatina Gladys Anderson
Sonatina Kuhlhar
Hazel Pierce
American Medley Grobe
Josephine Seymour
Martha D. Krug
Dorothy Zimmerman
Falling Waters Traux
Gladys Anderson
Simple Life Mouligne
Winifred Contretras
Aloha Montelle
Gladys Anderson
Duet Beyer
Robbey Linnville and Mr. Harr
Exercise Beyer
Donald Young
Rudiments of Music—Class
Black Hawk Walsh
Margaret Hogg
Missouri Waltz Logan
Donald Schupp
Martha Fantasia Facela Dourn
Clara Page
Duet Beyer
Donald Young and Mr. Harr
Poet and Peasant Brunner
Hazel Pierce
Musical Spelling—By Class
Nearer My God to Thee Zeiler
Mr. Harr and Dorothy Zimmerman
Duet Muse
Gladys and Esther Anderson
Cornflower Waltzes Stoddard
Esther Anderson
After the programme refreshments were served by the musical spelling team captains.

Miss Alta Matten, who is home from O. A. C. for the Easter vacation, was given a pleasant surprise by her friends Friday evening. The hours were spent in old fashioned diversions, a "Hoover" supper rounded out the evening. Those enjoying the party were the Misses Lucky Nichols, Dorothy Tucker, Alice Mathey, Eta Sutter, Minnie Battalion, Rose Battalion, Emmaline Brinkley, Kathleen Brinkley, Hazel Feustman and Alta Matten. Messers Walter Hain, Cass Nichols, Madison Nichols, Mike Battalion and Elmer Roth and Mr. and Mrs. George Hain, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Schulz, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Matten and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Laudenback.

A pleasant surprise was given Norman B. Purbrick last Wednesday evening at his home, 854 N. Commercial street, by employees of the State Industrial Accident Commission, where Mr. Purbrick has been employed as accountant. He is one of the Salem boys who have been called to the colors in the selective draft, and will leave for Camp Lewis Monday morning.

The evening was spent in playing various games, and refreshments were served. The feature of the evening was the presentation by Al H. Steiner, on behalf of the employees, of a soldiers' comfort kit to Mr. Purbrick, at the same time saying that they wished him Godspeed and a safe return. Mr. Purbrick in turn expressed his thanks and assured all of his appreciation of their good wishes.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Al H. Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Loren R. White, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Purbrick, Mrs. Winifred Denison, Mr. O. B. Allm, the Misses L. M. Hunter, Ruth Morwood, N. Pruner, Elzavore Pepon, Lydia Lahme, Vivian Hopson, Marie Breitenstein, Margaret Steiner, Irene Allm and the Messrs. Norman B. Purbrick, Harry F. Caldwell, Carl Pope, David Steiner, Jack Allm and Andrew V. Ovall.

Miss Mabel Brassfield will leave Sunday for Harrisburg where she will be the guest of friends over the week-end.

Mrs. W. H. McDaniel, accompanied by her daughter, Miss Dellah McDaniel of Dallas, were visiting with friends in Salem Thursday and Friday.

Miss Maude Barnes was in Salem yesterday on route to Eugene, where she will resume her studies at the University of Oregon, after having passed the week with her mother, Mrs. G. L. Barnes, in Dallas.

A program was given by the Adalante society of Willamette university Friday afternoon at the Adalante hall. Those who appeared on the program were: Piano solo, Miss Florence Scheuerle; music in the trenches, Miss Hobbs; Freshman glee, Miss Ruth Spoor; an extemporaneous debate was given and the following question was under discussion: "Resolved, that ragtime music exceeds grand opera music in musical worth."

An Easter program was given Friday afternoon by the members of the Christomathian society of Willamette university. Miss Fay Pratt played a delightful instrumental solo which was followed by a theme on Easter by Miss Opal Gillispie; "Easter Superstitions and Customs" by Miss Estelle Satchwell; "An Easter Story" was given by Miss Helen Rose, which was followed by a vocal solo by Miss Eva Cherrington.

Over seventy-five guests gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Bouffleur in Polk county to celebrate the fortieth wedding anniversary of the well known couple Tuesday night. It was a triple event as the occasion was also the birthday of Mrs. Bouffleur and the natal day of her only granddaughter, Lorraine, who came from Bremerton, Wash., to participate in the merrymaking. It was an all day gathering, some of the guests coming in the morning and others rounding out the festivities later in the evening. As a token of esteem, Mr. and Mrs. Bouffleur was presented with a leather Morris chair by their many friends. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames S. P. Kimball, Frank Wilson, L. D. Gibson, W. G. McDowell, John W. Cannon, Bernam Southwick, J. W. Delapp, Robt. Sansborn and son, Maxwell, I. D. Bennett, W. L. Davis, F. A. Koehn, R. W. Clark, T. J. Gardner, William Calder, C. C. Chaffee, J. Lucas, L. Grice, J. Olson and daughter, Lucille, M. C. Pettys, P. T. Bouffleur and daughter, Lorraine, O. E. Price and daughter, Hazel Price, Mrs. A. R. Southwick, Mrs. H. E. Cochran, Mrs. J. W. Sims, Mrs. G. Porter, Mrs. Frank Rosenquest, Mrs. J. R. Chapman, Mrs. I. L. McAdams, Mrs. E. Schindler and the Misses Zeta and Vera Rosenquest, Mable Wilson, Volma White, Sophia and Irene Koehn, Mary Schindler and the Messrs. James Porter, Glen Southwick, Sam Chapman, Dr. J. L. Lynch, Elmer Smith, Arthur Koehn, Turfield, Leon and Harold and Teddy Schindler, Wright Nier, Gene Southwick, Edith and Freddie Koehn.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

A meeting of the board of directors has been called by the president for Thursday morning at 10:00 a. m. Business of unusual importance will be brought before the meeting and a full attendance is requested. The Vesper services held each Sunday at 4:30 will be postponed today on account of the Musical Vespers held at the same hour at the Presbyterian and Leslie M. E. churches. To give the patriotic women of Salem the opportunity to get together and pray for our boys in the service and for the allied nations a patriotic prayer service has been arranged for Tuesday at 2 o'clock. Every patriotic woman reading this notice is invited to the meeting.

Mrs. Charles A. Park has returned from California and announces she will resume her Bible class for study next Tuesday at 2:30 o'clock.

Music

The Redemption by Charles Gounod which is said to be the best of modern oratorios will be used as the Easter program at the First Presbyterian church today at 4 p. m. Rev. Carl H. Elliott, the pastor, will read that part of the text not sung. The choir will sing only selected parts. The combination of the pipe organ, piano and violin will be used, bringing out more effectively the beauty of the music. This masterpiece of sacred music is not only beautiful in harmony but so profound in sentiment that it seems a wonderful sermon for the Eastertide. It is a lyrical setting forth of three great facts: The res-surrection to His ascension, and the spread of Christianity through the mission of the apostles. The chorus "Lovely Appear" is one of the best known and best liked. It includes the wonderful soprano solo, "Over the Barren Wastes," which prophesies the millennium. This is sung by Miss Ada Miller, who has so successfully appeared in oratorio and sacred solos in Chicago during the past three years. The text and a small part of the Redemption was written in Rome in 1868. Twelve years later it was completed and sung for the first time at the Birmingham Musical Festival. Gounod dedicated it to Queen Victoria and wrote upon it in Latin, "My Life Work."

The choir will be under the direction of Miss Minnetta Magers. The soloists will be Miss Ada Miller, soprano; H. V. Compton, tenor; Mabel Claire Groun and Mildred Brink as accompanists. Miss Magers, contralto; J. N. Myers and O. A. Macy, baritone. The choir will consist of thirty-five voices, including some of the best in the city.

Miss McCulloch Moves to Bank of Commerce Building

Miss Anzeline McCulloch, optometrist, will tomorrow move her office to rooms 204-205 Salem Bank of Commerce building, where she will be associated with the offices of Drs. Finley and Steeves.

Hedges Again Appointed on Board of Curricula

Joseph E. Hedges of Oregon City has been appointed by Governor Withycombe to succeed himself as a member of the State Board of Higher Curricula. His present term expires tomorrow, and the appointment is for five years. Other members are Rev. Jonah B. Wise and Dr. C. J. Smith of Portland, C. P. Coshaw, Roseburg and A. G. Beals, Tillamook.

Classified Ads Work for You