

Flares and Flickers

George Behan, the beloved Italian-French character actor of the screen, is coming to the Oregon theatre Wednesday in his newest Paramount picture, "One More American." This was written and directed by William C. deMille, the noted writer and director of photoplays, who has directed such pictures as "Geraldine," "Carmen," "The Warrens of Virginia" and others. The cast includes Helen Eddy, Mr. Behan's leading lady in so many of his former pictures.

Allen & Morton, a pair of Etheopean entertainers who present an offering which they designate as "Two Fools and a Fiddle," consisting of singing, dancing, talking and incidentally a little fiddling that is all comedy and one big laugh. At the Bligh today.

For a banner Easter program the Oregon has secured William S. Hart in "The Bargain," the biggest and best picture he ever made.

The three Fishers are a trio of seemingly boneless wonders, consisting of a very pretty girl, a lithe limbed man and a youngster who present a scenic novelty called "Crocodile Isle" that permits splendid opportunities for a display of contortion feats of remarkable ability. At the Bligh today.

A tale of absorbing interest known to nearly everyone already is to be the attraction at the Oregon theatre on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. This is "Huck and Tom," or "The Further Adventures of Tom Sawyer," from Mark Twain's immortal book, "Tom Sawyer." Young Mr. Pickford appeared some time ago in "Tom Sawyer" and his success was so great that the producer decided to continue the production in a second five reel picture, so great was the popularity of the first, and so much material was left over from which to draw. Tom Sawyer, aided and abetted by the irrepressible Huck Finn, indulges in thrilling and humorous adventure, including witnessing a murder and being able to save a man's life by their testimony, as well being marooned in a cave where they discover untold wealth that had been hidden there by robbers. Whether you saw "Tom Sawyer" or not you will want to see this.

Deibel & Ray, a comedian who has a style particularly his own and a strikingly beautiful young woman, comprise this interesting duo who present a comedy singing and talking number, which they call "Wait a Minute." At the Bligh today.

Wm. S. Hart at the Oregon today in "The Bargain," a big six reel production produced by Thos. H. Ince and said to be the best picture Hart ever made.

Since war was declared on Germany, Carmel Myers, who plays the lead in "The Girl in the Dark" which comes to the Bligh theatre today, has given all her spare time to knitting for the soldier boys, and has made a number of sweaters and several dozen pairs of socks. She is particularly adept with the knitting needles, and has taught more than a dozen others among the Bluebird flock to handle them almost as skillfully as she does herself.

Jack Pickford, the clever Paramount star who made a decided hit a few weeks ago at the Oregon theatre in "The Adventures of Tom Sawyer," will be seen Thursday, Friday and Saturday in "Huckleberry Finn" or the further adventures of "Tom Sawyer."

An instance of the care which William Fox exercises in making his pictures recently occurred in the making of "Jack and the Beanstalk" by C. M. and S. A. Franklin. An elaborate setting, representing the interior of the leading character's home, had been erected. The two Franklin brothers say it, thought that it would not harmonize with the spirit of the story, and refused to use it. An entirely new scene had to be erected to get the exact mood of the photoplay. At the Liberty next Thursday.

A neat program folder with all bookings for the month of April has been issued by the Oregon theatre. Anyone can have one for the asking.

A giant double Easter program is on at the Liberty today with Tyrone Power in "The Planter," in seven reels, and William S. Hart in "The Dark," two reels, and a one-reel comedy.

Hippodrome vaudeville today at the Bligh.

Winsome Billie Furke is to appear at the Oregon theatre next Sunday in her latest Paramount picture, "Eve's Daughter." This is an adaptation by Margaret Turnbull of Alicia Ramsey's play of that name which was produced on Broadway this year with Grace George as the star. The excellent cast includes Thomas Meighan, who, it will be remembered appeared with Miss Burke in "The Land of Promise."

"Jack and the Beanstalk" will be at the Liberty for three days only, starting next Thursday.

One of the biggest features of the season is on at the Liberty today in Tyrone Power in "The Planter," a special seven-reel production from the novel by Norman Whitaker. Also William S. Hart in one of his best two-reel pictures, with Charles Ray in "The Dark."

J. G. Tarver, who measures something over eight feet in height, will be seen in "Jack and the Beanstalk," the first picture made by C. M. and S. A. Franklin for William Fox. In contrast to the numerous children who will have important parts in this production, Mr. Tarver will do his best to show his full height on the screen. At the Liberty next Thursday.

KING CANDIDATE FOR THE SENATE

Democrat Proposes "Trinity" in Slogan Announcing Himself

Will R. King filed with Secretary of State Olcott Saturday his candidacy for the Democratic nomination for United States senator, for the term beginning March 4, 1919, and in his slogan declares as his "trinity" that he proposes to "Uphold the administration; support our soldier boys; develop Oregon's resources."

"Unreservedly support President Wilson's war aims, and the administration in the reconstruction necessary after war for a greater democracy industrially and politically. Am for development of Oregon's unlimited resources; the protection of human and property rights, human rights first; for the best in the world for the boys in the trenches; and through federal aid for reclamation of all arid, swamp and logged-off lands, and for good roads and the improvement of the national parks. My record in legislature, on bench and in reclamation, service guarantees my promise."

The Zollners to Appear at Armory on April 1

Among the present day chamber music organizations the Zoellner quartet, which is to appear at the armory on the evening of April 1, in addition to its rare artistic merit, is unique in two notable respects—It is a family quartet, being composed of a father and his three children, a daughter and two sons; and the most of first violin which is filled by the charming daughter, Mlle. Antoinette, who sustains the onerous duties of this position with splendid breadth of tone, power of technic and rare interpretative insight. It is natural, therefore, that audiences center much friendly interest upon the work of this attractive young woman whose artistry has won such unstinted encomiums from press and musical critics.

Brown Answers Questions Put by Mr. Schulderman

Attorney General Brown has answered in the affirmative two questions put by State Corporation Commissioner Schulderman relative to the Livestock Brokerage company, Inc., of North Portland. The first question is whether the proposed plan of business establishes a relationship of trustee between the company and the certificate holders. The second question is whether the proposed plan creates a relationship that would require the company to comply with the Oregon trust act.

The company has filed with Schulderman an affidavit of exemption, claiming that it does not intend to deal in any stocks, bonds, notes, contracts or other securities except as shown in its application and certificate of investment. The articles of incorporation show that money is deposited with the company in trust.

The attorney general answers in the negative two questions put by Schulderman relative to the Suer-Davit syndicate of Portland. The first question is whether the syndicate unit plan proposed by W. H. Blevins, a representative of the form, establishes a relation of trustee and beneficiary between the syndicate and the syndicate unit holder. The second question is whether the pro-

Southern Pacific Answers Complaint of Shippers

That it is not practicable for the Southern Pacific and the Oregon Electric Railroad companies to make a through route on their lines by way of Jefferson street, Portland, or to establish joint rates, is the claim of the Southern Pacific company in answering a complaint brought before the public service commission by the Portland Traffic & Transportation company and the Oregon Portland Cement company. The plaintiffs have asked for the concessions so that competition with California shippers may be facilitated. The Oregon Electric, the Oregon Short Line, the Oregon-Washington Railroad & Navigation, the Spokane, Portland & Seattle and the Southern Pacific companies are made defendants in the action.

Indefinite Trend Marks Day on Stock Market

NEW YORK, March 30.—Aside from the strength of a few specialties, today's stock market manifested no definite trend until the final dealings, when standard issues, such as Union Pacific and Reading registered substantial gains, partly as a result of short covering.

Much of the day's negligible turnover was limited to equipments, motors and tobaccos, at extreme advances of one to two and a half points. Coppers also responded to a moderate inquiry.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody can Tell when you Darken Gray, Faded Hair with Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known down-town druggist says everybody uses Weyth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

State Rents Two Hundred Acres From Cliff Brown

For the use of the state penitentiary, the state has rented from Cliff Brown of Salem 200 acres of land between the penitentiary and the state hospital for the insane, and the tract will be sown to oats. About 120 acres of the land is in condition to be cultivated. A farm tractor recently purchased by the state will be used to plow the land.

Some Practical Gas Economies

- Too much Gas Just Enough
- We call to your attention the request of the Government that all fuels be used as sparingly as possible.
- The following are ways in which you can easily economize in gas.
- 1—Do not turn on as much Gas as the burners allow. It is very seldom desirable to use the full flow.
 - 2—When water in kettle or pot begins to boil, turn down the Gas. A very little Gas will maintain boiling point.
 - 3—When using the oven, cook as many foods as possible in the oven. A whole meal can be successfully cooked in the oven of your Gas Range.
 - 4—Heat only as much water as you need.
 - 5—Do not overheat your rooms. When a comfortable temperature has been reached—turn down the Gas.
 - 6—Keep your burners adjusted properly. A blue flame gives most heat and has the correct amount of air in it. Yellow flame wastes Gas.
