Big Arrivals Have Bearish Affect on Corn Market

ClifCAGO, April 1.-Burdensome arrivals of lowgrade corn had a bearich effect today on the corn market. Prices closed unsettled 5-8c net lower, with May $1.25 1-4. Oats finished 1 3-se to 1 5-8c off. The out come in provisions ranged from 20c decline to rise of five cents. Depression in the corn market developed in the main after cash dea!ings had shown that poor to rotten sample: had fallen in value 20 to 25 cents a locabel. Corn that was out of condition proved hard to sell even at the bottom figures reached which were the lowest so far on the 1917

Oats underwent a decided setback e account of icwering of bids from the seaboard. Provisions averaged lower as a result more or less of a falling off in shipments. Supplies of hogs in March exceeded all previous records for that menth.

NEW YORK, April 1. The quiet strength of today's stock market bespoke further confidence in a successful outcome of the titanic struggle still raging in France.

Traiding was again in very small volume, but investment shares held their ground in the main. The government's recent ruling on stock loans probably accounted for sporadic short covering among certain leaders, especially United States Steel which failed, however, to hold more than half of its one-point gain. Coppers were relatively more active than at any time in the last month, gains of one to one and a half points resulted from the small visible sup-Tobaccos, oils, Sinclair excepted utilities and some minor specialties scored gross gains of one to four points, but the motor group, especfally Studebaker, was at all times under pressure. Inquiry for rails were exceedingly light, but firmness prevailed in that division. Total sales amounted to 188,000 shares. Bonds, including th liberty issues, were irregular on light offerings; sales, par value, $4,625,000. United States bonds, old issues were unchanged on call.
