

TRIBUTE PAID J. P. ROGERS

Casket Is Covered With Robe of Lilies—Elks Ritual Is Read

A double file of members of the Elks lodge, over a block long, formed a body escort for the hearse cortege of J. P. Rogers, late president of the United States National bank, whose funeral was held yesterday at 2 o'clock from the Elks temple.

In continuance of the generous spirit of the late banker, the beautiful floral tributes were given a second mission. Masses of cut flowers were sent to shut-ins and some sick friends whom Mr. Rogers visited before his passing. Many bouquets were sent to hospitals. The emblematic and set pieces were placed on the graves of his Elks brothers in Odd Fellows cemetery.

The casket was entirely covered with a robe of white lilies, tied with purple ribbons. An embankment of wreaths and flowers in the lodge colors, purple and white, covered a side of the room. The impressive Elks' ritual was used at the services and Rev. Robert S. Gill read Episcopal rites. Walter E. Keyes, exalted ruler of the Elks, was in charge. Miss Ada Miller sang.

Following the funeral, the procession proceeded to the Oregon Electric depot. Nearly the entire membership of the Elks lodge accompanied the body to the depot and stood with heads uncovered for the last sad rites. The body was taken to Portland for cremation. The pall-bearers were David W. Eyre, E. W. Hazard, Frank Deckebach, James Wilson, Homer Smith and James Linn.

Territory Taken by Germans in France in Greatest Drive; Point From Which Shells May Have Been Shot Into Paris

In the latest and greatest drive of the Germans on the western front, the drive in which the Kaiser is probably staking his empire, he has been able to take considerable territory between Arras on the north and La Fere on the south. The map shows the possible location of the gun which is alleged to have shot from the German front into Paris, a distance of seventy miles. It also shows the distance from the sector where the heavy fighting has taken place to London, where it was said the guns used in the great battle were based.

CREEL AGAINST CENSORSHIP RULE

Declaration Made That America Does Not Have to Conceal Reverses

NEW YORK, April 4.—The committee on public information has taken part in "no activity which it is ashamed to reveal" and "has sent no dollar on a furtive errand," George Creel, chairman of the committee, declared in an address here tonight before the Economic club.

Speaking on "Public Opinion and the War," Mr. Creel asserted that his fight for public opinion is the business of the committee on public information and that he felt the "press is commencing to realize our honesty of purpose and the military experts are growing to have an increasing faith in the power of absolute frankness."

Referring to the committee's work in other lands, Mr. Creel said that "no paper is subsidized, no official is bought and no corruption is employed."

"From a thousand sources I am told of the wonder of German propaganda," he continued, "but my original determinations have never altered. Always I try to find out what the Germans are doing and then I don't do it. I have the conviction that corrupt methods work their own destruction. German propaganda failed, not because millions were not spent, but because honest, decent people inevitably turned against dishonesty and indecency."

Declaring that he did not favor the enactment of a censorship law, he said that "we do not have to conceal reverses, because we do not have to fear for the courage of America." He urged his audience to brand as lies rumors of disaster "and to publish the liar."

Michaelis Is Opposed to Indemnity in War

AMSTERDAM, April 4.—Dr. George Michaelis, former imperial chancellor, on leaving to assume his post of president of Pomerania, made an address at Berlin. He said:

"If I were ever responsible again for the government, I would decline to ask a war indemnity. Rather than see our people throw itself into the abyss of materialism, which would be the case if our war expenditures were defrayed by our enemies, we must teach our people to become simple, sober and economical."

"Our time of trial will not end with the termination of the war. Our misery will continue. We must bear it without murmuring. Poverty will be our lot."

GIRLS! HAVE WAVY, THICK, GLOSSY HAIR FREE FROM DANDRUFF

Save Your Hair! Double Its Beauty in a Few Moments—Try This!

If you care for heavy hair, that glistens with beauty and is radiant with life; has an incomparable softness and is fluffy and lustrous, try Danderine.

Just one application doubles the beauty of your hair, besides it immediately dissolves every particle of dandruff; you cannot have nice, heavy, healthy hair if you have dandruff. This destructive agent robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life, and if not overcome it produces a feverishness and itching of the scalp; the hair roots flourish, loosen and die; then the hair falls out fast.

If your hair has been neglected and is thin, faded, dry, scraggy or too oily, get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine at any drug store or toilet counter for a few cents; apply a little as directed and ten minutes after you will say this made.

We sincerely believe, regardless of everything else advertised, that if you desire soft, lustrous, beautiful hair and lots of it—no dandruff—no itching scalp and no more falling hair—you must use Knowlton's Danderine. If eventually—why not now?

erty will be our cook. We must admit we, too, are guilty for this war, not in a political sense, for the emperor tried to maintain peace to the last minute, but circumstances have brought us trials which threaten to make money the master of the day. We must save the country from a surrender to materialism."

Nine German Machines Shot Down on Sunday

LONDON, April 4.—The official statement on aviation issued by the war office tonight reads:

"Wednesday was again unfavorable for flying, but this did not prevent our airplanes from making several flights to reconnoiter the battle front and attack German targets with bombs and machine guns. One fight occurred during a clear interval between two very large formations of our own and enemy machines. Otherwise, hostile aircraft were not very active."

"Nine German machines were shot down, three were driven down out of control and one hostile balloon was destroyed. Five of our airplanes are missing."

LIBERTY LOAN BILL IS SIGNED

Bonds to Mature in Year 1928 Are Authorized by Legislation

WASHINGTON, April 4.—The legislative foundation for the third liberty loan was laid tonight when congress completed and President Wilson signed the bill authorizing the issuance of additional bonds at 4 1/2 per cent.

Earlier in the day the treasury announced that the bonds would mature in ten years, that the loan campaign, opening Saturday, will continue four weeks until May 4, and that after the initial payment of 5 per cent on subscription, installments of 20, 35 and 40 per cent would be due respectively on May 28, July 18 and August 15. The amount is $3,000,000,000, and over-subscriptions and the only remaining details of the bond bill by the treasury are the arrangements for conversion of bonds of the first and second loans into third liberty bonds.

Within an hour after President Wilson signed the bill, the first completed bond of the third liberty loan came from the press of the bureau of engraving and printing. It was a $50 "baby bond," and was laid aside by James L. Wilmeth, director of the bureau, for special disposition to be determined later. Forty thousand more bonds will be ready in the morning, 100,000 by Saturday, and thereafter they will be turned out at the rate of 500,000 a day.

Reports to the treasury today told of workers all over the country preparing for celebrations Saturday for the opening of the loan campaign and the anniversary of the entry of the United States into the war. The keynote for the big popular war credit, to be sounded by President Wilson in a speech at Baltimore and by Secretary McAdoo at Philadelphia, will be echoed by scores of other speakers at local meetings from coast to coast.

Adventists Look to Most Serious Hour of World

SAN FRANCISCO, April 4.—A. G. Daniels, W. A. Spicer and W. T. Knox, all of Washington, D. C., were re-elected today respectively president, secretary, and treasurer of the general conference of Seventh Day Adventists now in session here.

"I believe we are facing the most serious hour of the world and church have ever seen," Mr. Daniels said "and I look forward during the next four years to a time of stress and upheaval beyond anything experienced. We shall be taxed to the utmost of our wisdom, our valor and our strength."

When he completes his present term, President Daniels will have held the position 21 years. It is his fifth consecutive re-election as president of the conference.

E. E. Andross of Glendale, Cal., was elected vice president for North America of the general conference.

STOCK MARKET DAY LISTLESS

Excellent Prospects for Crops This Year Make Little Impression

NEW YORK, April 4.—The stock market experienced its fourth successive listless session today, after an early period which offered hope of a restoration of normal conditions. Trading lapsed soon after the opening, the monotony thereafter finding occasional relief in the movement of special issues.

Excellent crop prospects are indicated by the government's latest weather report, but this made little impression upon grangers and cotton carriers, neither manifesting the slightest animation.

Shipments were almost the only representative stocks with seasoned equipments to register more than moderate changes, the former making extreme gains of one to two and a half points and the latter one to two points.

Sumatra Tobacco made the new maximum of 98 3-4 for the current movement and related issues, including tobacco producers responding in material degree. Motors, oils, sugars and unclassified stocks were temporarily higher by one to three points, but United States Steel was sluggish, yielding all its fractional gain.

A spasmodic activity and strength in local utilities during the mid-session followed the decision of an Ohio court permitting an increase of fares in that state. Final quotations were in recessions of large fractions to a full point. Sales amounted to 228,000 shares.

Liberty second 4's at the wide range of 96.30 to 96.70 contributed mainly to the enlarged bond dealings. Domestic issues were irregular but international were fractionally higher. Total sales, par value, aggregated $7,150,000.

United States bonds, old issues, unchanged on call.
