

Prevention of Eye Strain

In the case of eyes, as in most other cases, prevention is desirable. Eye strain that has endured for any length of time is almost sure to have injured the eyes more or less—and to have caused a lot of annoyance to the patient. Be far-sighted and consult us at once. We will give you our best attention, as our equipment is complete.

Misstatement Corrected—

An item in The Statesman of Tuesday with regard to the receipt of materials at the Red Cross work room caused some misunderstanding. The paragraph should have stated specifically that a large shipment of gauze bandage material had been received at the rooms in the postoffice—not general materials for war articles at the headquarters. A large shipment of muslin and outing flannel is on the way. When this arrives work will be begun on a list of seven articles as follows: Panama suits, bed jackets, bed shirts, helpless case shirts, convalescent shirts, underwear and bath robes. It is requested that seven boxes a month be made up of these articles, this order superseding all other allotments.

At The Court House—

Petition was filed by Millie B. Morse, asking for a monthly allowance of $75 per month from the estate. The last will and testament of Henry B. Morse, deceased, showed a disposition of a number of old and very valuable heirlooms to different members of the family. The entire balance of real and personal property was left to his widow. The estate is estimated to be valued at $47,500. The executor requested that the court appoint C. P. Bishop, Russell Catlin and James Baumgartner as appraisers. In the case of W. B. McKowan, administrator of the estate of Joseph Forster, against J. T. Kearns et al, a writ of execution was issued for the sum of $1121 and costs on judgment rendered to defendant June 1, 1917.

Editor's White Leghorns Lead—

The report from the all north-west laying contest for March gives single comb White Leghorns, number 251, owned by C. F. Williams, editor of the Northwest Poultry Journal, first place over all the other fowls. Of practically every known breed, Mr. Williams' hen has laid to date 132 eggs since November 1 when the contest began, or 151 days; in other words she missed only nineteen days in all that time. His pen of five birds has held first place twice and now leads all Leghorns.

To Halt Contagious Diseases—

In view of the possibility of contagious diseases being carried by selected and enlisted men from their communities into camp, the surgeon general has issued a request to all local physicians to keep a close watch upon all such men who have been exposed to communicable diseases, and make immediate reports, through the local health officer, to the senior medical officer of the camp to which the recruit is about to go.

Soldier's Funeral Friday—

DIED

GILL—In Salem, Tuesday, April 16, 1918, Mrs. Margaret A. Gill, who was 85 years old.

She has two grandsons, Whitney and Eugene Gill, two former Salem high school boys, who are in the army in France. Mrs. Gill had been in bed for only a week, although she had been failing since a fall some time ago. Her daughter-in-law, Mrs. George W. Gill, was recently seriously injured in an automobile accident. The deceased made her home with her son, George Gill, 128 South Cottage street.

In sixteen days, Mrs. Gill would have been 86 years old. She was a native of the state of Indiana. Eighteen years ago, she came to Salem from Eugene and has lived here continuously since.

The funeral will be held this morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Webb Clough chapel. Rev. F. T. Porter will conduct the services. The body will be taken on the 10:50 Southern Pacific train to Eugene, for burial.

Pomona Grange Will Hold

Meeting at Fair Grounds

Business and sociability will be combined at the meeting of Pomona Grange which is to be held at the fair grounds today. As it is the regular quarterly meeting, the morning session will be devoted to business matters, including arrangements for the state grange to be held here in June. There will be a basket dinner at noon, and in the afternoon, at the Woodman headquarters, there will be a special program of much interest.

Minnesota Pledge to Take Vote of Soldiers

ST. PAUL, MINN., April 16.—Pledging itself to the early adoption of an order providing for taking the soldier vote by mail, the Minnesota public safety commission today ordered printed 200,000 applications for ballots for distribution among the soldiers in the service. Whether the franchise will be extended also to the men in service in France will be determined later.

GERMAN PRIZE IS VALUELESS

Frankfurter-Zeitung Envoy Says Ukraina Presents Dismal Prospect

WASHINGTON, April 15.—From a special envoy of the Frankfurter Zeitung, sent into Ukraina to report upon the economic outlook, the Germans have received a rather dismal picture of what they thought was a great prize when they broke this province away from Russia.

An official dispatch from France today gives this account of the Zeitung's report:

"The correspondent says that the hopes which the central powers could place in the Ukraine as a counterpart to the aid which was lent her against the Bolsheviks are lessened by the study of the situation. In the silos on the granages there is at present no available supply. The correspondent reveals that as a result of the dispossession of these large proprietors even where plantings were made there is no prospect of a harvest being reaped.

"There is said to be more drunkenness than ever throughout the country and a large amount of agricultural lands have been destroyed, through an uprising of the peasants which has been going on since January. In a single large estate the loss is valued at over 40,000,000 rubles. These large estates are the ones which formerly did the bulk of the exporting. The sugar industry is practically ruined."

County Treasurer Held to Act in Ex-Officio Capacity

Under section 12, chapter 357, Laws of 1917, county treasurers are ex-officio treasurers of irrigation districts in their respective counties, according to a ruling of Attorney General Brown in response to a question from District Attorney Bert C. Boylan of Madras. The opinion holds that the treasurer of the Suttles Lake Irrigation district, elected under section 3, chapter 189, Laws of 1915, is succeeded by the county treasurer under the later law, and that funds in the hands of the district treasurer should be transferred to the county treasurer.

The SPINAL CORD

Carries the messages from the brain to all parts of the body. These messages tell each part of the body how to perform its functions.

If this line of communication (the spinal cord) be interfered with, the messages do not reach their destination and that part of the body does not function normally. This is called disease. Pressure of a vertebra on the spinal cord produces this result. Chiropractic remove this pressure and health is the result.
