Red Cross Against Raffles—One does not like to believe it possible that the Red Cross name would ever be used as a means for mercenary purposes, but such cases have come to light in some parts of the country. Hence the recent ruling from headquarters putting a ban on the advertising of benefits and entertainments where a portion of the funds are to be donated to the Red Cross. It is very possible for projectors of entertainments to so advertise a feature, and having no check upon the receipts and disbursements, divert a large share, if not the bigger share of the proceeds to their own pockets. Another method of raising funds for the Red Cross which is looked upon with aversion by the division office is the common raffle. There is a question as to the legality of raffles in general, and the division officers strongly advise against them.

Parents' Club Called—The members of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Parents' club are requested to meet at the Commercial club auditorium tomorrow (Friday) afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, to proceed in a body to the First M. Cavalry Enlistment Resumed—Vernon Murphy, 19, from Falls City, recently enlisted for the quartermaster's department. Also L. Plummer of Seaside, enlisted as a fireman; and Edwin C. Davis of Albany, 19, enlisted for the hospital corps in the United States navy. The adjutant general has sent to the army recruiting office notice that enlistments for the cavalry branch, which have been closed for some weeks, will be reopened until further notice.

Final Filings of Candidates—The following candidates filed their petitions at the city recorder's office yesterday: H. L. Clark, candidate for alderman in the seventh ward; Floyd L. Utter, alderman for the second ward; H. H. Vandervert, alderman for the third ward; Ed. Schunke, alderman for the fifth ward; Merlin Harding, alderman for the fifth ward; B. E. Edwards, alderman for the third ward; J. S. Austin, alderman for third ward.

Thousands of Articles Shipped—The following figures from the Red Cross headquarters give an idea of the amount of material and made-up articles passing through this city through the medium of the local chapter and its auxiliaries in the county: There have been shipped out this week nineteen boxes, ten of them containing surgical dressings and nine containing hospital supplies. This makes a total of 179 boxes shipped by the chapter, forty of them containing surgical dressings and the balance hospital supplies. These comprised 14,421 articles. The total number of articles made up to date is 175,758, representing an inconceivable amount of work for women's fingers.

Cupid Was a Joker—The little winged god always betrayed a streak of humor in the business of love and matrimony, and it came to the surface in the case of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Tuel of this city, who by a slight oversight were led to spend seven years in complacent union without being in a technical sense married at all. It appears that when the minister performed the usual ceremony for them in the year 1911 he failed to have the proper record made out in the register at the clerk's office, and only recently this error was discovered and there was nothing to be done but to have the ceremony performed a second time and the records straightened out.

From the Court House—In the case of T. A. Livesley & Co. against Frank Lyniff, an order was issued giving the plaintiffs possession of fifty-six bales of hops which were the basis of the surgical decree of divorce was issued to Rose E. Bilyeu, separating her from Sterling F. Bilyeu, the former to be allowed alimony of $10 per month and the custody of three children. In the case of Ethel Blenton against the guardian of Edna and Freddie Wintermantel, minors, a final decree was issued ordering the partition of several parcels of real estate. An inventory and appraisal of the estate of Angie Kaiser, deceased, was filed showing value of real and personal property to the amount of $17,181.10. Petition filed asking for the sale of real property in the estate of Thomas C. Sloper, deceased. Order issued admitting to probate the last will and testament of Ernest W. Hoffman and appointing Fred Kiel as executor.

country are trying to spread injurious propaganda about England. They are telling you that England is about to collapse. I want to say that is a damned lie and that sentiment in my country is aroused to the pitch that not a man, woman or child of us will be left alive if Germany wins the war. Many things that are unfair have been said about the British nation. It has been said that England will fight until the last Frenchman is dead, and that England expects every Frenchman to do his duty, but

ORATORS WILL GO TO EUGENE
Miss Faye Boin to Represent Willamette University as Speaker
The intercollegiate prohibition association contest will be held in Eugene on April 19. At the meeting new plans for the coming year will be formulated and new officers will be elected. Reports of the various leagues of the association will be read. At the afternoon session Professor Varney, of McMinnville college will give an address. He will talk on the work of the colleges during the war in connection with prohibition work. The orators and the subjects of their orations are as follows: "The Time to Strike," Mary Pennington, Pacific college; "For the Defense of the Present and the Safety of the Future," C. J. Benny, Eugene Bible university; "The Test of Honor," Willamette university, Miss Faye Boin; "The Will to Victory," Clyde Thurston, University of Oregon; "A New Birth of Freedom," Frederick Parkes, of McMinnville college.

LADIES! DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR
Use Grandma's Sage Tea and Sulphur Recipe and Nobody Will Know

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect.
But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.
A well-known down town druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy.
Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

Ricket Funeral Today—The funeral of the late J. S. Ricket, who died at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday night at the age of 86 years, will be held this afternoon from his late residence, seven miles north of Salem. Burial will be in Claggett cemetery.

Candidate at Albany—Joseph E. Wright, who formerly studied law with his brother, G. W. Wright, in this city, and who served in the Rough Riders and in the Philippines in the Spanish-American war, is now a candidate for city marshal of Salem. Mr. Wright is now desk sergeant of the police department of Salem. His many friends and relatives in this city wish him success.—Albany Herald.

from the first, England, as the United States is doing now, has been doing her damndest."
The early days of the war when England was unprepared with its little army of 200,000 men, were described by the speaker. But he drew cheers for England from the audience when he described how ten times the number of Germans had been held at bay. British patriotism that has caused a marvelous growth in the army was lauded by the speaker.

"The awful pruning the British army has had at the hands of the Germans will make a better army of it, and the same thing may happen to your army."
Speaking of the use of gas by the Germans at Ypres, Lieutenant Macquarrie said:
"Fumes arose and spread over No Man's Land, finally lowering into the trenches of the allies. Soldiers breathed it and died slowly. It takes three hours of agony before death comes to a man who has been gassed. And then came the Huns, and rushed over the bodies of our dying men. That is the type of persons we are fighting."

Touching on the liberty loan, the speaker said:
"A great many people have the mistaken idea that the uniformed men who go to fight are the chief weapons of a nation. That is wrong—all wrong. You at home are the ones who must be depended upon chiefly. You are the steady stream that flows steadily on. We are nothing but the little boats floated by that stream. You must support the boys and support them well, and when they return you must have a victory to show them even as they will have a victory to show you."

Norlyn P. Hoff Is Out of Hospital in France

Corporal Norlyn P. Hoff, son of State Labor Commissioner Hoff, has written his father that he has been discharged from a military hospital in France and that he expects to be sent back to duty, though it will probably not be in a strenuous capacity. Young Hoff, who is with a regiment of railway engineers, was injured several weeks ago in a fall, breaking a hip and two ribs. State Printer A. W. Lawrence has received a letter from William Bone a former employe of the state printing department, saying that he has arrived overseas.

State Grange Convention for Salem Is Postponed
