INTERESTING AND HOPEFUL

Here are two paragraphs from the current number of the American Economist, both of which should be interesting and hopeful reading for all Americans, and especially for all Republicans: "The free trade majority in the United States Senate is now 8. Only a short time ago it was 12. About the fourth of next March we hope to be able to welcome a good-sized majority of protectionists in each branch of Congress, and then to do all in our power to hasten the earliest possible enactment of an adequately protective tariff."

Demanding that Germany take her war indemnities, when the German peace comes, in the shape of raw materials for her manufactures and agricultural and dairy interests during a period of years, Prince du Loewenstein Wertheim Freudenburg mentions every enemy of the central powers for this form of spoliation except the United States. England must supply tin and her colonies cattle, leather, wool and copper; France must supply oils and wines; Italy, sulphur, silk and hemp, and Russia, grain, leather, flax and platinum.

The allied lines were holding hard yesterday along the entire western front; even in one stretch of ten miles where the Germans were using a division to each mile in a frantic endeavor to break through; and heavy losses were the net results for the forces of autocecity, wherever they struck the impregnable line.

"They shall not pass," the slogan of the battle of the Marne, is again the battle cry of democracy on the western front. The lines will remain unbroken. Berlin is growing tame. A member of the Reichstag wants an agreement to not bombard open towns.

As the struggle nears its end, there may be "civilized warfare." Fateful hours, these, in the history of nations. A resolution has been introduced in congress to eliminate "pairs." The next revolutionary proposition will be to put an end to three of a kind and to resolve that a sequence is mentally and morally inferior to a bob-tail flush.—Los Angeles Times.

mumified organization of the few to a virile, active institution of the many. That sounds all right. That is the kind of a Republican party that we need in Oregon. FOR HOMESICKNESS. The reports from France show that a soldier, Private George Arnett, has died of nostalgia. That is the medical term for homesickness, a disease recognized by the medical profession and as more than a state of mind. The boy died in France, far away from his land and the home for which he longed. Keep writing the boys at the front.

There is no rank in sacrifice," said Josephus Daniels, secretary of the navy, to a Baltimore audience. He illustrated it by saying that he had that day named the latest destroyer the Ingham—"not in memory of an admiral, a general, or a citizen or an official well known throughout the nation, but in memory of a gunner's mate, first-class, who paid the supreme sacrifice to save his ship." William H. Anderson, superintendent of the anti-saloon league in New York state, charges William J. Bryan with using the prohibition movement as a stepping stone from which to further his own political ambitions for 1920. Mr. Bryan need not have been at pains to repudiate so poorly considered a charge. It is unjust to assail Mr. Bryan's sincerity in any aspect of his life-long support of the temperance cause. Bruce Dennis of La Grands is a candidate for Republican national committee man. He says: "I ask your support that you and I may have a Republican party that is thoroughly progressive, thoroughly sincere, thus changing it from a lifeless,

Effort Is Made to Adjust Interstate Differences

A stipulation prepared by the attorney general of Washington state pertaining to interstate irrigation rights on the east branch of Mud creek, Umatilla county, has been filed at the office of State Engineer Lewis by Marvin Chase, Washington state hydraulic engineer.

A total of 182 acres of Washington land is involved in the controversy on which is claimed a priority of rights over Oregon land which has decreed water rights. The object of the stipulation is to cause administrative authorities to deny to Oregon water users 3.5 second feet of water so that it may be diverted to the use of holders of prior rights in Washington. "My opinion," said State Engineer Lewis yesterday, "is that priority of rights will prevail and can ultimately be enforced by the federal courts regardless of state lines, but under present law the stipulation can not be signed as requested. I am forwarding the stipulation to Water Superintendent Cochran at La Grande with the recommendation that the water users interested be urged to sign the stipulation as a means of averting interstate litigation. The matter can be settled only by mutual consent of the interested persons."

Service Revised for Two Small Telephone Companies

An order of the public service commission yesterday relative to a revision of rates, service and practices of the Waldport Telephone company and the Yachats Telephone company establishes for both a 14-hour daily service instead of the 8-hour service which has prevailed in the past. So that operators may be employed according to the requirements of the industrial welfare commission an increase of 25 cents for each phone monthly in exchange rentals is authorized to provide the additional hours. Long distance toll charges from Waldport to Newport are fixed by the order at 15 cents for the first two minutes and 5 cents for each additional minute. Under the former tariff 25 cents was charged for each conversation over the route. A higher rate is assessed against business houses than against residence. One provision of the order requires the companies to own or rent all instruments, making it impossible for patrons to use the service without the necessity of investing permanently in the equipment.

Authority to Construct Grade Crossings Allowed

The public service commission yesterday issued an order granting to the H. E. Noble Lumber company authority to run a logging road at grade across a highway near Holiday station on the line of the Spokane, Portland & Seattle Railway company. It is required that all trains or engines shall be brought to a full stop within 100 feet of the county road before proceeding over the crossing, and that in addition to the advance warning signs provided by law the company shall put in standard cross warning signs and whistling posts at the proper places on the right of way. Under similar terms the commission grants to the California Barrell company authority to construct a grade crossing over a county road in section 35, township 7, Clatsop county.

Remark Attributed to Schulderman Is Refuted

State Corporation Commissioner H. J. Schulderman yesterday gave out a statement in refutation of an article in the Portland Journal of April 18 in which it was stated that Schulderman had remarked to a liberty bond solicitor that "it isn't any of the public's business whether I buy liberty bonds or not." Schulderman declares his loyalty and shows "that he holds liberty bonds, is a buyer of thrift stamps, that his only son is a member of the Junior Regiment and that his wife is actively engaged in Red Cross work. Mr. Schulderman's statement is substantiated by an accompanying statement from State Treasurer Kay, member of a special committee soliciting subscriptions for liberty bonds and which has investigated a number of local cases in which disloyalty was charged.

Juice of Lemons! How to Make Skin White and Beautiful!

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quart pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orchard white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as sallowness, freckles and tan and is the ideal skin softener, smoothenor and beautifier. Just try it! Get three ounces of orchard white at any pharmacy and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quart pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It naturally should help to soften, freshen, bleach and bring out the roses and beauty of any skin. It is wonderful to smoothen rough, red hands.

and will march to the church. The body will lie in state until 1:30 o'clock at the Rigdon funeral parlors. It will then be taken to the church, where it will remain until the services at 3 o'clock. Rev. Richard N. Avison will be in charge and burial will be in Odd Fellows cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. James McClelland are the parents of the soldier.

COOKE PATTON WEARING GRIN

Everything Going Fine for Cherrian Performance on Near Dates. E. Cooke Patton's coyote grin is more cunning than ever. The reason is that he has been in Portland where he commandeered a lot of costumes and other stuff for the Cherrian minstrel performance which is to be on in Salem two nights—April 23 and 24, to be specific. Tickets will be on sale at the Opera House pharmacy next Monday morning. E. Cooke has worked up his own part of the performance to a fearful and wonderful degree and will do things that no mortal ever dared believe possible. He defies all the laws of nature and some of the laws of the land—sometimes—does E. Cooke P. He's the guy that put the wiz in wizard.

John W. Todd, who is in charge of chorus work for the show, has his troupe all prepared and all that remains to be done is the white glove work—in other words he will merely have to keep them in a polished state until the night of the first show. Popular patriotic selections will have a prominent place on the card. Clancy, boss of the decorating brigade, has his work well in hand and the adornments of the stage on the two show nights will surpass anything ever seen in Salem, the which is saying a mouthful. Charley Knowland, head guy on the arrangements committee and himself one of the main players, is tickled to death about the thing and anticipates a S. R. O. crowd. Another rehearsal will be held tonight.

Next Surgical Dressings Shipment Goes Tomorrow

Completing an allotment of sixteen boxes of surgical dressings, the local Red Cross will ship eleven boxes tomorrow. In addition to these the workrooms had already prepared five boxes, making twenty-one in all turned out the first month under the new specifications. This is an unusually large shipment and contains 600 irrigation pads, 475 absorbent pads 8x12 inches, 324 absorbent pads 12x24 inches, and 409 Under the old allotment only compresses and gauze strips were made before.

During the past ten days the attendance at the surgical dressings department has shown a marked increase. The thirty-five young women in the evening class are putting in two nights this week instead of one in order to aid in getting the boxes off on time.

The pastor of the Catholic church extends a cordial welcome to everyone to this mass, when the first blessing of the young Levites will be given. There will be special music and a sermon by the Rev. Step Lively! Corns Quit with "Gets-It"

The Great Corn-Loosener of the Age. Never Fails. Painless. Watch my step? What's the use? I go along "right side up without care," even with corns, because I use "Gets-It," the painless, off-lice-a-bana-peel-corn remover. I tried other ways galore, until I was blue in the face and red in the toes. No more for me. Use "Gets-It." It never fails. Touch any corn or callus with two drops of "Gets-It" and "Gets-It" does the rest. It's a relief to be able to step cutting corns, making them bleed, wrapping them up like packages and using sticky tape and alvax. It removes any corn clear and clean, leaving the toe as smooth as your palm. You can wear those new shoes without pain, dance and be frisky on your feet. It's great to use "Gets-It."
