

WRIGLEY'S

Six reasons

WHY it's a good friend:

- 1 — Steadies nerves
- 2 — Allays thirst
- 3 — Aids appetite
- 4 — Helps digestion
- 5 — Keeps teeth clean
- 6 — It's economical

Keep the soldiers and sailors supplied!

Three Flavors

Chew it after every meal

The Flavor Lasts!

REGIMENT OF HUNS HELD BY PERSHING

(Continued from page 1)

$60,985,000, of which approximately $4,210,250,000 will be raised by taxation, leaving a balance of nearly $10,650,735,000 to be borrowed.

Subjects To Be Discussed Today in Rural Schools

Following is the suggested program as arranged for today in the schedule of agricultural and Rural Life week:

9:00-9:15—Opening exercises.
9:15-9:40—Primary reading. Study and memorize "Plow Deep." Give preparation and clearing up of words for tomorrow.
9:40-10:05—Intermediate reading. Selections from Riley, Burroughs, Muir, etc.
10:05-10:30—Advanced reading. Girls, "Care of Food in the Home;" Boys, Agricultural Bulletin, Club Bulletin, Farm Papers, etc.
10:45-11:05—Primary numbers. Songs.
11:05-11:25—Intermediate arithmetic. Food problems 6 to 10.
11:25-11:45—Advanced arithmetic. Girls, problems above; boys, problems of farm survey.
11:45-12:00—Penmanship, farm mottoes.

Noon.
1:00-1:20—Spelling. Words relating to farm animals.

1:20-1:45—Primary language. Dramatization of story told yesterday.

1:45-2:15—Intermediate and advanced language. Preparation of work outlined yesterday.

2:15-2:30—Singing. Recession.

2:45-3:10—Primary nature study.

3:10-3:35—Intermediate. Oregon or Marion county geography. Have children make booklets in form of map of Oregon or Marion county showing on different pages physical features, products, etc.

3:35-4:00—Advanced. Experiments dealing with seeds and seed testing. See Bulletin, 948.

POPULAR POET OF COAST DIES

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 22.—James Barton Adams, newspaper man and "poet" poet died at his home here today aged 76, of pneumonia.

Notwithstanding his weight of years, Mr. Adams last year volunteered his services to the government as army post telegrapher here and for several months past has worked daily in that capacity. His newspaper work was mostly done in former days at Denver, where he acquired a nation-wide reputation as a versifier. He came to the Pacific coast two years ago for the benefit of his health. Notwithstanding his heavy duties as army post telegrapher, he kept up his verse writing until stricken a few days ago and his last "prove-verse"—one on a patriotic theme—appeared in a Portland newspaper this morning.

BIG BILL WILL ALSO BE SEEN IN HIS LATEST PHOToplay

"THE TIGER MAN"

LAST TIME TONIGHT

STARTING TOMORROW

Dorothy Dalton

In "LOVE ME"

The OREGON

CHERRIAN SHOW TONIGHT'S BILL

Comic Parade Scheduled for Noon Hour—Tickets Sell Rapidly

FULL MINSTREL CAST

Director, John W. Todd. Interlocutor, Dr. H. E. Epley. Soloists: John W. Todd, John Traeger, Albert Gillie, O. A. Macy.

Endmen: Rufe White, Billy Lerchen, Chas. Knowland, Lew Springer.

Chorus: John W. Todd, William McGilchrist, Jr., J. Frank Hughes, J. W. Humphreys, Frank De Witte, C. S. Piper, A. R. Miller, Ivan Martin, Elmer Dause, H. W. Bross, Dr. H. C. Epley, John Traeger, Frank W. Durbin, C. E. Albin, O. A. Macy, Albert H. Gillie, Dan Langenberg, A. A. Guffroy, A. L. Wallace and F. S. Barton.

Today is the day. Do not miss the Cherrian minstrel comic parade at noon.

Tonight and tomorrow nights are the nights for the big Cherrian minstrel performances. Get your tickets early and avoid the rush.

The sale of tickets at the Opera House drugstore yesterday gave evidence of big audiences for both performances, so, if you intend getting good seats, you had better not delay in securing your tickets. Five boxes for the first performance have already been sold to Governor Whiteman, D. J. Fry, R. C. Bishop, F. W. Steusloff and T. B. Kay.

At both the full orchestra rehearsal at the Elk's hall, Sunday afternoon and the dress rehearsal last night wonderful improvement was marked in both solo and chorus singing, and the endmen certainly have some joke stunts that will bring down the house. "Doc" Epley, the interlocutor, is also "there with bells" and he is loaded to the guards for anything that the four funny endmen try to pull off.

Director John W. Todd is highly elated over the improvement of all of the voices, especially in the chorus work and he predicts that the show will be the biggest success of its kind ever put on in the Cherry City. The patriotic songs, of which there is a generous portion, of both comedy and sentimental compositions of the latest to be had, will more than fulfill every expectation on the part of the audiences, and the funny work of the endmen will elicit no end of side splitting laughter from start to finish.

Besides the minstrel show, which will open the performance, there will be several special features, including the surprises which "Billy" Lerchen picked up on his travels over the state and signed especially for the occasion and the mysterious black-face monologist, who will keep the audience in continual roar of laughter in his monologue under the title of a "Confidential Chat." His stunt is strictly original with him and it will be well worth the price of admission to the whole show.

Last, but by no means the least, will be E. Cooke Patton in his entirely new and amazing conjuring act which he has spent weeks in working up and rehearsing and which will open the eyes of the public to things hitherto undreamed of in the line of mystic art and legerdemain. Cooke is a past master in the art of conjuring the spooks and his entertainment under the title of a "Night in Spookville" is surely a wonder and will set his auditors to wondering in the world it can be done. His cabinet, built especially for this performance, with its paraphernalia and equipment, including beautiful and entrancing electrical effects, have been provided at great expense but Cooke does not care for the expense when he starts in to do something and the public may be sure that it will be done right.

The costuming of the principal characters has been imported especially for this performance by Cooke Patton, Dr. Epley and Charles Knowland, of the committee, and the decorations, furnished and arranged under the direction of C. B. Clancy are very elaborate and beautiful—nothing like it in Salem before. The parade, at noon today, will furnish oodles of fun for the spectators and A. L. Wallace, Elmer Dause and Paul Stege of the parade committee have spared no pains nor expense to make it a big success. Don't miss it.

As the entire proceeds of the two performances, tonight and tomorrow night go to Willamette Chapter of the Red Cross, nobody should fail to attend at least one of these performances. Let everybody go.

LEMONS WHITEN AND BEAUTIFY THE SKIN

Make This Beauty Lotion Cheaply for Your Face, Neck, Arms and Hands.

At the cost of a small jar of ordinary cold cream one can prepare a full quarter pint of the most wonderful lemon skin softener and complexion beautifier, by squeezing the juice of two fresh lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of orange white. Care should be taken to strain the juice through a fine cloth so no lemon pulp gets in, then this lotion will keep fresh for months. Every woman knows that lemon juice is used to bleach and remove such blemishes as freckles, sallowiness and tan and is the ideal skin softener, whitener and beautifier.

Just try it. Get three ounces of orange white at any drug store and two lemons from the grocer and make up a quarter pint of this sweetly fragrant lemon lotion and massage it daily into the face, neck, arms and hands. It is marvelous to smoothen rough, red hands.

ASK GOVERNORS TO MAKE FRIDAY STATE HOLIDAY

Object Is to Aid Liberty Loan Celebrations Throughout Country

HALF OF MONEY RAISED

McAdoo Makes Special Request That Appropriate Ceremonies Be Held

WASHINGTON, April 22.—(Lead day loan)—All governors were asked today by Secretary McAdoo to declare next Friday a state legal holiday, as President Wilson has proclaimed it a national holiday to aid the liberty day celebrations by which it is hoped to boost sales of liberty bonds well along toward the $3,000,000,000

Just as the nation's offerings of liberty dollars passed $1,500,000,000 today, the St. Louis and Minneapolis federal reserve district managers sent word that they had exceeded their subscriptions of $130,000,000 and $105,000,000, respectively.

The Minneapolis district record is considered particularly remarkable, considering that it started its canvass just a week ago today. Official reports tonight the St. Louis district had subscribed only 93 percent of its quota and Minneapolis 59 percent.

If April 26 cannot be made a legal holiday," Mr. McAdoo asked the governors, "will you not urge that stores and all public places be closed on the afternoon of that day and that the people in the cities, towns and country districts join in appropriate ceremonies?"

"I have requested the organizations cooperating in the liberty loan campaign to do everything in their power to encourage patriotic demonstrations on that day and to promote the success of the liberty loan. May I not also suggest that in your proclamation you request the mayors and other local governing authorities to make it a special point to cooperate in their several localities to celebrate liberty day?"

To promote liberty day Secretary Daniels today abandoned plans for making Wednesday a special navy liberty loan day. He sent a radio message to all ships, shore stations and naval camps all over the world, suggesting rallies and the gathering of subscriptions Friday.

"Let us all pull together and by our subscriptions on that day indicate to the world that we are solidly behind our commander in chief and that in neither life nor fortune does the navy place any limit upon its support of the nation's cause."

Official reports tonight to the treasury, covering business up to this morning, gave the total of loan subscriptions as $1,490,555,500, but officials said it was certain that reports to be filed later tonight, reporting far beyond $1,500,000,000.

Let us all pull together and by our subscriptions on that day indicate to the world that we are solidly behind our commander in chief and that in neither life nor fortune does the navy place any limit upon its support of the nation's cause."

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Senator Fletcher admitted that there had been mistakes and delays in war preparations but asserted that they were comparatively negligible and the whole record praiseworthy.

Both he and Senator Shields dismissed as unworthy of discussion the contention that the president might abuse the broad powers given him under the bill.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.

Because President Lincoln is said to have exceeded his authority to meet an emergency, Senator Shields said, was no reason why ample authority should not be given the executive now.