SPRING AILMENTS

Relieved by a Good Medicine—Forty Years of Success. People still take Hood's Sarsaparilla because it is an old family friend, has proved its merit to three generations—in purifying and enriching the blood, expelling humors, restoring appetite, relieving rheumatism, and banishing that tired feeling so common at this time of year. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the standard Spring medicine, blood purifier and general tonic. It originated in a well-known Boston physician's successful prescription, and combines medicinal roots, barks, herbs and berries such as are often prescribed for ailments of the blood, stomach, liver and kidneys. Buy it in the game style packages as that in which your mother bought it.—same good formula, same fine appearance, same pleasant taste, same certainty of good results. Your druggist knows how much satisfaction this good medicine has given.
