SHARP ADVANCE
MADE IN CORN
Announcement of Food Administration Leads to Change in Market

CHICAGO, April 23.—Announcement of the food administration would recommend cancelling the embargo on eastbound shipments of grain led to a sharp advance today in the value of corn. Prices closed strong, 1-8 to 1-4 to 5-8c net higher with May $1.27 1-4 and July $1.49 1-8 to $1.49 3-4. Oats gained 3-4 to 7-8 to 1-1-8 and provisions 35 to 47 to 50 cents.
Prospects of embargo removal more than offset everything bearish regarding corn. As a result prices scored a swift advance after a decline which had followed the opening. Activity on the part of the New York and Boston export, interest had much to do with the upward swing of the oats market.
Liberal exports and the fact that lard shipments were materially in excess of last year hoisted provisions.

THE COLDEST WINTER.
Edith Wharton, the novelist, is doing war work of all kinds in France, and at a Paris dinner, apropos of the coal shortage, she said: "Well, let us be glad, anyhow, that a French winter is not like a New England one. Let us comfort ourselves as we bend shivering over chili radiators, with the weirdest stories of New England cold."
"I know an aged New Englander who, called round the stove in the general store at Croydon Four Corners, talks about the cold in this fashion: 'Cold' shucks, you young fellows don't know what cold is!
Take the winter of '67 now. That ya bad cold. Why, in '67 it was so blamed cold that if ye reaved a pot of blin' water out of doors it cracked like a gun. Yen, and live coals friz solid in four minutes' time. But the queerest thing of all was the way yer conversation would actually freeze up before it could be heard.
Us boys used to have a practical joke we'd often play on strangers. We'd slip up and put a couple of armfuls of frozen shrieks and growls and cusses in the stove unbeknownst, and as they thawed out they'd yell and carry on like demons, and we'd have a good laugh at the strangers', expense, they bein' mighty skeert."

"ALWAYS THE TRUTH."
Salvatore Cirigliano, the distinguished newspaper merchant of the Park Row Building, went to Woodstock, Md., last week to see the ordination of his brother Dominico as a Jesuit priest. He took his little boy with him. At the close of the ceremony the child proceeded with the others to kiss the ring of Cardinal Gibbons.
"What is your name?" inquired
"Antonio Cirigliano, sir."
"Ah, the nephew of Father Domini-co. And how old are you?" pursued the cardinal.
"I was four and half on the train most excited person present was the sister of a young mother who had just presented her husband with twins.

"What is your name?" inquired
"Antonio Cirigliano, sir."
co. And how old are you?" pursued
the cardinal.
