ALL SIGNS POINT TO WITHYCOMBE VICTORY

(Oregon City Enterprise)

With the primary election close at hand all surface indications that are ascertainable point to the renomination of Oregon's Republican Governor, James Withycombe. For several weeeks sentiment has been drifting decidedly toward Governor Withycombe.

Until recently voters were not disposed to talk politics, as the war has been and will continue to be the all-absorbing topic. The hearts of Oregonians are with the boys in uniform, and this is one of many reasons why Governor Withycombe appears certain to be renominated and re-elected by a margin that promises to be even more overwhelming than his own record-breaking triumph four

The people of Oregon know well enough that Governor Withybe's record as a war Governor is second to none in the United States and that the example and inspiration of his constant leadership are represented in the achievements which have been recorded one after another by this state. Furthermore, all Oregonians know that Governor Withycombe's heart will remain true blue in all patriotic issues and that he will continue to give the very best that is in him to every duty, every trust, every responsibility. As only one of the many guarantees that this confidence is merited Governor Withycombe's own son is in the service, having enlisted many months ago as a private. Governor Withycombe has five rivals facing him for the Republican nomination, who must divide the opposition vote, and the desperate straits in which these politicians find themselves, illuses perhaps as well as anything else the success of the Withy-be administration. Not one of the opposing candidates is able out out anything wrong about the Withycombe administration they are, consequently, extremely "hard put" for an issue, y are merely promising to do the things which Governor Withye is already accomplishing, therefore their glittering phrases are falling on deaf ears.

Governor Withycombe, in official as well as private life, has always stood for a cleaner and greater Oregon.

Democratic Advice. Editor Statesman:

Can you tell me, please, why our evening Democratic paper, the Capi-tal Journal, is so viciously and unjustifiabley attacking our present executive Governor Withycombe? Is it because the editor of the Democratic sheet realizes the great strength which our governor has before the people, that he restorts to abuse, misrepresentation and falsehood in a vain effort to undermine him at the approaching primaries? Possibly he thinks by his vilification he can influence a few Republicans to withdraw their support from Governor Withycombe and vote for a weaker candidate with a view by some hook or crook of electing the Democratic nomince. Such a transparent game ought not to deceive Republicans. The intermeddlers advice for suggestions is not invited nor wanted.
