

It's Up to You

R. N. Stanfield.
Republican for United States Senator

Robert N. Stanfield's nomination for United States Senator in the Republican Primaries, May 17, will mean two things—

1. The belief of the people of Oregon that this state has not received the recognition at Washington to which it is entitled and that there is a demand for a square deal.
2. The Republicans do not want the Democratic boss to dictate in the Republican primaries and that Republicans prefer Stanfield, a 100 per cent Republican rather than a 50-50 Demo-Rep., dominated by the Democratic Boss.

Do you want a wide-awake, energetic man with initiative and red blood to be Senator, or do you want a "man asleep on the job" who introduces bills and permits them to sleep in committees?

A man who knows Oregon and its needs and who has the force and confidence to demand results will quickly make his mark at Washington and through him Oregon will receive the recognition so long denied this state. Such a man is Robert N. Stanfield.

S. B. Huston, in withdrawing from the Senatorial contest, made the following statement:

"I have a very strong conviction that Oregon has been discriminated against by the National Government in many ways. Mr. Stanfield shares this feeling and promises, if elected, to correct it as far as it lies in his power to do so. Senator McNary denies that any such discrimination exists. He was quoted in a dispatch from Washington to the Oregon Journal as saying that he 'took no stock in the statement that there has been discrimination against Oregon.' Of course, if he believes there has been no such discrimination he will make no effort to remove it.

What has Oregon received except such business as had to come here because material could not be furnished elsewhere?

Oregon furnishes spruce, but the airplanes are not manufactured here.

Oregon has received a few contracts for wooden ships, because the timber is here, but look at the wooden ship contracts that went to the South and Atlantic Coast! And for many of these Southern ships Oregon had to be drawn on for large timbers.

More than 20,000 Oregon boys are in the service, but they all were sent to cantonments in other states for training.

Oregon responded quickly to appeals for food conservation, but the wheat growers of Oregon were penalized 20 cents a bushel for living in this state.

Many other instances could be cited showing that Oregon has been discriminated against, but Mr. McNary says that he "takes no stock in the statement that Oregon has been discriminated against."

Do you want these conditions to continue, or do you want them remedied? If you want results, then send Stanfield to Washington.

Five lawyers represent Oregon at Washington. Why not elect a farmer, stockraiser and business man for a change? Do lawyers have a monopoly of all the loyalty, patriotism, wisdom and knowledge in Oregon?

Why does the Chamber of Commerce pay a special agent a Senatorial salary of $7500 a year to remain at Washington to look after practical matters for Oregon if someone isn't "asleep on the job" or if Oregon is not discriminated against.

100 per cent or 50-50 per cent?

Republican voters should settle their own party affairs in the primaries without the interference of Democratic Kaisers.

A clean-cut party issue is presented to the Republicans of Oregon. It is in the hands of the Republicans, themselves, whether they want a Republican Senator or a Demo-Rep. Senator.

Stanfield is 100 per cent Republican and has been elected as such three times to the Legislature.

McNary, his opponent, has a penchant for holding office, but has never yet been elected to one by the people—in fact, he was defeated the only time the people ever got a chance to vote on him—and he has been as willing to seek appointment to political jobs from Democrats as from Republicans.

The Democratic Boss appointed McNary to the Supreme bench and is now trying to make the Republicans nominate his friend and colleague for United States Senator. If McNary, the protégé of Oswald West, is nominated then the Republicans can say "good night" to the Republican party in Oregon for years to come, for West will be in power and have his friend at Washington.

Here is the question for you, Mr. and Mrs. Republican voter, to settle. It is strictly a party matter in the primaries. Do you want a genuine 100 per cent Republican or a 50-50 Demo-Republican, with the latter endorsed and advocated by the self-appointed Democratic dictator?

IF YOU WISH TO MAINTAIN THE REPUBLICAN PARTY YOU MUST VOTE FOR STANFIELD.

LOCAL P. E. O. TO BE HOSTESS FOR CONVENTION

Former Salem Woman, Now of Springfield, to Preside Over Sessions

TO HOLD THREE DAYS

Lectures, Discussions, Entertainment and Election Are Slated

The seventh annual convention of Oregon chapter, P. E. O., will convene in Salem May 21, 22 and 23 with Chapter G of Salem as hostess. All chapters of the order in the state will send representatives and the sessions will be held in the auditorium of the Salem Commercial club.

The first event of the convention will be a meeting of the executive board at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon, the enrollment of delegates will begin at 4 o'clock and the first formal session will be Tuesday night. Mrs. Gerald Volk of Salem, president of the Salem chapter and second vice-president of the grand chapter, will give an address welcoming the guests to Salem. Mrs. Bertha L. Gray of Portland, treasurer of the grand chapter, will respond. Mrs. Jessie W. Kirk, now of Springfield, but formerly a resident of Salem, will preside over the convention in her capacity of president of the grand chapter. Mrs. Kirk is the wife of Prof. R. L. Kirk, former principal of the Salem high school.

At the night session Tuesday an address on "The American Chemist in the War" will be given by Miss Alice Willard of Chapter D and will be the main feature of the program on that evening. Officers of Chapter G will give an exemplification of the ritual and a model meeting will be conducted by Miss Margaret Copeland, state organizer for the P. E. O. Wednesday will be taken up with a considerable amount of routine and business work, though addresses and musical contributions to the program will be heard. A number of reports also will be given. Among the latter will be a report from the reciprocity bureau by Mrs. Volk and a report of the supreme convention by Mrs. Dorothy H. Seymour. Mrs. Seymour is a leading member of the organization in Oregon and is a past state president. Chapter affairs will be debated and Mrs. Emma L. McCaw, first vice president of the grand chapter, will speak on "Our Educational Work." Other features of the Wednesday program will be afternoon addresses by Mrs. Ida Kildner of Chapter S, who has been assigned the subject "Service Though P. E. O.," and Mr. Eleanor K. Brace, chairman of the patriotic arduous committee, who will talk on "P. E. O. Patriotism in Oregon." One of the notable entertainment events of the convention will be an automobile excursion Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when state institutions and other points of interest will be visited.

Past state presidents will meet Thursday morning to discuss the subject "Thoughts Along the Way." At this session officers will be elected. The newly elected officers will be installed in the afternoon and unfinished business will receive attention. State Organizer Miss Copeland will be on the program of practically every session with lectures on the society's secret work.

Funeral of Nan Wilson Held at Dallas Yesterday

DALLAS, May 11.—(Special to The Statesman)—The funeral services over the remains of Miss Nan Wilson, whose body was found floating in the Willamette river at Portland, Thursday after a several days absence from the home of a friend in that city, were held yesterday afternoon from the Chapman undertaking parlors of Main street, and were largely attended by friends of the family in this city. Miss Wilson had been in poor health for some time prior to her disappearance and this is supposed to have unbalanced her mind and caused her to take her life. The Wilsons were formerly residents of Dallas, A. K. Wilson, the father of the late deceased girl, being one of the pioneer druggists of the city, conducting the drug store now owned by Conrad Staffin in the Wilson building at the corner of Main and Court streets. The body was laid to rest in the local I. O. F. cemetery.

Harry B. Cospier Elected Member of Dallas Council

DALLAS, May 11.—(Special to The Statesman)—The Dallas city council in session this week elected Harry B. Cospier to fill out the unexpired term of F. E. Davis as councilman of the third ward. Mr. Davis resigned some weeks ago on account of moving into another part of the city. Mr. Cospier is familiar with all the detail of the city government, having served at various times on the council.

MEMORIAL DAY IS SET ASIDE

People Called on to Pray for Victory of American Armies in Present War

WASHINGTON, May 11.—National memorial day, Thursday, May 30, is designated by President Wilson in a proclamation issued today as a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting. The people of the nation are asked to gather on that day in their places of worship and pray for the victory of the American armies which will bring a peace founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

The proclamation, issued in response to a resolution by congress, follows:

"By the President of the United States:

"A Proclamation.
Whereas, The congress of the United States on the second day of April, last, passed the following resolution:

Resolved, By the senate (the house of representatives concurring), that, it being a duty peculiarly incumbent in a time of war, humbly and devoutly to acknowledge our dependence on Almighty God and to implore His aid and protection, the President of the United States be and he is hereby respectfully requested to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States, with religious solemnity and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of our cause. His blessings on our arms, and a speedy restoration of an honorable and lasting peace to the nations of the earth;

"And, Whereas, it has always been the reverent habit of the people of the United States to turn in humble appeal to Almighty God for His guidance in the affairs of their common life:

"Now, Therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the thirtieth day of May, a day already freighted with sacred and stimulating memories, a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, and do exhort my fellow citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day in their several places of worship and there, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God that He may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and put us on our hearts to see and love the truth, to accept and defend all things that are just and right, and to pursue only those righteous acts and judgments which are in conformity with His will; beseeching Him that He will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom, wisdom to those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity, and steadfastness to our people to make sacrifice to the utmost support of what is just and true, bringing us at last the peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia this eleventh day of May, in the year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighteen, and of the Independence of the United States, the One Hundred and Forty Second.
"Woodrow Wilson."
"By the President,
"Robert Lansing, Secretary of State."
