

OLD-FASHIONED GAME FEATURED

Nine Pitchers Employed by Boston and Cleland—Triple Steal Worked

CLEVELAND, June 7.—Cleveland and Boston engaged in an old-fashioned contest today. Cleveland winning 14 to 7. Nine pitchers were employed, six by Boston and three by Cleveland. Cleveland also worked a triple steal in the seventh, sending seven bases altogether of Schang. Boston pitchers issued 11 passes and were hit safely 14 times.

Score: R. H. E. Boston 7 11 3 Cleveland 14 13 1 Leonard, Bush, Ruth, Molyneux, Jones and Schang; Bagby, Groom, Combs and O'Neill, Thomas.

Philadelphia 1, Chicago 2. CHICAGO, June 7.—Myer's wildness in today's game enabled Chicago to win from Philadelphia, 2 to 1. Myers forced in a run in the fourth when he allowed a hit and issued three passes. Shannon's stop of a terrific drive from E. Collins' bat was the fielding feature.

Washington 6, Detroit 9. DETROIT, June 7.—Detroit hit Ayers freely today and easily defeated Washington 9 to 6. The Detroit pitchers also were wild, giving nine bases on balls.

New York 1, St. Louis 0. ST. LOUIS, June 7.—St. Louis could not touch Russell when hits meant runs and New York made it three straight by shutting out the locals today, 1 to 0. The visitors got their run in the sixth when Gilheoley singled, went to second on an out and scored on Pratt's two-base hit.

Seniors Lead Classes at Salem High School

The cup awarded to the class having the highest standing in a number of contests held during the spring will probably go to the seniors at Salem high this year. It is believed that no more athletic events will be held off owing to the proximity of the close of school.

Yesterday afternoon the juniors, represented by Martin, won in the cross country run. Others in the track were Hicks for the sophomores and Towner, who was replaced later by Howland for the seniors. The second year men defeated the seniors at baseball the day before while the former were in turn beaten in a tennis match by the juniors.

STOCKS REFLECT SALES PRESSURE

Session Dull and Uneventful—Domestic Developments Cause of Reaction

NEW YORK, June 7.—Representative stocks reflected selling pressure during today's dull and uneventful session, with a preponderance of moderate losses at the close. The reactionary trend was again ascribed to domestic developments foreign advice being accepted as distinctly encouraging.

Secretary McAdoo's recommendations calling for a doubling of war taxes in the coming year and the decision of the government to control distribution of iron and steel accounted in large measure for the sagging tendency manifested in war shares. Rails were extremely sluggish. Delay in announcing the terms of the Mercantile Marine deal prompted occasional offerings of shippings.

Motors and leathers were the objects of intermittent professional activity at higher prices, but seasoned industrials, including steels and coppers, were irregular to heavy. Sales amounted to 415,000 shares.

NATIONAL GAMES PUT OFF. NEW YORK, June 7.—All national league games were postponed today on account of wet grounds.

BUTLER'S LONG DOUBLE WINNER

Los Angeles—Oakland Game Tied in Seventh—Angels Come Out Victors

SAN FRANCISCO, June 7.—Butler's long double in the ninth, his only hit of the game, scored the winning run for Los Angeles. Oakland had tied it up in the seventh on Boles' wild throw to second, the ball going to the centerfield fence and allowing two runs.

San Francisco 1, Salt Lake 2. SALT LAKE CITY, June 7.—Penner bested Kantelehner in a hot pitching duel, Salt Lake winning 2 to 1. Each allowed eight hits and three walks and each had one strike-out. San Francisco scored its only run on a wild pitch in the second.

Sacramento 1, Vernon 2. LOS ANGELES, June 7.—Vernon took a hard fought game from Sacramento by a batting rally in the eighth inning. Daley singled, Barton smashed out a homer into the right field bleachers. The Senators scored their only run in the same inning when Pinelli singled and tallied on Easterly's double to center.

HUN DEAD PILE THREE DEEP BEFORE ADVANCE

have been made prisoner by the Germans. Private John B. Flocken of Olney, Ill., one of the first men to reach Torcy, said today:

"I never saw such wonderful spirit. Not one of our fellows hesitated in the face of the rain of machine gun fire, which it seemed impossible to get through. Every German seemed to have a machine gun. They fought like wildcats, but the Americans were too much for them."

The importance of the operations of the Americans on the Marne sector may be realized when it is recalled that only the day before the Americans entered the line the Germans advanced ten kilometers. The Americans are now holding the Paris road near Le Thiolet for a number of kilometers.

Graphic stories of last night's fighting were related by wounded Americans today. They said that at one point the Germans crouched behind boulders and opened fire when the Americans were within ten feet of them. One man who participated in an encounter of this kind said:

"Some of us had not slept for four nights but we were not tired. We took a second lease of life and sprang at those Germans and smothered them. I never saw so many machine guns. Our men did not think of themselves. They only thought of getting Fritz."

A corporal captured three Germans and was leading them away when twelve others surrendered to him and joined the procession. Madison Girman of Evansville, Ind., was in Torcy. He said:

"We were not supposed to go there, but the men were so enthusiastic they kept on. They would go to Berlin if their commanders would let them. The only way to stop them is to kill them. The Germans can not make prisoners of us. They tried hard to get some of us, but we fooled them. We turned the machine guns on them and took them prisoner."

Floyd Gibbons of the Chicago Tribune was watching the battle with a major and another officer early last night from a field. An enemy machine gun spotted them and Mr. Gibbons was shot in the arm and in the left eye. The officers escaped but they had to wait three hours in the darkness to crawl away. As a result of the wound, Mr. Gibbons' eye was removed this morning.

The Americans today were consolidating their positions and comparative quiet prevailed.

MANY HEROES IN FIGHT. WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN THE PICARDY, June 6.—There were many instances of individual bravery and heroism in the successful attack of the American marines in the Chateau Thierry sector today. Many of the Americans who were wounded refused to leave the fight.

Sergeant J. L. Puswerth of Kansas City, was captured by the Germans Monday night while dazed by a blow from a rifle butt. While the German was dragging him away when he regained consciousness, the sergeant hit the German on the jaw and escaped.

"I was not going to be the first American captured in this sector," Sergeant Puswerth said. "The Dutchman looked more scared than I so I biffed him. Now I got to get back and get me a Dutchman to make up for the lump on my head."

the height of today's battle and in time to take part in the victory.

THREE TOWNS OBJECTIVES. WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, June 7.—(Evening)—The sharpest fighting continues around the sector of Veully-la-Poterie, Busseries and Boursches, where the Americans and French have been attacking shoulder to shoulder for some days, making almost uninterrupted progress, notwithstanding strong enemy resistance.

NEWS IS REASSURING. WASHINGTON, June 7.—News from the Aisne battle front continued reassuring today to military observers here, it being increasingly evident that the German thrust had been brought to at least a temporary halt. Whether the failure to press his advantage vigorously means that the enemy is exhausted for the moment and must have time to bring up fresh troops, guns and stores before renewing the drive, or that he is planning blows at other points along the front is not yet clear.

On the face of the map, it is thought here the German situation demands that he renew his efforts to widen out to the west. The enemy's position looks precarious and no matter how determined the allied supreme command may be to conserve man power, it is regarded as certain that any glaring German weakness will be quickly seized upon for a powerful counter-thrust.

BUMPER WHEAT CROP FORECAST

June Report of Department of Agriculture Gives Big Estimate for Fall

WASHINGTON, June 7.—A bumper wheat crop this year which harvest may develop into a production of 1,000,000,000 bushels, was forecast today by department of agriculture in its June crop report giving the first indication of the size of this year's spring wheat output.

Basing its estimate on June 1 conditions the department forecast a total wheat production of 931,000,000 bushels, which would place this year's harvest as the second largest in the history of the country.

In June of 1915, a total wheat production of 950,000,000 bushels was forecast and the quantity gradually crept upward until the final figures for the year showed the crop to be 1,025,800,000 bushels.

The acreage sown to spring wheat this year is larger by 2,000,000 acres than ever sown before and 21.5 per cent larger than last year, aggregating 22,489,000 acres. The condition of the crop on June 1 was 95.2 per cent of normal, or 1.5 per cent better than the ten-year average. A production of 344,000,000 bushels was forecast. That is 11,000,000 bushels more than forecast from conditions existing May 1. Such a crop would be the third in size grown in this country.

The oat crop also promises to be record proportions. On an acreage 2.1 per cent larger than last year when the record crop—1,587,000,000 bushels—was grown, June 1 conditions warrant a forecast of 1,500,000,000 bushels. Only last year's and the crop of 1915 exceeded that quantity.

Rye production will be a record, the forecast being 81,000,000 bushels which is slightly less than was forecast in May. Last year's crop was 601,000,000 bushels which was a record.

Washington Wheat Crop Next Fall To Be Large

SPOKANE, June 7.—The total wheat crop of Washington as indicated by the condition June 1, will be 43,900,000 bushels, an increase of 24,832,000 bushels over last year, according to figures made public here tonight by E. T. Marchetti, field agent of the federal bureau of crop estimates. The total wheat acreage in the state is given as 2,131,000, as compared with a four-year average of 1,806,000.

The large increase in estimated production is in spring wheat, with 33,400,000 bushels estimated, as compared with 18,360,000 bushels last year. Winter wheat shows a falling off, with 10,500,000 bushels, compared with 10,858,000 in 1917.

Oats production for the state is estimated at 14,900,000 bushels, as compared with 11,252,000 bushels last season, and an acreage of 310,000, as against 92,000. Barley production is estimated at 6,900,000 bushels as against 4,930,000 last year, and rye at 127,000 bushels, as compared with 89,000.

Condition of winter wheat is estimated at 90 per cent, spring wheat 90 per cent, oats 94 per cent, barley 95 per cent, and rye 91 per cent.

155 SUCCEED IN 8TH GRADE TEST

Highest Place Is Won by Ethel Klampe of Silverton Who Made 94.5

Checking up the grades on the eighth grade examination papers was completed in Superintendent Smith's office yesterday. The examinations were given May 16, and papers were turned in by about 1500 applicants. Out of this number only 155 secured the necessary 80 per cent in order to pass. Not only is the percentage unusually small this year, but the markings were not quite up to former examinations, either because the grist of studies have been more exacting or because outside demands have cut into the school work of the pupils.

The highest marking attained by any pupil was given to Ethel Klampe of District 14, Silverton—94.5. Following is a list of those who stood at 90 or better: Helen Kihls, Jefferson; Maurice Warnock, Silverton; Norma Marrs, Woodburn; (Sandaus Priesser, Sublimity; Alice Glover, Sublimity; Olivia Zuber Sublimity; Frances Dolson, Aurora; Varion Goin, Jefferson; School Velmar, Hubbard; Velma Cline, Gervais; Ivan Dentel, Aurora; Mabel Tautfest, Aurora; Hazel Tautfest, Aurora; Sara Caldwell, Gervais; Maitha Prothers, Salem; Olga Swanson, Woodburn; Walter Witt, Mill City; Charles Olin, Mill City.

WAR SUMMARY

There has been no let-up in the offensive of the American and French troops against the Germans in the region northwest of Chateau Thierry, where in the past two days severe defeats have been inflicted on the enemy and American marines have won great praise for their valiant fighting.

Battling shoulder to shoulder over a front of six miles from Vinly, which lies just to the northwest of Veully-la-Porterie, toward Boursches, the American and French have captured the towns of Veully-la-Porterie and Boursches and also made progress all along the front. Previously Torcy had fallen into the hands of the Americans.

Nowhere on this battle line have the Germans been able to stay the efforts of the allied troops, although they have fought with great tenacity. The marines everywhere have declined to take a backward step, going forward against the enemy even when he had a superiority of numbers.

The losses of the enemy thus far are declared to have been extremely heavy and the terrain they have lost is considered of high strategic value.

Birthday Party Given for Clear Lake Lass

CLEAR LAKE, Or., June 7.—A birthday party was given at the Ganiard home in honor of the 14th birthday of Helen Ganiard Tuesday afternoon, May 28. About sixteen of her playmates were present. Games were played in the afternoon after which refreshments were served. A merry group of Clear Lakers motored to beyond Willamina on a picnic Sunday. Three automobile loads made up the party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Chatfield and son, Junior, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Heckner and daughter, Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Pickens and son, Orville, Mr. and Mrs. John Etter and daughter, Vivian, Mrs. Robert Bollier and daughters, May and Ethel. The trip was a trial one for the new automobile purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Etter. Mrs. Etter proved her ability as a driver by the way she handled her new machine over the rough roads on a 100-mile trip.
