BIDS OPENED THROW SCARE IN TO STATE

High Prices May Cause Many Deficiencies in Salem Institutions.

FLOUR YET UNCERTAIN

Sugar, Clothing and Meats All at High Mark, Offers Show.

That a number of the state institutions will have deficiencies in the maintenance fund because of the marked increase in cost of supplies at the present time compared to the first of the year is indicated by bids that were opened by the state board of control yesterday on supplies for the institution for the next six months.

Because of the great volume of bids received and the care and time necessary in their tabulation it is not yet possible to estimate the extent of deficiencies that are likely to be caused.

May Force Beet Sugar.

Because of the need to economize in the extreme the board of control is considering seriously making the use of beet sugar compulsory in all the institutions because it is 1 cent a pound cheaper than cane sugar.

Meats show a startling increase in cost of about 23.5 per cent over the figures of six months ago.

Wheat Price Watched. What the state has to pay for flour will be influenced by the price of wheat during the next six months.

While bids of $9.45 and $10.20 were received for soft and hard wheat flour respectively, but a string is attached to the bid which will result in an additional 4 1/2 cents a barrel for each increase in the price of wheat.

Rice has jumped from $6.90 to $9.50 according to the lowest bids, and sausages have increased from $15.40 to $16.40.

Clothing Is High. Clothing and shoes have gone far above previous prices.

No bids were received on bran and shorts but several dealers offered to sell them to the state at market prices when the same is ready for delivery.

ALLEGIANCE TO U. S. FORSWORN

CHICAGO, June 12.—A resolution drawn up in 1915 declaring that the rights of American citizenship are no longer of any value and that they would forswear allegiance to the United States and signed by certain residents of Rockford, Ill., was introduced as evidence at the trial of 110 Industrial Workers of the World on a charge of violating the espionage laws today.

Correspondence passing between Charles R. Griffin of Seattle, and other I. W. W. leaders, was then read. In one letter Griffin said: "We are preparing for some big doings here over the Christmas holidays."

William D. Haywood, writing to Griffin, informed him of the strike in the lumber districts. "There is a big strike on now among the lumber workers. Wish it could be made general and that every lumberjack in the country would quit work until their demands for better conditions in the lumber camps are assured, the hours shortened and their wages increased."

ALIEN PLEADS TO FIGHT HUN

Slavs in United States Want to Go to Front, Says Camp Lewis Private.

CAMP LEWIS, Tacoma, Wash., June 12.—Prohibited by his birth in an Austrian province of becoming a member of a fighting unit of the United States army against Germany, a private of the quartermaster's corps at Camp Lewis today made an appeal in a letter to the public through the censor for a chance to strike against the foe of the Slavic races.

There are 150,000 Slavs of military age in the United States, the private said, whose hatred for the Germans and Austrians is born in them. The Austrians have robbed their fathers of their lands and forced them to leave their own country.

The name of the soldier is withheld and it is probable that after investigation of the writer, the letter will be forwarded to Washington. The soldier is one of several hundred at camp to whom citizenship was denied in the recent military naturalization because of birth though there was not question as to their loyalty.

Twenty-four delegates to the convention of Catholic Foresters in Tacoma visited camp today. They had lunch at the hostess house, inspected the knights of Columbus buildings and points of interest. They are from Idaho, Washington and British Columbia.

The First infantry, which arrived at Murray yesterday for training at Camp Lewis, played baseball today. Equipment was taken to the new camp by Knights of Columbus secretaries here.
