RED CROSS BULLETIN

New auxiliaries of Willamette chapter have been formed recently at Prospect and Sameco. Those reorganizing are St. Paul's Episcopal guild, First Methodist church, Stayton, the Clara Barton at Hubbard, the Rose Bud at Donald, and the Monday afternoon workers of Salem. This makes 158 auxiliaries for the local chapter.
The latest shipment of surgical dressings includes ninety-seven absorbent pads 8 by 12 inches, ten split irrigation pads, 114 absorbent pads, 12 by 24 inches, 618 finger sponges and 5513 wipes.
Miss Evelyn Klair of Washington, D. C. will visit Willamette chapter Saturday to instruct the workers in the making of sphagnum moss pads in the surgical dressings department.

McDonald at Large Again; Is Traveling with Woman
Iowa authorities have informed officials at the Oregon state penitentiary that George Thompson, alias L. G. McDonald, Oregon parole violator who was arrested at Des Moines a week ago, is again at large. Thompson is now going under the alias of George Van Buren and is said to be traveling with a woman. He is the convict who while on parole in Oregon went about the state lecturing for the new prison bill before the special election a year ago.
When Thompson was arrested at Des Moines his finger prints were taken and sent to the federal penitentiary at Fort Leavenworth where all finger prints are registered. Fort Leavenworth authorities notified the Oregon penitentiary of Thompson's identity, but before they could advise Iowa officers to keep the prisoner in custody, the Des Moines police had turned Thompson and the woman loose with orders to leave that city.
