

SOCIETY

By Florence Elizabeth Nichols

Miss Lillian Guffin, a charming Illinois girl, who will leave Salem soon, following her resignation from the head of the public speaking department of the Salem High School. She is the daughter of Mrs. E. L. Guffin of the Court apartments.

ONE of the largest events of the well-filled week was the annual reception given by Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney and Dean and Mrs. George Henry Alden, Monday night at Eaton hall in honor of the graduating class of Willamette university, the alumni, trustees, faculty, and guests.

Red, white and blue formed the color scheme used in decorating the rooms. Gorgeous bouquets of deep red roses and carnations were found in every available space. Flags were draped in corners and the same ornamentation was found on an artistic trellis. As the guests entered they were greeted by Dr. and Mrs. L. Steeves, Dr. and Mrs. George Alden and Mrs. Carl Gregg Doney, wife of the college president who is Y. M. C. A. service in France. The senior class members formed the social reception line.

Following the reception, a collation was served in adjoining rooms. A large table, decked with red and white and huge baskets of carnations, Mrs. A. N. Rush and Mrs. H. Talbot presided. About fifteen smaller tables, glowing with red shades and candles were arranged for the guests. About three hundred were served during the evening.

The women of the faculty assisted the rooms. Clad in white dresses, the girls of the junior class of the university assisted in serving, with Mrs. Gustav Ebsen. The sophomore class accomplished the decorating, assisted by Mrs. M. E. Peck. Chick-

Miss Luelle Benson became the bride of Richard H. Robertson of Portland, late yesterday afternoon at the residence of her parents, Judge and Mrs. Henry L. Benson, 945 North Summer street. Rev. Richard N. Avison read the nuptial vows in the presence of close friends and relatives.

The marriage was a simple home affair, although the home was beautifully decked for the occasion. The bride was stunning in a smart dark blue tulle with a chic black hat. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses with lacey ferns and tulle of ribbon tied with sweet peas. The bride was given away by her father.

After the ceremony, a wedding repast was served to twenty guests. Later the bridal couple left for Portland where they will make their home. Mr. Robertson is a former Washington, D. C. man. He is in the United States forestry service.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson will be at home in the Cecilia apartments, 714 Gilliam street, Portland. Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were a sister of the bride, Mrs. M. C. Briggs, Jr., of Hollister, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. George Hotchkiss and Mrs. A. Cryser of Portland.

Dr. W. H. Byrd, a prominent resident, quietly claimed Miss Inez Adele Cramer as his bride, yesterday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the home of his mother, Mrs. L. Byrd, on Union street.

The ceremony was read by Rev. W. C. Kantner. Later the bride and groom left for an automobile trip to American Lake. Upon their return they will be at home at the attractive Byrd residence on Court street. Mrs. Byrd came to Salem last September from La Peer, Mich. She was principal of the educational department of the State School for the Feeble Minded.

The setting for the marriage was an attractive one. Feathered ferns, roses, larkspur and delphinium elaborated the rooms. Mrs. Prynce Byrd and Miss Bertha Byrd assisting in the decorating. Dr. Byrd has chosen a delightfully charming woman as his wife. She has already made many friends during her residence of less than a circle of months and many await her return, as the mistress of the Byrd home.

Mrs. Chauncey Bishop and her youngest son, Charles Kay Bishop, are expected home tonight from a several week's sojourn at Palo Alto, Calif. Mrs. Bishop had planned upon a longer stay with her brother, Carl Gabrielson, who is encamped there, but as Mr. Bishop was unable to go south at this time, as he had planned his family will join him. Little Robert Chauncey Bishop will remain for a while longer at Camp Fremont with his grandmother, Mrs. C. D. Gabrielson, who is still there.

Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Bishop have as their guests over Sunday, their sons, Clarence and Roy Bishop of Pendleton. Mr. Bishop's sister, Mrs. I. W. Starr of Brownsville, Or., accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Georgia Starr Morris, arrived Friday in Salem for a visit with the C. P. Bishop and A. J. Bishop families. They will remain for a few days this week. Mrs. Morris is enroute home to Seattle following a visit with her mother in Brownsville.

A trio of hostesses entertained the matrons of the Thursday Afternoon club Thursday at the John Albert residence. Those presiding were Mrs. Albert, Mrs. John Sutherland and Mrs. C. A. Park. The assembly was the last gathering of the clubwomen for the summer season. The women passed their time with Red Cross work.

Miss Dora Elizabeth Grey, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gray, became the bride of Henry C. Gregg, Wednesday at noon at the home of her parents, 454 South Seventeenth street. Dr. John Hall of Willamette university read the marriage ceremony. The vows were exchanged beneath an arch of Frau Druska roses, softened with an abundance of tiny ferns.

The bride wore a becoming frock of white crepe de chine, combined with Georgette. Her mother's bridal veil and orange wreath encircled her head, in true bride fashion. Her only jewel was a cameo brooch, the gift of the groom.

Immediately following the vows, a dainty buffet luncheon was served, with the bride cutting the cake. The young couple left on an afternoon train for Tillamook beach, where they will pass a honeymoon at Garibaldi. They will be at home at Nehalem after June 20.

The bride is a former Marion county teacher. Mr. Gregg is a graduate of Willamette university. He is associated with the government spruce camp.

Mrs. J. M. Garrison and her daughter, Miss Mabel Garrison, left yesterday for Newport, where they will pass the summer.

Mrs. Fred A. McIntyre, with her son Lloyd and daughter Anna, left for Portland yesterday morning to pass the summer. They will be with Mr. McIntyre who is employed at the Foundation Company shipyards.

Mrs. John Albert, president of the Salem Woman's club went to Portland yesterday to attend a luncheon of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, which was held at the Minnomah hotel. A council meeting was held preceding the luncheon when a report was heard from the general conference which was recently held in Arkansas. The luncheon was also attended by Miss Mattie Beatty, who is the state vice-president. Mrs. Albert returned last night.

Miss Sarah Sterling, who has been visiting at the home of Mrs. Fred A. McIntyre, returned to her home at Lebanon yesterday.

Miss Constance Kantner of Portland has been visiting during the week in Salem as the guest of her father, Rev. W. C. Kantner, acting pastor of the First Congregational church.

Mrs. A. S. Brassfield of Berkeley, Cal., who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. George J. Pearce for a fortnight at the Pearce home on North Winter street, left yesterday for a week's stay in Portland. Upon her return from Portland Mrs. Brassfield will remain in Salem for several weeks longer.

Mrs. Charles McNary arrived the fore part of the week from Washington, D. C., where she has been since the opening of the congressional season, with her husband, Senator McNary. She was accompanied home by her nieces, the Misses Nina McNary and little Margaret Stoiz.

Miss Edith Campbell, a teacher in the Washington school, left yesterday for Baker, Or., where she will act as a stenographer to the county fruit inspector there. Miss Campbell has resigned her teaching position and expects to remain in Baker. She is a Salem girl and made her home with her sister, Mrs. Jessie Cromwell, in the Court apartments.

Mrs. Winnifred Pettijohn left yesterday for a fortnight's vacation in Newport where she will be the guest of Mrs. A. L. Thomas. Mrs. Pettijohn's little daughters, Helen and Luelle, will remain with their grandmother, Mrs. C. H. Cannon, during their mother's absence. Mrs. Pettijohn has leased her house for the summer to Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Jerraud of Drain. Mr. Jerraud is a claim agent in the state accident commission at the state house.

Miss Flora Patterson became the bride of Hugh Rogers at 1:30 o'clock Wednesday, June 12. The pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. G. W.
