

I AM GLAD TO ENDORSE PERUNA

Glad to Try Anything

"Three years ago my system was in a terribly run down condition and I was broken out all over my body. I began to be worried about my condition and I was glad to try anything which would relieve me. Peruna was recommended to me as a fine blood remedy and tonic, and I soon found that it was worthy of praise. A few bottles changed my condition materially and in a short time I was all over again. I owe my restoration to health and strength to Peruna. I am glad to endorse it."

Ball Parks to Close Gates for Duration of War, Announcement Last Night

CHICAGO, July 20.—American League baseball parks will close their gates for the duration of the war after tomorrow's games unless unexpected developments occur, it was announced tonight by Byron Bancroft Johnson, president of the organization, in view of the administration's edict. No appeal from Secretary of War Baker's interpretation of the "work or fight" ruling as applied to ball players will be made and no effort is planned to finish the season with teams recruited from veterans above the draft age and amateurs below the draft age. Such an attempt, baseball officials say, not only would be an imposition on the fans, but would also be more or less of a subterfuge, in view of the administration's edict. National league clubowners, a few of whom are reported as favoring efforts to weather the storm, will meet in New York Wednesday.

BASEBALL GOSSIP

The Brooklyn Dodgers have been hard hit of late by having their players called to the colors. The Athletics own some pretty nifty hitters, but weak pitching has kept the team down in the joke region. Quite a few former big leaguers now in the service will spend their furloughs pastiming with their old teams. The Phillies' roster contains the names of few baseball wizards, yet the team is a great hustling outfit at that. There is no disputing the dope that the Cubs have traveled at a more even pace so far than has any other big league aggregation.

Tom Hughes, one-time sparkling twirler for the Braves, is having a hard time of it trying to break into the win column. George Sleser, the Browns' star, is certainly having a great season, his hitting and base-stealing being the top-line feature of the year. The fact that the Red Sox are able hard joits is highly pleasing to the to come back after receiving so many admirers of the Barrows' outfit.

Ty Cobb has been coming fast of late, the Detroit star having gained a place among the first three in hitting, run-getting and base-stealing in the American league. Should the Reds continue to drop games, the Cardinals ere long will have to yield their exclusive franchise on the cellar.

Some sort of a jinx must have picked Hal Chase as a victim. It is the first time in many seasons that the Cincinnati star hasn't figured prominently in the records. The lack of a single 300 hitter doesn't seem to bother the Pittsburg team, which continues to travel right along in first division company.

Even if the Cleveland Indians fail to win the pennant they will have the satisfaction of knowing they put up a real battle for the flag. It is quite some performance on the part of the Yankees, the Yankees' kid hurled, to top the list of American league pitchers after only a few months of big yard pastiming. The National is gradually falling behind the American league in the matter of 300 hitters. Recent averages show 13 heavy swatters in the American and 10 in the National league.

It begins to look as if Max Carey of the Pirates will not encounter any strong opposition in either big league for the season's base-stealing championship.
