Better Weather Offsets Unfavorable Crop News

CHICAGO, Aug. 16.—Improved weather conditions more than offset in the corn market today the bullish effect of unfavorable crop reports.
Prices closed unsettled 1/4 to 1/2¢ up net lower with September 1.61 1/4¢ and October 1.63 1/4¢. Oats finished 1/4¢ to 1 1/2¢ up, and provisions off 1/2¢ to 3/4¢.

Weakness in the corn market did not develop until after a material new upturn in values had taken place, the result chiefly of adverse opinions regarding the crop situation. In particular, one expert figured that since August 1 the damage done amounted to more than 200, 000,000 bushels. Scarcity of offerings, rather than any urgent buying, accompanied the advance. News of good rains, however, brought about rather free selling and carried values well below yesterday's finish.

Talk of delayed threshing in the northwest tended to force the oats market upward. Gossip was current also that many Illinois farmers were binning their oats and would not sell at present levels.

Provisions lacked support. One of the reasons given was the fact that stocks of lard in warehouses here showed a substantial increase.
