By MURIEL GRANT.

SOCIAL activities among the Salem high school and Willamette university students are in full swing, and the various organizations both in the university and high school, have planned a number of enjoyable events for the year.

The enrollment at Willamette is greater than that of last season, owing to the addition of the S.A.T.C. Khaki clad men are now seen wandering about the campus—unusual compared with peace days. Student activities are entered into with more enthusiasm and many parties will be held during the opening weeks of the school year.

The university girls at Lausanne hall and at Dew Drop inn, to say nothing of the many students who are in private homes, will have a number of "get-together" feeds this winter.

Social affairs of Salem society folk have begun, but owing to the war, there will not be as many events as heretofore. Red Cross and various patriotic organizations will occupy the time of the society matrons during the coming winter months, and little time will be spent at teas and afternoon affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Bussell of 757

Center street will leave within the immediate future for San Francisco, where they will make their permanent home. Their absence from Salem will be keenly felt among the society set. Mr. Bussell will continue in the same capacity in which he served in Salem, a consulting engineer. He will have his offices in the Crocker building. They will be accompanied by their sons, Albert and Earl, and will start for San Francisco in about 10 days. They will make the trip by motor and take several detour trips en route. From southern Oregon they will go to Nevada and after a short stay in Reno will go to Sacramento, from there to Los Angeles, thence to San Francisco.

Thursday afternoon complimenting Mrs. Bussell, Mrs. Edward Wright, Mrs. Fred Buchtel and Mrs. Spenser Wortman presided as hostesses at an informal affair at the home of Mrs. Wright. The living rooms were converted into a picturesque scene with yellow shades most prevalent. Large baskets of golden marigolds were used in profusion about the rooms. In the dining room rose colored dahlias were used effectively. A bowl of them centered the table.

The main diversion of the afternoon was knitting and cards. One of the most clever features was the fortune telling role, which was assumed by one of the guests.

Those invited to pay their respects to Mrs. Bussell were: Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. S. Kepphart, Mrs. S. S. East, Mrs. Will Clark, Mrs. Walter Buchner, Mrs. H. H. Corey, Mrs. Will Neill and Mrs. T. C. Davies.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Goodin, 1680 Court street, was the scene of a merry dinner party Thursday evening given in honor of Miss Margaret Goodin, in honor of the anniversary of her birth. Covers were placed to six.

Mrs. Allan Bynon was a charming hostess Friday evening when she entertained with a delightful informal party, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Hofer, 765 South Commercial street. The evening was gaily spent in knitting after which delicious refreshments were served. Those calling during the evening were: Mrs. D. J. Fry Jr., Mrs. Hugh McCammon, Miss Helen Decker, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Catheryn Carson, Miss Mabel Withcombe, Miss Hazel Downing and Miss Marjorie Marvin.

Miss Clifford Brown, accompanied by her two sons Chandler and Warner, and Mrs. William Brown returned the forepart of the week from a summer's outing at the seashore. They have been at Seal Rocks. Mrs. Clifford Brown will remain in Salem part of the winter. Her husband recently left for an officers' training camp in Kentucky. She will leave in December for an extended tour of the east, and will be with Mr. Brown at Christmas time.

Mrs. B. O. Schucking and Miss Elizabeth Lord left Saturday afternoon for Portland where they spent the day. They returned Saturday evening, accompanied by Mr. Schucking, who is connected with the Blumauer-Frank Drug company of Portland. Mr. Schucking will remain in Salem over the week-end and will return to Portland Monday.

Mrs. H. H. Olinger accompanied by her son, Harold, left the last of the week for Harrisburg, where they will spend the week-end at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Shisler. Mrs. Shisler is a niece of Mrs. Olinger.

Miss Helen Pearce left Tuesday for Portland where she will train for a Young Women's Christian association secretaryship. She will spend about three months of preparation in the Y.W.C.A. in Portland, at the training center, which is located in the association rooms. After having completed the three months course in Portland she will leave for Seattle, where she will complete her course. Miss Pearce is a daughter of Mrs. George J. Pearce, 265 North Winter street.

In connection with the Y.W.C.A. work for women it is interesting to note that a special training course for women who desire to serve as volunteers or paid workers for the industrial work and other phases of Y.W.C.A. war work has lately been opened at the national training school of the Y.W.C.A., 600 Lexington avenue, New York city. Graduates from the Y.W.C.A. will be given an opportunity to do recreational work in the large industrial centers where the Y.W.C.A. work has been requested by the ordnance department of the United States army to care for the social life of the thousands of girls and women engaged in the manufacture of munitions. The students are enlisted, trained and placed through the workers' bureau of the Y.W.C.A. organized by Mrs. D. H. Morris of New York. Courses will also be given in San Francisco, Richmond and Minneapolis.

Mrs. Edith Aljeo left Thursday for Napa, Calif., where she will join her husband, who has been in the south for several months. They have planned to make their home at Napa.

Red Cross headquarters in the United States National Bank building has received a note of thanks for materials sent by the Willamette chapter. The letter states that a large box had been received at the war front from Willamette chapter and sends the thanks of the wounded and of the physicians and nurses. The note comes from a hospital at Fontenay, which is located in the war zone, and under the date of September 13.

A recent call has been made by Willamette chapter of the Red Cross for 50 pillows, which are needed in the hospitals in France, as this is Willamette's quota it is the patriotic duty of those who have feather pillows to send them to headquarters in the United States National Bank building.

Mrs. L. F. Griffith has been entertaining her sister, Mrs. J. E. Planders, during the past week. Mrs. Planders returned Friday afternoon to her home in Portland and was accompanied by Mrs. Griffith, who returned to her home in Salem Saturday.

Mrs. C. M. Talmadge and daughter, Ruth, of Seattle were the guests of Mrs. A. Talmadge of 1787 State street during last week.

Mrs. E. B. Lockhart and family have arrived in Salem to take up their residence during the absence of Mr. Lockhart, who will serve with the Y. M. C. A. in France. They will take up their residence at the Dr. Meredith home, 248 South Church street. Mr. Lockhart has been in charge of various pastorate in Portland, prior to his application for war work.

The North Salem Woman's club will hold its opening meeting at the home of Mrs. E. A. Hucklestein, 1125 North Fourth street, Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. The meeting will be the first of the season after adjournment during the summer months. Mrs. F. N. Toothacre, has been elected president for the year and will preside at the meeting. A splendid program has been arranged and current events will be discussed.

The 70th birthday of Mrs. A. B. Hudelson, was celebrated with a delightful dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Holt, 1032 Oak street, Thursday evening. Mrs. Hudelson is the mother of Mrs. U. G. Holt. The table was prettily decked with brilliant hued autumn flowers. Miss Grace Holt assisted her mother in serving. Covers were placed for nine.

Miss Ada B. Kuntz will sail on November 14 for the Philippine Islands, where she will take a civil service position. A wire was received this week from the Insular Bureau at Washington, D. C., stating that reservations had been made for her sailing. The position which Miss Kuntz will assume is that of a teacher in one of the island schools.

Upon her arrival at the Islands she will be met by her fiancé, Edwin Williams, and their marriage will take place immediately upon her arrival. Mr. Williams also holds a position corresponding to that of a state superintendent of instruction in the United States.

Miss Kuntz is now teaching in the Latin department of the Vancouver, Wash., school. She will return to Salem soon to spend a month with her parents, before sailing for the Islands. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Kuntz.

Mrs. Allan A. Bynon received a cablegram Friday announcing the promotion of her husband from second lieutenant to first lieutenant. Mr. Bynon is a well-known and popular Salem man having graduated from the Salem high school, later taking a course at the University of Oregon.

Mr. Bynon studied law with McNary & McNary and upon his entrance to the bar he enlisted and was sent to the first reserve officers' training camp at the Presidio in San Francisco. While there he received his appointment at second lieutenant. Upon receiving his commission he was sent to Camp Lewis and transferred to the quartermasters corps. In December he left for France.

Upon his arrival in France he was given charge of a motor truck base and after three months service was appointed adjutant to the commander. A few months ago he was given command of a causal base, which is located near the front line trenches and upon merit he received his commission as first lieutenant. The program in part as follows: LaColomba Schindler Un Organetto Suono per la Via (The Street Organ) Sibella La Cloche Saint-Saens Les Filles de Cadix Delibes O Stella Amate Proch Lift Thine Eyes Hogan Inter Nos McFayden When Soft Winds Blow Guedy La Tarantella Boyd O Mistress Mine Bach Alone Upon the Housetop. Galloway Love in the Spring Borowski The Wind's in the South Scott

A marriage of decided interest to the younger set of Salem is that of Miss Carolyn Dick, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Dick of Portland, formerly of Salem, to Warren Booth, recently of Salem. The ceremony was performed Saturday evening at the home of the bride's parents, 261 East Sixteenth street, and was a simple fall wedding, only the immediate friends and relatives of the family were present.

Mrs. Booth was a Salem resident until a year ago and has a number of friends among the younger set. She is one of the most popular members of the Kappa Alpha Theta fraternity at Oregon Agricultural college, where she attended for two years following her graduation from Salem high school.

The bridegroom belongs to an old Salem family and is a nephew of R. A. Booth of Eugene, a well-known capitalist and president of the Booth-Kelly Lumber company. He is a graduate of Willamette university with the class of 1917, after which he went to the Presidio to enter the first officers' training camp. Following his training in San Francisco he was sent to Camp Lewis, where he has been stationed. The wedding of the young people took place sooner than expected as Mr. Booth expects to be sent to an eastern training camp for special instruction. The bride will remain in Portland with her parents.

On Friday a number of the members of the Women's Missionary circles of the First Baptist church motored to Albany to attend the semi-annual meeting of the Women's Missionary circle of the Central Baptist association. Mrs. G. F. Holt, president of the association, presided at the meeting. Those making up the party were: Mesdames C. F. Holt, F. S. Stearns, Mabel Bulger, F. S. Wilks, Emil Roth, D. D. Socolofsky, John Engdahl, Clark Grove, E. R. Gregg, H. S. Gile, Reuben Gile, Som Vale, Albert Loughbridge, and Misses Elizabeth Haines and Mina Gile.

Marvin Holt, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Holt, passed through Salem Friday morning en route from the naval training station at San Pedro, Calif., to Seattle, where he has been sent for intensive technical training. He enlisted in the navy on June 19.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES
Mrs. Boudinot Seeley of Portland, who has been the guest at the association during the past few days, returned to Portland Saturday morning. Mrs. Seeley spoke at the Y. W. C. A. "open house" Friday evening. Her subject being "World Citizenship." Mrs. Seeley told of the industrial conditions among girls in different countries of the world, which

The assortment is large. We planned it to meet every requirement of women who demand up-to-the-minute styles combined with undeniable quality—who seek service rather than display. As such, ours is a thoroughly representative stock, from which no worthy style-thought has been omitted.

We insisted on cloth-quality and exacted exceptional workmanship. Styles were abundant—but real old fashioned values were scarce. Fortunately, makers with whom we have dealt for years were abundantly able to meet all our demands. These makers had provided by advance orders for nearly adequate supplies for this season. With goods in stock they were able to undersell many of their rivals. Thus it happens that many prices are quite close to the old values which you must have thought were gone forever.

have arisen since the war, due to the fact that girls, of necessity, have gone into new fields of work. Mrs. Seeley's talk was preceded by Miss Alice Judd, who pleasantly gave a group of songs. Afterward, Mrs. L. T. Harris told of the possibilities of new classes being organized under the Red Cross. Miss Lena Belle Tartar concluded the program responding generously with an encore. The membership committee has been at work this week sending out notice of membership renewals. The membership fees go towards the maintenance of the association, and it is hoped, all old members will renew and bring in new members. Mrs. Chauncey Bishop is chairman of the membership committee which includes Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. Arthur Rahn, Mrs. H. V. Compton, Mrs. Frank Spears, Mrs. Frank Myers, and Mrs. William Walton. The October board meeting is called for Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock.
