A Request, Not an Order—There is no order that there shall not be gasoline sales in Salem on Sundays and after 6 p. m.; but there is a request from the state council of defense. Nearly every gasoline dealer has complied with the request. Those who will not comply will not be furnished with gasoline by the Standard Oil company, and the competitors of the Standard have agreed to do the same thing. So the request will no doubt soon be complied with by all Salem dealers. The Standard Oil people make it a rule to comply with every request of every patriotic organization, during war times. There is no mix-up on this question as has been reported, according to Manager Campbell of the Standard Oil plant. He explains that a request either of the state council of defense or of the fuel administration is followed as an order by his company. Concerning two firms in Salem that have sold gasoline after 6 o'clock and on Sunday he says neither of the distributing plants in Salem will furnish them with gasoline until they desist from the practice.

JUDGE GALLOWAY DIVORCE SUITS IS DISPLEASED BRING DECREES

Veteran Democrat Deplores Others Are Filed in Circuit Appeal Made by President Wilson. Court—Allegations Are Various.

Judge William Galloway is here from his farm near McMinnville for a week-end visit with his family. He says farmers are very busy plowing and that there will be a greatly increased acreage of fall grain sown owing, in part, to the failure of spring sown grain the past two seasons. The judge says he enjoys farm life and is doing his mite to raise wheat, pork and wool for the boys in the trenches. In response to the question what he thought of the president's partisan appeal to send home but democrats to congress, he answered, that while he thought President Wilson had proved to be a great war executive and would rank high with illustrious presidents of the past, yet he deplored the president's partisan appeal, as he believed that there was not a congressional district in the union that would elect a pacifist, slacker, or even a lukewarm supporter of the president's war measures, to congress.

The judge further stated that he had never been able to observe any difference in the views of the democrats and republicans in their support of the government and their sacrifices in blood and treasure to win the world war and to care for the boys who are making every sacrifice for democracy and freedom. "Partisanship and sectarianism are being adjoined by our own people during this great war," he said, "as far as I am concerned, I would have it so forever. Creed and party do not affect a man's patriotism."

RECTOR'S WIFE PASSES BEYOND

Mrs. Harriett E. Stansfield Succumbs to Influenza in San Francisco.

Harriett E. Stansfield, wife of the Rev. Joseph A. Stansfield, the newly elected rector of St. Paul's, Salem, died in San Francisco Thursday, October 24 from Spanish influenza and complications after an illness of a few days.

Mrs. Stansfield was born in Wappinger Falls, New York. She leaves a family of several children to mourn her loss. Arthur, now at Camp Sevier, S. C.; Joseph in the S. A. T. C. at Trinity college, Hartford; Helen in government service at Washington, D. C.; Helga, in Denmark, going sailing a call to social service in France under the Red Cross; and Margaret, in St. John Baptist school, Ralston, N. J. The burial was at San Francisco on October 27, and the body will be taken east later on.

Advanced Express Rates Protested by Commission

Members of the Oregon public service commission indicate that they will communicate with the Idaho and the Washington commissions in an effort to cause a joint protest of the three commissions to be made against the additional 10 per cent. increase in express rates that has just been ordered by the interstate commerce commission. The additional cost of rates to shippers of the northwest will run into hundreds of thousands of dollars annually. While the bulk of the additional revenues of about $12,000,000 annually desired by the American Railway Express company will come from eastern states it is declared that proportionately the northwest will feel the burden of the increase more severely than any other section of the country.

New Shipment Fordsons in Today or Tomorrow

The advertisement for The Valley Motor Co., local Fordson agents, appeared in Sunday's Statesman, and occasioned Elbert Thompson, manager of the company, considerable inconvenience and the public some disappointment by reason of the fact that Fordson Tractors were erroneously mentioned under the display line "Used Tractors." The Fordsons mentioned in the advertisement were not "used" in any sense of the word. In fact, there are no used Fordsons for sale anywhere that the writer is aware of. Fordsons are rendering such wonderful service that those who have been fortunate enough to secure them are hanging on to them like grim death and would not be deprived of them for many times their cost. Although the capacity of the Fordson factory is being taxed to the utmost, orders placed early by the Valley Motor Co. are being filled as rapidly as possible and Mr. Thompson, the manager, says a new shipment is to arrive today or tomorrow. It behooves anyone needing a Fordson to order immediately.

Teachers' Institute Is Cancelled for this Year

No teachers' institute will be held this year on account of the necessity of making up some of the time lost through the present enforced closing of the schools. The annual meeting was to have convened in Salem November 25. County Superintendent W. M. Smith stated yesterday that a series of local institutes will be held and the teachers will be given credit for attendance at them.

Two divorces were granted yesterday in the circuit court and a third case was taken under advisement by Judge G. G. Bingham. Edith M. Franklin, who claimed that her husband, Lee Franklin, was a bootlegger, was given a decree and permission to assume her former name. Edward Furrer, horticulturist at the State School for the Feeble-Minded, was divorced from Marguerite Furrer, whom he married in Switzerland and who still lives in that country. According to the Swiss laws when a husband sues for divorce and wins, he is granted a separation decree and required to support his wife for two years. At the expiration of that time he receives the divorce. As the plaintiff had come to this country before the expiration of the two years, he had to complete his suit here.

Hearing of the case of Mamie Blanchard against C. H. Blanchard was given and the matter is still under consideration. The wife charges cruel and inhuman treatment. Blanchard was recently involved in a criminal action in the justice court. Two complaints were filed yesterday at the clerk's office. Downer Halferty claims that his wife, Axie Halferty, wrongfully charged him with associating with other women, called him profane names and refused to do her housework. The couple were married on May 3, 1918. Jessie Park wants a divorce from Acle Park because he failed to provide her with enough to eat and treated her cruelly, according to her allegations. She claims that on August 11 he knocked her down and following this she declined to live with him any longer. She asks to have her maiden name, Jessie Wright, restored. The couple were married in 1912. They have no children.

ERMA BENNETT PASSES AWAY Daughter of Judge A. S. Bennett Is Victim of Spanish Influenza. Information was received by Salem friends yesterday of the death of The Dalles of Miss Erma Bennett, youngest daughter of Judge and Mrs. Alfred S. Bennett of that place. The young woman succumbed to Spanish influenza, becoming ill last Thursday and passing away Saturday night. She is the second daughter of Judge and Mrs. Bennett to die within a few months, the oldest daughter, having passed away a few months ago.

SLICE IS TAKEN OFF OF BUDGET

After Governor Withycombe had pruned certain amounts from the budget estimate of the state penitentiary for the next biennium, the total left which the legislature will be asked for to appropriate is $112,044.52. An opinion of Attorney General Brown last week held that authority to alter the budget for the prison lies with the governor, and the executive went over the figures at his office yesterday in conference with Warden Murphy, Frank Davey, bookkeeper of the prison, and R. B. Goodin, secretary of the board of control. In the conference yesterday the governor first cut out $100,000 asked for a new steel cell house, and then eliminated $50,000 for remodeling the present cell house in the event that the new building was not allowed. Of the total remaining $291,840.92 is for salaries and maintenance on a basis of the reduction of population to its present number of 310. Governor Withycombe said that about $10,000 has been spent for farm machinery at the prison under a Warden Murphy and that the institution is now excellently equipped in that respect.

GOVERNOR TRIMS ESTIMATE SUBMITTED BY WARDEN MURPHY OF STATE PRISON.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 28.—Both influenza and pneumonia showed a sharp increase at army camps during the 48 hours ending at noon today, the cause being ascribed by the surgeon general tonight to the arrival of new men at the camps in the south and southwest. Sunday's total of influenza cases jumped to 2485 from the low record of 1602 reported Saturday and there was a further increase today to 2831 cases. Pneumonia cases Sunday were 495 against 396 the day before. Today's figure was 421, a slight decrease from Sunday. Deaths, however, continue to decline with 192 Sunday and 184 today.

INFLUENZA INCREASES AGAIN.

Your Printed Message Should Be Appropriate It should harmonize with the business in which you are engaged. It makes no difference whether your message be a business card, a handbill, a letter, a pamphlet, or a catalog—the rule holds good in every case. You would not expect a machinist or a coal dealer to be attired the same as a florist or a jeweler. It would not be appropriate. Neither would it be appropriate for their printed message to be similar. The coal ad may be printed in bold, black type, on coarse, heavy paper; but the high grade jewelry ad should be printed artistically with light face type, in refined colors and on finest quality paper. What is more, the printed message should be up to the minute in style. Old, antiquated style in printing creates just as bad an impression as would the hoopskirt, the hobble skirt or the "train" if worn today. It's our business to make your printed message appropriate. Our printing plant is supplied with the very latest type faces, ornaments and other equipment. The plant is in charge of a printer of unusual ability—a man who makes a study of what is appropriate and timely for each printing job. His services and his advice are at your disposal.
