Keep Clean

Keep clean inside, as well as outside. Do not allow food poisons to accumulate in your bowels. Headache, a sign of self-poisoning, will point to numerous other troubles which are sure to follow. Keep yourself well, as thousands of others do, by taking, when needed, a dose or two of the old, reliable, vegetable, family liver medicine.

Black-Draught

Mrs. Maggie Bledsoe, Oswatimie, Kan., says: "Black-Draught cured me of constipation of 15 years standing, which nothing had been able to help. I was also a slave to stomach trouble. Everything I ate would sour on my stomach. I used two packages of Black-Draught, and Oh! the blessed relief it has given me. Black-Draught should be on your shelf. Get a package today, price 25c. One cent a dose."

to 10 o'clock last night. Auditor Paulus reports that the subscriptions for Wednesday have a little better average per capita than those of the former days.

The amount raised thus far is a little less than half of the amount asked from the city of Salem and less than three-fourths of the amount originally assigned as Salem's quota for the united drive.

Practically all of the territory has been covered and with the few subscriptions which are yet to be reported the campaign officials estimate that Salem's total will not exceed $20,000.

Plans are being arranged for a canvass of the city in order that those who have not given in as large proportions as it is felt they should will be given another opportunity to raise their subscriptions. Hundreds of subscriptions have been received which not only do not represent 10 per cent of monthly salary or pay but are considerably less than 5 per cent.

County Chairman Staley has been receiving gratifying reports from many districts in the county outside of Salem.

Ed J. Bell, chairman for the Sublimity division, reports the Rocky Point school district, of which W. H. Downing is chairman, as having raised $210 for the district thus far and the work is yet incomplete.

N. A. Hoffard, chairman for the Woodburn division, reports a total of $1800 for his district with none of the surrounding school districts yet reporting.

The Hayesville school district, G. E. McAfee, chairman, reports $463.50.

All of the above districts have gone over the top for the original quotas which were assigned, but each is continuing in an effort to raise the additional 50 per cent which has been requested by the national director, John R. Mott, in a recent telegram.

Earl Hoisington Killed In Aeroplane Accident

DALLAS, Or., Nov. 14.—(Special to The Statesman.)—Earl Hoisington, a well known and popular Dallas boy, was killed in an aeroplane accident somewhere on the Mexican border this week, according to a telegram received by relatives of the young man in this city late Wednesday afternoon. Hoisington was a lieutenant in the aviation section of the army and had been stationed at a southern California training camp for the past several months as an instructor to beginners. He graduated from the Dallas schools a few years ago and afterwards attended the University of Washington. The nature of the accident, which cost the young man his life was not shown in the telegram.

BULLION RECOVERED

VICTORIA, B. C., Nov. 14.—Gold bullion from the Klondike valued at $130,000 was recovered from the wreck of the steamer Princess Sophia by the salvage steamer Tees, which arrived here today from Lynn canal, Alaska, where the Sophia went down last month with all aboard.

GERMAN CRUISER AGROUND

LONDON, Nov. 14.—(By British Wireless Service)—A big German cruiser is aground near Malmo, Sweden, according to a dispatch from Copenhagen. The commander of the warship refused assistance. The cruiser is reported to have a large number of airplanes on board.

man armistice. Admiral Robison arrived here Monday from the United States and on receipt of his appointment left yesterday for London to take up his duties. Rear-Admiral Bullard has been appointed American representative to see to the carrying out of the naval terms of the Austrian armistice. He is now at Pola, the great naval base in the Adriatic and has telegraphed Admiral William S. Benson, American chief of naval operations that the execution of the naval terms of the armistice are proceeding satisfactorily.

The United States now has two cruisers, a destroyer and thirty-six chasers and a destroyer to proceed from Corfa to Pola. These have now arrived, giving the United States a considerable representation in ships and men.

Chasers have been directed to proceed along the Dalmatian coast, visiting Durazzo, Scutari and other points on the coast so that the American flag may be seen by the inhabitants.

OFFICIALS SILENT AS TO PEACE CONGRESS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—In advance of the meeting of the supreme war council, soon to be held at Versailles officials here decline to discuss the approaching peace conference or to indicate any views the government may have as to the time or place of its assembly. America's suggestions on these subjects probably will be presented to the council itself by Colonel E. M. House the government's special representative in Europe.

The development of the Separatist movement in Austria and Germany, resulting in the uprising of so-called independent republics on the basis of former German and Austrian provinces promises to meet much difficulty in the further progress of peace negotiations. Each of these states wishes to be represented independently at the peace table and adjustment of all these delicate questions is one of the tasks devolving on the supreme war council.

In some quarters today it was suggested that the supreme war council also may consider at this time some of the protests which have been made by the defeated central powers of their component states against certain features of the armistice which they assert are unworkable or else calculated to create serious conditions among the distressed civilian populations. In no event, however, would any change that would in any way jeopardize the maintenance by the allies and America of absolutely military domination over the defeated foe be made.

BERLIN GOVERNMENT WOULD CURB NAVY

COPENHAGEN Nov. 14.—The Berlin government has issued orders in which it says it will support the officers in maintaining discipline in the navy.

NICE QUESTION

the government has taken over the exclusive distribution of this brand and is supplying the troops with it. As to candy, it is all right if you leave out the nuts, which are likely to mold while crossing. Flat chocolate bars instead of the rounded nut variety should be sent, as they are much more easily packed. Other confections should go in tin boxes.

Many of the boys have written home their needs when sending their labels. One wanted cold cream and kodak films while another man asked his wife to have his favorite blend of tobacco made up at certain cigar store and send it along with some corn salve. And so the wife appeared in due time with a cloth sack of the smoking material in just the quantity to fill the box, except for the hook for the tin of corn remedy. Other men are asking for tooth-brushes, as they say those in France are of inferior quality.

What some of the women in charge of the packing maintain is the nicest gift they have sent yet was a chamomile vest one father sent his son in the aviation service. Along with it in the chinks in the corners went gum and chocolate bars.

Joy at receiving the labels is being expressed everywhere. One mother sent her husband rushing in from the country the minute the welcome letter containing hers arrived. Because of his haste the father had to make another trip. He had left the sticker at home and so could not prove his right to a carton. The holiday spirit is in the air. The holiday spirit is in the air. Several visitors at the booth have been so grateful for the aid given them in getting their gifts ready that they have brought with it slices of fruit cake and candies for the women in charge.

Although the package is limited in weight to 2 pounds 15 ounces, the main difficulty is not in lightening them but in stretching the box to cover the contents. Over half have had to remove articles from the boxes on account of making them too bulky to close. The last date for shipment is November 20 and a heavy rush is expected during the coming week at the packing station.

REDUCTION OF REVENUE IS PLAN FROM McADOO

the difference between the $6,000,000,000 of tax plus $6,866,000,000 gathered from the fourth Liberty loan and the eighteen billions of expenses.

The senate finance committee tomorrow will examine Mr. McAdoo's program, and will obtain information from him in person when he appears before the committee late in the afternoon. Chairman Simmons, after studying Mr. McAdoo's letter, said in the main he approved of the secretary's recommendations.

After representing that government expenses for July, August and September and October, this year, amounted to $6,635,000,000, or $1,650,000,000 a month, Mr. McAdoo's letter said: "There seems every reason to anticipate a large reduction in the government's expenditures during the balance of the fiscal year. How great that reduction will be it is impossible at the moment to estimate. It seems reasonable to suppose that decrease in government expenditures cannot be very rapid if a wise policy of readjustment and transfer of activities from a war to a peace basis is followed.

"The United States will be the fortunate possessor of foodstuffs, raw materials and manufactured products of which Europe and the rest of the world are in dire need. Not all of the allies can fully pay us in gold, for some have little and others have none to spare, nor in commodities during the period of reconstruction for some of them will not soon be able to resume normal activities, and the United States must be prepared to continue, therefore, to enable the governments of the allies, or some of them, to make purchases on credit. I shall promptly ask the congress to continue to establish such credits and make loans within reasonable limits to these governments for purposes growing out of the war.

"It is of the utmost importance that such foreign loans should be held down to a minimum and as soon as may be discontinued, and that every reasonable argument should be pressed upon the governments of the allies to prepare themselves and their people to make payment for their exports from the United States by imports into the United States; that is, in effect, to make cash payments instead of payment by credit. "This is not only the policy which is actuated by a proper desire to be helpful to the governments, which, with us, have borne the burden of the war, and to their peoples, but is also the policy of enlightened selfishness. It is to be apprehended that the sudden cessation of the extraordinary demands on our industry and products consequent upon the conclusion of the war, may result in a sudden reduction of prices and wages and even unemployment if we are not prepared to sell on credit to the extent that may be necessary."

Taking up the pending revenue bill, the secretary explained his views as follows: "The excess profits tax rates, applicable to the calendar year 1918 should not be greater than those provided for in the existing law of October, 1917, and should be payable only in those cases where such extension would yield a larger return than the proposed war profits tax. The 80 per cent war profits tax applicable to the calendar year 1918 should be retained. Contracts having been made during the past months in the expectation of a heavy war profits tax. Every one is agreed that war profits should be taxed now.

"It is time to look ahead to the future of American business and industry. Our tax measures should be so devised as to encourage and stimulate rather than to burden and oppress them. I, therefore, recommend the immediate amending of the pending bill so as to provide that the collection of taxes levied upon war and excess profits for the calendar year 1918 and payable in the year 1919, shall come to an end, except insofar as may be necessary to subject to these taxes profits, which, though arising from contracts entered into during the war period, would, under existing regulations, technically be profits of 1919 and not profits of not 1918.

"It seems wise to provide, with the elimination of the calendar year of 1919 of the war excess profits taxes, for a sufficient revenue from corporation and individual income taxes applicable to the calendar year 1919 to make the total revenue payable during the calendar year 1920 not less than $4,000,000,000."

After citing necessity of "adequate provisions for amortization, conservative valuation of inventories and the ascertainment of the minimum income, which shall be exempted" as taxes, Mr. McAdoo added: "I cannot overemphasize the importance of determining now the basis of taxation which will apply to the calendar year 1919 as well as to the calendar year 1918. Business and industry and individual initiative and enterprise are entitled to know in advance the basis of taxation upon which all the activities of the nation must be conducted. Prosperity cannot be maintained if business is left in uncertainty as to taxation."

America's Answer!

When the call came to save food, the bakers were selected for the first line of defense in food conservation.

It is a matter of history how they came resolutely and patriotically to the front—how they accomplished what they set out to do.

Such was their co-operation that this country was able to spare wheat necessary to supply the deficit of our allies.

No one, of course, can predict what changes the future may necessitate; however, the nation does know that the bakers will fully meet whatever conditions may demand of them and supply bread of full food values and of excellent quality.

It is impossible for us to not feel pride in supplying
