Christmas Labels Numerous-When one woman received four Christmas package labels from her husband and passed them out so that four of her relatives could each send him a box, the Red Cross parcel committee objected and stopped the other three. This is one example of the work of the new committee citd by Mrs. W. M. Hamilton, its chairman, at the regular meeting of the chapter executive committee yesterday. She said that 198 cartons have been given out and 130 are already in the mails.
