

THE BIG SHOE SALE

CLOSING OUT THE MOORE BROTHERS STOCK

Started off with a rush. We waited on hundreds of customers yesterday. Sold more shoes than we have sold any week day excepting Saturday this year. This proves to our satisfaction that the shoes are priced right. A great many customers said they would send their friends today. We are going to ask every one to come as early as possible so we can give them more attention. This slaughter will possibly last all of this month.

LEAGUE OF NATIONS SCOFFED AT BY SENATOR REED DECLARES MOST MONSTROUS DOCTRINE YET OFFERED SEES EMBROILMENT OF U. S. IN EUROPEAN SCRAPS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 21.—Opposition to a league of nations was voiced late today by Senator Reed of Missouri, Democrat, who in a speech in the senate, declared any arrangement that would cause the United States to be embroiled in European troubles was "the most monstrous doctrine ever proposed in this republic."

Regarding the proposed international court, Senator Reed said: "If you stop to think, you will be appalled at the idea that any man could ever have suggested such a thing."

"If the United States would have a single vote in the court," Senator Reed said, "it would rank with Haiti, Liberia and other small countries."

"If we are to have a greater representation, what becomes of the doctrine of the equality of nations?"

Senator Reed then presented charts showing the close blood relationship of crowned heads of Europe, and said: "Imagine the condition of the American republic going into this court composed of representatives of these ruling houses—blood relatives. They make a spider's web into which the American fly is invited.

"Dare any man propose to submit the Monroe Doctrine to any tribunal of European kings or of European nations?" shouted Senator Reed.

Regarding the league of nations, Senator Reed said he did not know how "dreamers dream on this subject," but declared that principles of international law can be settled by treaty without resort to a league of nations. In discussing the composition of the league, he asked if "the unspeakable Turk" would be included with the Roman Catholic, Russian, Jewish and Protestant churches.

"Does anyone believe that England would yield her mighty fleet?" he asked. "England would be the master nation of the world and all other nations would be subject to her if she choosed."

Europe, Senator Reed continued, has often been in war because of the hatred of rival races, and he said that this hatred will spring into flame as long as there are "men and women on the earth." The world war, he asserted, might be traced to this hatred.

Ambitions of France and Germany to extend their borders and of England to place its power in every quarter of the world, "are part of the blood of the people," the senator added.

"In all this maetstrom of ambition," he continued, "it is proposed to thrust the United States. It is proposed that every time there appears a cloud on the horizon of Europe that we shall issue the draft, call our boys from the farm, and pour out the blood on controversies that do not effect us one bit."

The life of the republic may be at stake in the issue, Senator Reed declared, adding that the very foundation on which the republic stands is involved.

The policy of the friendliness of the United States to South American republics also is involved, the speaker said, and added that it meant the binding of this government to European kings. He declared he protested against such a policy "in the name of the fathers of the republic and of the boys of the nation."

Senator Phelan of California, in the last ten minutes of the session of the senate replied to Senator Reed. He said that the Missouri senator's argument that racial differences among nations militates against such a plan is one of the arguments in favor of it. The freedom and democracy accorded to small nations of Europe, would be worthless, he declared, unless some agency such as the league of nations, is created to protect them.

Replying to Senator Reed's statement that England would not participate in such a league, Senator Phelan said that Premier Lloyd George had unqualifiedly declared in favor of the plan.

In an executive session of the senate, Senator Phelan introduced a resolution proposing that the senate approve the principle of a league to "prevent wars and enforce justice."

Road District Meetings May Be Held Thanksgiving

In an opinion yesterday Attorney General Brown held that road districts may legally hold road district meetings on Thanksgiving day to vote on special road taxes. The question was submitted by District Attorney George Neuner of Douglas county where November 28 had been set aside as the date for the meetings. This was prior to the president's Thanksgiving proclamation. The opinion points out that judicial business is prohibited by law on a holiday but not such acts as special elections.

CHANGE AT PEN IS CONFIRMED

Governor Says Murphy Is an Idealist; Prison Sentiment Is Defied

Governor Withycombe yesterday confirmed the report that he has sent a letter to Warden Charles A. Murphy of the Oregon State penitentiary asking him to resign from that position, and the governor announced positively that before the first of the year Robert L. Stevnh, former sheriff of Multnomah county, will take Murphy's place as head of the state prison. Stevens has accepted the appointment and will arrive in Oregon from New York in the early part of December to accept the position.

The governor reiterated that the change is to be made on purely economic basis, and that he has reached the decision after a personal investigation of affairs at the prison.

"I have had a number of conferences with Warden Murphy to see if expenses could not be cut down," said the governor. "But it seems that this is not possible, so I have decided to make a change. I have a very high regard for Warden Murphy as a man, but I believe he is an idealist and that his ideas will not work out at the state prison. Waste in the commissary department is largely the reason I have asked Murphy to resign. I am determined to have the state penitentiary a model institution as far as possible and to put Oregon on the map for state prison administration."

In appointing Mr. Stevens, Governor Withycombe defies sentiment existing among the prisoners at the penitentiary who prior to the appointment of Mr. Murphy went on record as opposed to the appointment of any former sheriff or other police official.

Warden Murphy flatly refused to make any statement yesterday concerning the governor's request that he resign. "I have absolutely nothing that I will say today," said the warden. "I shall make a statement in a day or two and will give nothing but a prepared statement."

Former Salem Couple Injured by Automobile

A few minutes after registering at the Imperial hotel, Tuesday night, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hahn, formerly of Salem, were injured in an automobile. The couple had just arrived in Portland and after calling at the hotel, stepped out to the street for a trolley car when two boys in an automobile sped down the pavement, struck them, and hurled away. Mrs. Hahn sustained injuries to her back and hip and was removed to the hospital. Mr. Hahn, with a gash on top of the head, was taken to the emergency hospital.

Assessed Valuation of Express Companies Fixed

The state tax commission yesterday fixed the assessed valuation of express companies on operating property in Oregon. Figure as compared with last year are:

American Express company, $202,709; last year, $196,198. Northern Express company, $163,205; last year, $100,670. Great Northern Express company, $83,280; last year, $79,749. Wells Fargo, $272,548; last year, $351,231.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that has never failed to remove dandruff at once, and that is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and itching of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and it will feel a hundred times better.
