BITS FOR BREAKFAST

First day of last month.
 Busy day in Salem stores yesterday.

The whole of Mackensen's German army of 170,000 men is interned in Hungary. With the food shortage there, it will likely be a hungry army.

The censorship bureau at Washington are out in the cold. The unscrambling goes on; and about a million more Washington seat warmers can easily be spared.

London is a big town, but there are so many American soldiers and sailors on leave there that the hotel accommodations are taxed beyond their limits. The khaki suits are the most observed of all on the streets of the great metropolis.

The Yanks in Belgium who fell heir to five car loads of "liberty cabbage," known in Germany as sauerkraut, abandoned by the retiring Hun armies, were able to add materially to the bills of fare of their messes. There are worse things than "liberty cabbage."

SOCIETY

Of much interest to the members of the younger set was the dance given Friday evening by Mrs. L. F. Griffith for their daughter, Miss Ruth Griffith. The affair was given at the chapel of the State hospital, which was beautifully decorated for the occasion. The guest list was Miss Mary Jane Alberts, Miss Johanna James, Miss Harriett Griffith, Miss Elsie Parangoulian, Miss Edna Ackerman, Miss Alice McCleddan, Miss Dorothy Patterson, Miss Ruth Barnes, Miss Hilda Tillinghast, Miss Maxine Buren, Miss Rinnabelle Gold-

On last Thursday evening the Spa was the scene of a pretty dinner party when a four-course dinner was served to a party of 10 girls from Willamette university. Covers were placed for Miss Genevieve Sevy, Miss Eunice Rush, Miss Mildred Stevens, Miss Emma Shannafelt, Miss Mable Stanford, Miss Gladys Nichols, Miss Metta Walker, Miss Eva Parrett, Miss Glenna Teeters and Miss Mary Putnam.

Miss Constance Cartwright returned to Forest Grove to resume her duties as instructor in Pacific university after having spent Thanksgiving at the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Richard Cartwright, at their home on Ferry street.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Hopson presided at a Thanksgiving dinner party at their home 1239 Chemeketa street to the immediate members of the family. This was the first gathering in 12 years where all of the daughters have been in attendance. At 1 o'clock dinner was served. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hill, Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Simpson of Hillsboro, Mrs. Grace Pilkington, Miss Zella Hopson of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. M. Iark of Portland and Miss Vivian Hopson, who is attending the university of Oregon.

The Beethoven club, composed of a group of piano and violin pupils of Miss Joy Turner, held the initial meeting of the season at Miss Turner's studio, 335 North Capitol street last Sunday afternoon, November 24.

After an interesting program musical topics were discussed and a competitive examination in musical terms and definitions took place. Later dainty refreshments were served. The club meetings are a regular monthly feature of this well known teacher, assisting largely in putting the pupils at ease before an audience.

The program follows:

Mrs. E. Cooke Patton presided at a dinner party at the Patton residence on Court street on Thanksgiving day. An attractive color scheme of yellow was prevalent in the table appointments, the center-piece consisting of yellow shaggy chrysanthemums. The dinner guests included Miss Blossom Redman, Warner Grass of Woodburn, Charles W. Wilson, Lucilla Patton and Mr. and Mrs. Patton.

50 EGGS A DAY

"Since using 'More Eggs' I get 40 to 50 eggs a day instead of 8 or 9," writes A. P. Woodard of St. Cloud, Fla. This scientific tonic has made big egg profits for thousands of poultry raisers all over the U. S. Get ready now and make big profits out of your hens this winter. A $1.00 package will double the egg production and a million dollar bank guarantees to refund your money if you are not entirely satisfied. Send $1.00 now to E. J. Reefer, the poultry expert, Room 154 Reefer Bldg., Kansas City, Mo., or send $2.25 and get 3 regular $1.00 packages on special discount for a full season's supply. Or write for his valuable free book that tells the experience of a man who has made a fortune out of poultry.

One of the most delightful of the many dinner parties given on Thanksgiving was that enjoyed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Meyers on Court street, when a gala gathering encircled a handsomely decorated table, bedecked with chrysanthemums of many hues. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee, Steiner, Mrs. G. Steiner, Mrs. Dan J. Craig. Miss Craig is attending the University of Oregon at Eugene.

Steiner, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Kerran of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Denton, Miss Evelyn Cathay and Mr. and Mrs. Meyers.

Miss Bernice Craig arrived in Eugene Wednesday afternoon to spend Thanksgiving vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Craig. Miss Craig is attending the University of Oregon at Eugene.
