

Society

BY DORRIS LEAH SIKES.

THE resignation of Mrs. W. H. Dancy, who for 21 months has been at the head of the supply department of the Red Cross, deprives that organization of the services of one of its most enthusiastic and untiring workers.

In addition to that work she has, since the resignation of Mrs. John Carson about a month ago, superintended the packing of supplies. Almost every day, since she took up the work, has been devoted to the Red Cross duties, regardless of her home interests. She will continue as a member of the executive board of the Red Cross.

Besides her duties in the chapter, she is one of the members of the Community labor board. Mrs. Charles Graham will fill Mrs. Dancy's place.

A well known Oregon woman is Mrs. F. W. Swanton, of Portland, who has been entertained in Salem for the past week as the guest of Mr. and Ernest Hofer. Mrs. Swanton is secretary of the Oregon Humane society and her purpose in coming to Salem was to find homes for the dogs at the penitentiary, since Warden Stevens has ruled that no dogs may be kept there.

A number of people have answered her appeal and in some instances provisions have been made that they should be returned to their masters should the men be released. Mrs. Swanton returned to Portland Thursday.

Three members of the ways and means committee of the legislature were guests of Dr. and Mrs. J. N. W. Mrs. Alexander Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Lee Patterson and Senator Strayer.

Dr. Prince W. Byrd, physician at the state asylum, returned Thursday night from Oglethorpe, Ga., where he had been in the X-ray department of the service. Dr. Byrd left Salem about the first of November.

Two new teachers will commence their duties at Washington junior high when school reopens. These are Miss Margaret Chickie and Miss Elinor Warner, seniors at Oregon normal school. The former will have the fourth grade, formerly held by Miss Kathryn Powell, and the latter will take the second grade which Gladys Lucy Jewitt formerly taught. Both plan to complete their course at Monmouth this summer.

O. K. DeWitt of Portland, is spending the week-end in Salem.

Mrs. A. R. Fairchild and Miss Alza E. McLoughlin, stenographers for legislature are at their respective homes in Portland over the week-end.

Mrs. J. T. Charmley and small son.

Roy, are here from Staples, Minn., visiting with relatives. Mrs. Charmley is a sister of County Clerk U. G. Boyer of this city. After leaving Salem they will visit with Mrs. Charmley's sister and daughter at Bend. This is their first trip west.

One of the most recent weddings to take place in Marion County was that of Miss Josephine Schieman and City Attorney S. H. Heltzel of Stayton. Owing to the influenza ban on all public and private meetings at Stayton the occasion was a quiet one.

The wedding took place at 8:30 o'clock P. M., January 16th, at the home of the bride near West Stayton. The ceremony was performed by Judge J. B. Grier of Stayton and was witnessed only by immediate members of the family.

Miss Schieman is a popular member of the younger set living in the eastern part of Marion county and Mr. Heltzel is prominently identified with the development of that section. He has been city attorney of Stayton for nearly eight years. He is a brother of J. G. Heltzel of this city.

Miss Hazel Warmoth is the guest of Miss Wanda Taylor in Eugene for a few days.

Mrs. Margaret Lovelace has returned to her work in the office of Homer Smith after an absence of about two weeks on account of influenza.

Mrs. John H. Albert has been appointed as one of a committee of three to represent the women of this state in the reconstruction work. Mrs. Albert's appointment came from Mrs. Chas. N. Castner, of Hood River, who was elected as chairman of the committee by Mayor Baker, of Portland, head of the general state committee. The other member of the committee besides Mrs. Castner and Mrs. Albert, is Mrs. G. J. Frankel, president of the Federation of Women's clubs of Portland.

At the meeting of the state-wide committee in Portland Friday, Oregon was divided into 20 districts, a woman representative being appointed by Mrs. Castner to head each district. Mrs. Albert was unable to attend this meeting.

Mrs. W. S. Mott is entertaining as her house guest, Miss Mercedes Sims of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Knighton are here from Portland to spend the week-end with the latter's mother, Mrs. E. E. Waters.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCammon left for Seattle Friday morning, where Mr. McCammon will re-enter the brokerage business in which he was engaged before his enlistment in the aviation service last year. During her husband's absence Mrs. McCammon, who was Esther Carson, has lived with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Carson and has been employed at the state house.

Corporal Frank King DeWitt passed through Salem yesterday morning on his way to Camp Lewis, where he will receive his discharge. Corporal DeWitt has been with the balloon division since last spring. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, 459 Oak street.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayne Livesay will be in Salem during legislature, the former being mailing clerk in the senate. Mr. Livesay has been in the radio division of the navy, the ship on which he was stationed having been torpedoed off the coast of England last spring. He is a cousin of Mrs. W. D. Clarke.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Roman, of Clatsop county, are living at the Dr. M. E. Pomeroy residence during legislature.

Mrs. M. E. Pomeroy spent the past few days visiting with friends in Portland.

Major L. A. Walton, who will leave on his return trip to Houston, Texas, today, will visit with his sister, Miss Beatrice Walton, a junior at Mills college before going back to camp.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cupper enjoyed visits from their sons, M. C. Cupper from eastern Oregon and F. W. Cupper of Portland, during the past week. The former was in Salem for a week but the latter only remained a few days.

Miss Bertha Broyles is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Broyles. Miss Broyles is a bookkeeper at Olds Wortman & Kings in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ratley, who are visiting here from Omaha, Neb., were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Sorri Friday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Bailey are the parents of Mrs. E. E. Colony. On their return trip they plan to go through California.

Mrs. C. S. Hampton and small daughter, Mary Jossie, have returned

MRS. EMMA E. GALLOWAY

This picture with her little granddaughter, Betty Galloway, was taken shortly before Mrs. Galloway's death.

Mrs. Emma E. Galloway, of whom The Statesman gave an account at the time of her death, was buried at the Masonic cemetery at McMinnville, January 13th. The funeral services were at Macy's parlors and were conducted by Friendship Rebekah lodge of that city. Floral tributes from all over the state expressed the esteem which her many friends held for her.

The song, "Only Remembered by What I Have Done" was rendered by loving friends.

Judge Thomas F. Ryan, past grand master of the I. O. O. F., delivered a tribute to her worth as a wife, mother, and public spirited citizen. The speaker, who had been intimately associated with the deceased in fraternal work for the past 15 years, gave her credit for much of the success of the I. O. O. F. home at Portland. She had served without compensation the orphans and inmates of the home. When president of the Rebekah assembly she visited every lodge in the jurisdiction after traveling by stage and horseback.

Her work in the W. R. C. was no less exacting. When she was president of that order she visited every section of this state in the interest of the old soldiers and their families. She attended the national encampment of the G. A. R. held at Cleveland, Ohio, and was on the reception committee to welcome Mrs. William McKinley.

"It can be truly said that during her whole life, Emma E. Galloway, as a pioneer teacher in our public schools for ten years to the hour of her death, lived solely for the amelioration and uplift of humanity," said Judge Ryan. "When I learned of her death, I felt that we had met a loss we could never replace and I at once called to mind the scripture in Revelations: 'Right blessed are the dead which die in the Lord, from henceforth, yea saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors, for they may rest from their labors for had a great place in the public life of Oregon and did her work well, promoting many things that have resulted in good.'

to their home in Seattle after a week's visit at the home of Mrs. R. W. Craig.

Miss Eva Oliver will return to her home at Bellingham, Wash., tomorrow after two weeks spent in Salem as the guest of Mrs. Roy Byrd.

Mrs. Henry Nolan, with her two children, Doris and Max, left Thursday night for their home at Tulare, Cal., after an extended visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Gregg.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Allen returned Friday morning from San Francisco, where they have been for the past 19 days.

Miss Irene Kuntz returned to Salem from Bremerton on Friday. Miss Kuntz is a nurse and went to Bremerton on a case.

Philip J. Gray came from Portland yesterday to join his wife and little son, Billy, who are visiting Mrs. Gray's mother, Mrs. Bessie Kimball, secretary of the Y. W. C. A. They are registered at the Hotel Marion.

DALLAS, Ore., Jan. 17.—At the annual meeting of Sarah Childress Polk Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution of this city held at the home of Mrs. C. B. Sundberg this week the following were elected as officers to serve for the ensuing year: Regent, Mrs. C. B. Sundberg; vice regent, Mrs. C. L. Crider; secretary, Mrs. John R. Sibley; treasurer, Mrs. M. L. Boyd; registrar, Mrs. H. C. Eakin; president of the C. A. R., Mrs. J. R. Alwood.

A movement was inaugurated by the chapter to have the county court obtain one of the cannon offered by the government to counties who will pay the freight on the same from the shipping point.

Clyde B. Clancey returned Thursday from San Francisco where he has been for the past two weeks.

Miss Glenna Teeters and Miss Helen Rose, Willamette students, have returned to Lanes Hall after visits with friends. Miss Teeters spent the holidays with Gladys Nichols at Newberg and Miss Rose has visited for the past two weeks with Gertrude Dillard at Roseburg. Friends of Miss Dillard will be disappointed to hear that she is not to be back in school this coming term but will teach near Reedport, Oregon.

The wedding of Miss Helen Dull, of Salem, and John Witt Baker, of Portland, was solemnized yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Leslie Methodist church, Rev. R. N. Aldrich officiating.

Those who witnessed the ceremony were Miss Lillian Dull, a sister of the bride, Harley Rupert, and Dr. James Fairchild, both friends of the groom. Mrs. M. Eva Dull, the mother of the bride lives in Salem.

Mr. Baker is employed in the shipyards in Portland and after the 25th of the month they will take up housekeeping there. In the meantime they will remain at the home of the bride's mother. The parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baker, live in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Kerr, guests at the home of R. B. Fleming for the past few days, left for California last night. Mr. and Mrs. Kerr are from Idaho. They plan to visit extensively in California before returning to their home.

Miss Margaret Garrison is spending the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Garrison. She is an instructor in one of the Portland high schools.

Friends of Lieutenant Harold Grady of Portland, who conducted dancing classes in Salem a few winters ago, will be sorry to hear that he is seriously ill in a military camp in California. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grady, of La Grande, are with him.

Mr. and Mrs. David Graham, of Eugene, are in the city during legislature, Mr. Graham being a representative from Lane county. Mrs. Graham, who was Mildred Bagley, before her marriage, was raised in Salem. While in Salem they are at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Catlin, at 1299 Chemeketa street.

Former Salem Student Dies While in Hospital

Mrs. Mary Adkins (Miss Mary Harper) passed away at Good Samaritan hospital in Portland Thursday at 2:30 a. m. at the age of 22 years. Death was caused by pneumonia. Beside her husband, Harry M. Adkins, who is quite ill with influenza, she leaves her father, James Harper, of Pratum, four sisters, Mrs. Clifford Jones and Mrs. Maurice Welch, both of Salem, Misses Clara and Mabel Harper, of Marysville, Cal., and one brother, James, at Camp Fordyce, Texas. The deceased had many friends in Salem whom she had made while attending the Capital Business college. She had been married a little over a year and had made her home in Portland since that time. Services will be conducted at Jack's Undertaking parlors at Silverton this morning at 10 o'clock. Interment will be in the Scotts Mills cemetery.

Would Have State Provide Irrigation District Funds

Provision will be contained in a bill to be introduced in the house Monday by Representative Gallagher whereby the state will guarantee the payment of interest and principal on irrigation district bonds. The state land board will be given control of districts coming under the act and a rigid supervision will be exercised. For the purposes of the bill the superintendent of banks and state engineer will be added to the land board. This bill and companion constitutional amendment also to be introduced by Gallagher, will both be referred to a vote of the people if they pass the legislature.

AVIATORS FALL IN BAY

PENSACOLA, Fla., Jan. 18.—Student aviator John Wigmore, of Los Angeles, was killed near here today with Ensign A. D. Honeywell of Geneva, N. Y., and student aviator James J. Gray of Pittsburgh, when their seaplane fell into Pensacola Bay. All the bodies were recovered.

What has become of the old-fashioned "work-or-fight" order. A lot of the loafers are taking advantage of the armistice.

REAL CORSET VALUE

Only by securing smart style with real physical comfort can you secure real corset value. You can get all these things in the line of PROLASET CORSETS. A model for every type of figure.

RENSKA L. SWART
Corset Specialist
115 Liberty Street

FAMOUS RUSSIAN WOMAN ARRIVES

Catherine Breshkovsya Arrives at Victoria Aboard Trans-Pacific Liner

VICTORIA, B. C., Jan. 18.—Catherine Breshkovsya, known as the "Grand Mother" in the Russian revolution, arrived here today from the orient aboard the Japanese trans-Pacific liner Kama Maru. She is going from here to Seattle and from there to Washington, D. C., and Boston, Mass.

NO POLITICAL PURPOSES
BOSTON, Jan. 18.—Miss Alice Stone Blackwell, president of the Massachusetts suffrage association when told of the arrival of Catherine Breshkovsya, at Victoria, B. C., said she thought the Russian revolutionist would devote her efforts in America to collecting funds for Russian orphans.

Miss Blackwell, who has been in close touch with Madame Breshkovsya for many years, discretely stated that in this country that political significance was attached to her visit and said reports that she intended to proceed to the peace conference came from "untrustworthy sources."

"Since it has been rumored that Madame Breshkovsya was coming to America," said Miss Blackwell, "I have had requests from organizations in all parts of the United States who wish to obtain her as a speaker. The National Woman suffrage association is anxious to arrange speaking appointments for her. I feel certain that her work in America will be devoted to the Russian orphans. She was engaged in this work before she left Russia."

CARD INDEX WAS PACKERS' PLAN

Record to Have Been Kept of Attitude of Congressmen on Trade

WASHINGTON, Jan. 18.—Francis J. Heney, counsel for the federal trade commission in its meat packing inquiry told the senate committee today of plans which he said the packers had discussed for a joint office in Washington with a card index on the attitude of congressmen toward legislation. He said the scheme was outlined by John Eversman, former secretary of the national Republican congressional committee and included arrangements for contribution of the packers.

After today's hearing Mr. Eversman said when the charge that he had arranged with an employe of a press association to get information on legislation was made first a year ago, he wrote to the chairman of the standing committee at the capitol explaining that he had asked his counsel, a young reporter, to give him the numbers and titles of bills pertaining to food and that they had been introduced. He said he was told a countain was being made of a mole hill. The reporter in question was

SHIPLEY'S STORE

Feminine articles exclusively

OUTER GARMENTS
INNER GARMENTS

Toilet articles—Yankee Notions
Haberdashery—Stationery—Novelty Jewelry

Feminine Clothes of All Kinds
Feminine Articles of All Kinds

Quality Merchandise at Popular Prices
Where Shopping is a Pleasure

U. G. SHIPLEY CO.

145-147 N. Liberty St. Between State and Court

W. O'Brien, who at that time and for a short time afterward was employed by the United Press association.

Plans Under Way for Education of Soldiers

Rehabilitation work in the matter of education for soldiers is one of the problems confronting the country today. Many young men whose plans had been completed for the university courses will unquestionably now seek colleges where they can complete their training in the shortest possible time.

More intensified courses of study and more practical training will appeal to men who want to get into actual work at an early date. The Polytechnic college of engineering and vocation training located in Oakland, California is an institution that is attracting the attention of many soldier boys who desire to get an engineering education in the shortest possible time. This college was selected by the war department to give many courses in vocational training under section B. S. A. T. G.

The college is planning to continue in a general way these intensified and practical courses, not only for soldiers but for all young men who wish to specialize in certain definite engineering professions.

Ex-Secretary McAdoo claims he could not live on the salary as head of the Treasury Department, and this brings out the query, Won't Secretary Glass go broke?

D. H. MOSHER

HIGH CLASS LADIES' TAILORING
474 Court St.

Embroidery Aids and Suggestions--

We are in a position to help you with your spring embroidery. Bring your embroidery troubles to us.

THE NEEDLECRAFT

429 Court Street Telephone 958

TO SEE, SEE

Dr. C. B. O'NEILL

Dr. L. H. Wilson
In Charge
OPTOMETRIST
Ladd & Bush Bank Bldg.

The eye is the most delicate, most sensitive organ in the body, yet when your eyesight is perfect you should be utterly unconscious of the fact that you have eyes at all.

If your eyes hurt you; if you have to squint; if they feel strained; if it requires effort to see properly; you certainly need glasses to correct your vision.

Let us examine your eyes and tell you what is needed.

Open Daily Except Saturday
Ladd & Bush Bank Bldg.

AN ECONOMICAL, DELIGHTFUL, LIGHT PLACE TO TRADE

Great Dispersal of Fashionable Apparel

Now while this apparel is most desirable, we offer it at prices which are very much less than the actual value. The assortment is extensive and embraces the newest and most charming of the season's styles.

Suits, Coats, Dresses—The Very Best Bargains

The following are typical—they hardly need any further remarks of their high quality and low prices.

Kafoury Bros

416 State Street THE STORE FOR THE PEOPLE 416 State Street